

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS

- May 4-Merrymakers at High school.
May 5-Union county track and field meet at Union.
May 25-La Grande high school commencement exercises.

will be open at the high school at 7:30 o'clock and the curtain will rise at 8:15 o'clock. Those who will attend are expecting to arrive a little early, as the seats are not being reserved, in order to have their choice of the seats.

W. H. Casey left this morning for Weiser and other southern Idaho points where he will spend several weeks attending to business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Carr and Edwin Olson returned to La Grande today from Scio, Oregon, where they have been attending the funeral of Mrs. Carr's mother.

Mr. Wm. Ash, who has been confined to his home for the past few days with illness, continues to show a marked improvement, according to today's reports. He expects to be sufficiently recovered to be down town on Monday.

Mrs. Josephine Green, a member of the state hospital for the insane, arrived in La Grande and returned to Pendleton with Mrs. Lijia Niclot in custody. Mrs. Niclot was sent to the hospital about a year ago and was later paroled but her condition becoming worse, she was again transferred to the hospital.

A Pendleton delegation of Old Oregon Trail backers, headed by A. R. Scharr, and a similar duo from Walla Walla, Wash., passed through La Grande this morning on No. 24 bound for Union, where a meeting was held this noon for the purpose of electing an executive committee, representing the various communities in the preparation for the pageant to be held on the top of the Blue mountains road July 4th, to work under the direction of the Old Oregon Trail association, sponsoring the pageant.

Mrs. J. H. Torgler motored to La Grande yesterday, making the round trip in good time, the roads being in excellent condition. Mrs. Torgler had as her guests on the trip, Mrs. Howard Torgler and baby, Mrs. Mary Wright and Mrs. J. H. McArthur. On the return trip the party stopped at Hot Lake to visit with Mrs. Mattie Fleener and Mrs. George Standage, who are both improving under treatment at the sanitarium.

Boy Scout Troop Meets—Boy Scout troop met last evening and a re-organization of the troop took place. New leaders and assistants were appointed. They were as follows: Marlon Crowe, leader; Harold Short, assistant; Kermit Meyers, leader; Joe Jones, assistant; Jack Durland, leader; Morris Blake, assistant; and Ted Kline, leader, with his assistant yet to be appointed. Each of these three patrols start out with three members each and a contest was entered to see which could be Patrol One. The rules of this contest are that the first patrol to secure a full membership of eight and have the boys pass the tenderfoot test would have the honor of being Patrol One and the other two patrols would take their places according to membership. The troops with Marlon Crowe and Kermit Meyers as leaders were right on the job and although the contest has only lasted a day, each have secured seven members, and the others are not far behind. It was definitely decided last evening that a banquet should be held April 28.
