Fashion Notes

Delightfully Practical Suits. Paris—Some of the tailored suits today are delightfully practical and cut on the simplest of lines.

Cocoa Brown Furs. New York—Few furs may today be had in cocoa brown to match suit or frock of that popular shade.

Summer Frocks. Paris—Among the summer frocks of today there is one model likely to become extremely popular.

Pleasant Combination. London—That pleasant combination of colors, dark blue and biscuit, is seen in a surprisingly large number of street frocks today.

Three New Little Fancies. London—Three new little fancies intrigue the younger set today.

but cut only to the base of the neck in back and front. Another is a lace or muslin cuff reaching to the knuckles and the third is a very long chain ending near the knee with a medallion or a jewel.

Graceful Handkerchief Knot. New York—It is noticeable that the loose, negligent and always graceful handkerchief knot is used more and more today.

Carved Amber Pendant. New York—A remarkably effective pendant, swung on the end of a long silk cord, is a bit of carved amber.

Batik Tea Gowns. New York—Nothing is more gorgeous today than the batik tea gowns now to be seen in most shops.

SNOW MELTING AT THE PARK. THE PARK, APR. 21.—Charles Vanorder, with his son Kenneth, have started plowing part of their land which they didn't finish last fall.

John Wallace Boyle, who has looked over his property he had leased, is now on his way to Corvallis where he has rented a small fruit farm in the University city.

Mrs. Rose Lay sent a package of garden seed to the Hunter family seeds that are acclimated to this locality. They were received with great thanks.

Mrs. Bill Hunter took a goodly supply of water cress to her friends in the Park. These water cress grow identically around the mountain springs. They are delicious.

Mrs. Ida M. Hunter of 'The Forks' was well remembered on her birthday anniversary, receiving presents from her father and mother who live in Long Beach, California, and sisters from Montana and Washington.

Miss Ursula E. Hunter will take a position with Mrs. Lee Reynolds at La Grande. She will go there some time this week.

The folks at the Forks are planting their garden, and taking up their strawberries. They are noted for raising some of the finest strawberries in the country.

Jack Haley was a Sunday visitor at the 'Big Log Cabin' at the Forks. He came up horseback and reports a nice visit.

Ralph O. Johnson Pays High Tribute To Tanlac

Well-Known Portland Citizen Declares It Promptly Overcame Long-Standing Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism.

Science has discovered that most of the many ills that afflict humanity are traceable to a disordered condition of the stomach and intestines. Keep these organs healthy and active and you will remain strong, sturdy and well, as nature intended you should be.

Among the many Portland people who have testified to remarkable benefits received from Tanlac is Ralph O. Johnson, residing at 721 East 32nd St., N., who says: 'For almost four years I suffered with stomach trouble, which caused me to lose fifteen pounds. My appetite wasn't worth a cent, and when I would eat a little I would bloat up with gas and feel nauseated for hours afterwards. In addition to indigestion, I had to take something almost every day for constipation. I felt tired and sleepy all the time but when I went to bed it would be hours before I could go to sleep. In the winter time I had so much rheumatism in my shoulders that the only way I could sleep at all was to lie with my arms forced up over my head.'

So many people got after me to try Tanlac that I commenced taking it and before I finished the first bottle I knew I had the right medicine. After taking two bottles the rheumatism was gone, I was rapidly picking up weight, and would fall asleep almost as soon as I hit the bed. I now have such an appetite that if a prize was offered for the biggest eater in Portland, I think I would have a good chance of winning. The indigestion and constipation have completely disappeared, and I have such fine health I feel like a man made over. You can put me down as one of Tanlac's strongest boosters.'

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 35 million bottles sold.

VISITORS HAD A PLEASANT TRIP

One hundred and forty seven visitors from Portland, Umatilla and Huntington were guests of the La Grande O. W. shop employees Saturday and Sunday, the visitors being employees of the same railroad at the divisions named. They arrived in three Pullman cars Saturday and the cars were parked in the La Grande yards furnishing accommodations for the people who were paying a visit to their fellow employees of this city.

A twenty-five piece band and a twelve piece orchestra accompanied the party and at 8 o'clock Saturday night in Honan hall a musical program was given consisting of ten numbers by the band, several vocal, violin and piano solos and selections by the male quartet. C. E. Peck, superintendent of motive power, who was a member of the party have a very interesting talk on railroad work and the social side of life.

Promptly at 9 o'clock dancing started and a couple of hours later a dinner was served to 320 people. Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock the ball team from Umatilla matched a game with the Portland shop team and Umatilla lost by a score of 15 to 10. The grounds were very muddy and both sides played at a disadvantage. In the afternoon the Portland team played the La Grande shop team and La Grande went down to defeat by a score of 8 to 2. During the game a good many spectacular plays brought forth applause. This was Portland's third game of the season and La Grande's first.

The visitors left on No. 23 Sunday evening profusely thanking the La Grande O. W. association.

DANGEROUS JOKES

Spokane Spokesman-Review: At Camden, N. J., a young man was eating a cinnamon bun. Some one told a funny story, and the young man laughed so heartily that he choked to death on the bun. One of the greatest weaknesses of American journalism is disclosed in the fact that while all the accounts of the tragedy specifically mentioned the cinnamon bun, not one of them reproduced the fatal joke. Yet the joke, it seems to us, was a more important item in the story than the bun.

It is true that the joke may have been of a kind that has to be censured by a family paper, but a more plausible theory is that the reporters, realizing their duty to society, declined to give out a whizzo that might prove the death of many of its readers. A story that has already killed one man is, in a sense, dangerous when allowed to run at large. Every once in a while an incident like the above appears in the news. Never, to our knowledge, has the joke, or the praiseworthy feat of somebody some Allen's Foot-Ease in the foot bath and you will solve your foot troubles. Over 1,500,000 pounds of powder for the feet were used by our Army and Navy during the war. Sold everywhere.

DO YOUR FEET HURT?

When shoes pinch or corns and bunions ache, get a package of Allen's Foot-Ease. The antiseptic, healing powder to be shaken into the shoes, takes the sting out of corns, bunions and callouses, and gives instant relief to smarting, itching, swollen feet. At night when your feet ache and hurt from walking or dancing, sprinkle some Allen's Foot-Ease in the foot bath and you will solve your foot troubles. Over 1,500,000 pounds of powder for the feet were used by our Army and Navy during the war. Sold everywhere.

PEARE'S GLASSES. SAVE YOUR EYES. Thanking God for having eyes with which to see and then abusing them eight hours a day doesn't sound consistent. The way some people treat their eyes would lead one to think that new ones could be bought anywhere, any time, at about twenty-five cents a pair. People actually busy-daily with one of the most precious assets with which they are endowed. For instance, How much could you earn tomorrow if you should suddenly become blind? But you don't have to become wholly blind to reduce the value of your vision. In this highly organized and specialized world of today you've got to get things over a little better than the other fellow to keep the world coming your way. Poor vision will slow you up and let the other fellow pass. If you have been trying the job with headaches, and getting a generally rotten feeling during the day, consider these conditions advance notice from a couple of straggled eyes that they are becoming impatient of their condition of employment and are going on a strike! Wisdom would suggest arbitration. They'll remain loyal employees if you meet them halfway! A visit here—a careful examination—a pair of properly fitted glasses—will put them in a cheerful mood once more. Very sincerely, DR. W. M. PEARE Optometrist, With J. H. Peare & Son
