

DOUBLE STAGE SERVICE BEGINS

According to A. Horek, Jr., owner of the Old Oregon Trail stage line which runs between La Grande and Baker and La Grande and Walla Walla county points, on Wednesday a double service will be put on between La Grande and Joseph and all intermediate stations.

The time of leaving La Grande will be 7:30 a. m. for the first stage and 1 p. m. for the second. The first stage will arrive in Joseph at 11 a. m. and the second at 4:30 p. m. Cadillac cars will be used. Mr. Horek operated last year on the same run and now that the roads are nearing completion he expects to enlarge his equipment just as rapidly as the business justifies.

150 BOWLERS IN NORTHWEST MEET

SAN JOSE, Calif., April 12.—The Pacific Coast Bowling congress to be held here April 23-May 10, will break all previous Pacific coast records for entries, according to an announcement made here by O. J. Forman, secretary and treasurer of the congress.

San Jose, Secretary Forman announced, has entered its fiftieth year; San Francisco and Oakland have pledged fifty teams between them; Los Angeles, San Diego and the beach cities of southern California are counted on for another fifty, and Portland, Seattle and other northwest cities are sending teams to the tournament.

The previous record of entries, together with the year and the city in which the congress was held, is as follows: San Francisco, 1913, 24 teams; San Jose, 1917, 29 teams; Los Angeles, 1918, 42 teams; San Francisco, 1919, 63 teams; Oakland, 1920, 54 teams; Fresno, 1921, 91 teams; Los Angeles, 1922, 22 teams.

Los Angeles and San Francisco are out for the 1924 tournament. With 750 or more bowlers taking part in the team event, in addition to the special ladies and elbow events, the annual congress draws more than 1,000 people to the city which holds it, and keeps them there for three days to a week.

ESSAY ON LUCK

Oh, winter came with its sultry breezes.
And found me here with my B. V. 12's;
Now summer comes with its heat and burning,
In slat's red flannels I'm sojourning.

Any man who itches for fame will have to do a lot of scratching before he gets there.

You can break the rules of the game of life and get away with it—but you can't get far away with it.

Amos Tash believes that the only reason a doctor asks a woman to hold out her tongue is to get a chance to write a prescription.

Another nice thing about being honest is you will not be bothered with very much criticism.

WHAT'S NOT SOAP?
We heard a story the other day about a La Grande school teacher who sent home a little boy with a note to his mother suggesting that he be given a bath. The mother replied: "Tommy ain't no rose. Learn him, not smell him."

It would not be so bad if people quit talking after they told all they knew.

Most of the fun we have ceases to be funny as soon as we find that we can afford it easily.

If there is something wrong with your business plan, the late war or prohibition—never blame yourself.

When the people elected him he promised to be a public servant. But it was not long before he pretended to be the public opinion.

It is all right to be proud of your ancestors, but ancestors never got you a rainy, thinks Cy Koloky.

Boys are said to absorb more knowledge over their father's knee than at their mother's.

CORRECT!
A lot of present day stage jokes are made up of raw material.

A man with a post has as much fascination for a woman as a case of illegitimate alcohol has for a man.

A curious relationship has been discovered in a Kansas town, where a man married his mother-in-law and his children called her grandma.

HOW ARE YOU HOPEING HERE?
Young Bride—I'd like to look at some beds.
Salesman—"Two beds?"
Young Bride (hastily)—"Oh, we may never need them!"

A La Grande man finds it hard to keep from sympathizing with the chap who tells you proudly that his car is fourteen months old and his total repairs to date have cost him 85 cents. One hates to remind him of the inevitable calamities that are coming to him all in a bunch.

Germany has just ordered eight hundred billion marks worth of wheat. 'Bout a bushel and a half we reckon, says one of the staff.

THE SHADES OF NIGHT
"I am going to change my hotel. There is a lady opposite me comes in at all hours of the night and undresses, leaving the shades up."
"What has that got to do with you?"
"I can't stay awake all night."

Some men see the sun rise in the morning, others manage to get into bed by that time.

BUSHWAH!
"Why do girls kiss each other and men do not," asks Amos Tash. Junius replied, "Because girls have nothing better to kiss and men have."

According to the reports coming from that House of David trial in Michigan the bewhiskered boss of that saintly place was a regular cut-up.

A Chicago tailor advertises: "We will save you 50 cents to $5.00 on every dollar."

Which, as we figure it, means free riders!

MANY TRAFFIC COPS
TUCSON, Ariz., April 14.—A "traffic officer" at every street intersection in the city, all serving without pay, is the boast of the city officials here. The "officers" have never made an arrest but stand vigil 24 hours daily throughout the year. The traffic regulators are stone knobs, about 18 inches high, and are placed on all important intersections. In event an erring motorist tried to "cut in," the result usually is a smashed wheel, and a smashed motorist.
