Trackmen of Baker Lose to Blues, 107-15

Four Events Are Forfeited to Blue and White Squad; Baker Takes Two First Places.

On a muddy field, that was just on the verge of being wet enough to make the field and track meet difficult to hold, the La Grande track team decisively defeated the Baker athletes by the score of 107 to 15 here Saturday afternoon.

Baker, handicapped by being able to enter but six men in the competition, fought a valiant fight against heavy odds making 15 points out of a total of 50 points that were actually contested, the other 35 being forfeited to La Grande due to the fact that Baker had no entries in the pole vault, the 120 yard high hurdles, the shot put and the javelin. These events will be run off by La Grande men sometime in the future, or other means taken to ascertain whom the points should go to, in order to give the local athletes a chance to win their letters.

Larson, of La Grande, was high point man of the meet, winning three of the events he entered in and placing second in the fourth.

Taggart Strong.

Taggart, of Baker, won 8 points for his team, winning first in the 220 yard dash and second in the 100 yard dash. Price, La Grande's star 440 and 220 man, was slightly ill and although he won the 440 in fair time, was beaten by Taggart and Steinbeck in the 220 yard dash, rain in 25 flat. In condition Price and Taggart should run a close 220 with the outcome slightly in favor of the La Grande man.

Payton, of Baker, edged Larson out of first place in the broad jump by a leap of 17 feet 10 1/2 inches, beating Larson by 1 inch. Payton also placed third in the discus, and Bellamy, of Baker, was the other Quez City boy to score, placing third in the half mile.

Discus Heave Good.

Larson, with a heave of 105 feet 10 inches in the discus, took an easy first. Larson looks as if he could raise that considerable. At present he is but 5 feet 7 1/2 inches short of the Eastern Oregon record, set by Boers, of Baker, in 1910 in La Grande.

The meet, from start to finish, was interesting. In the first event, the 100 yard dash, Larson beat Taggart by a few inches, Taggart gaining steadily on the Blue athlete in the last 20 yards.

The mile run was a runaway for La Grande, Zimmerman coming in first.

The broad jump was won by Taggart and the 440 yard dash was taken by Price, in 57.3-5 seconds, although Price was slightly ill at the time.

Zimmerman again came to the front in the high jump with a leap of four feet 10 inches, not so bad considering the wet ground.

Taggart won the 220 yard dash and Jacobson won the mile, with Eugene Metcalf a close second.

Larson's heave of the discus left no doubt as to who was the winner. A second throw of Larson's went over the 100 foot mark by one foot. Larson also won the 220 yard low hurdles.

Relay Exciting.

With the score standing La Grande 102, Baker 15, the relay men lined up. La Grande's team, composed of Smith, Smutz, Lynch and Steinbeck, was weaker than last Saturday due to Price's being unable to run. Baker's aggregation, consisting of Taggart, Reider, Cundiff and Payton pressed them close to the finish, Steinbeck winning the final lap by a few yards. Smith took an early lead and the lead was maintained although in the last quarter it appeared that Baker had a chance to cut it down and possibly win.

A fair crowd was in attendance, the meet starting at 2:15 o'clock.

To Meet Pendleton.

Next Saturday the Blues journey to Pendleton, there to take on the Bucks who for two consecutive years have been Eastern Oregon track and field champions. Pendleton is rated as a favorite over La Grande inasmuch as she has most of her 1922 stars back and several new men of won't.

Corvallis Meet, May 12, Is Postponed for the Season
A late intercollegiate track and field meet, that was to have been held in Corvallis, under the auspices of the O. A. C., on May 12th, has been postponed for this season.

The reason for the postponement is that the Portland schools, who are in a separate league from the state high school association, failed to be permitted to take part, which was acceptable to Corvallis. A referendum was then taken among the state high schools, on the request that Portland be not permitted to enter men in the event, and the result was that members of the state high school athletic league voted overwhelmingly against Portland's entrance.

Although there is little gold money seen these days, there is three times as much in circulation now as in 1914.

THE HOME GARDEN

What is Home without a Garden?

THE CARROT'S HIDDEN VIRTUES
Long, slow cooking, starting with the water lukewarm, is the secret of making the mature carrot a palatable and very attractive vegetable. Otherwise it is likely to be hard and woody, the slices or cubes having a hard and distinct individuality. Cooked properly, the carrot may be mashed. Young carrots will cook much more quickly. Dressed with melted butter when thoroughly cooked, the carrot is a revelation. Unfortunately it is too seldom thoroughly cooked. When the carrot is mature, a little sugar added to the water often improves the flavor.

Carrots are so cheap that a small gardener seldom wastes space in growing a crop to mature for winter storage, but a few rows are always needed for the delicious young carrots, either boiled with butter sauce, creamed or cooked in combination with green peas. They need a good soil and much the same treatment as radishes or other root crops.

While orthodox gardening directions invariably say that carrots should be planted thinly, or thinned to three inches apart, practical experience has shown gardeners that they will produce crops when allowed to grow more thickly than almost any other vegetable. As they are pulled, the thinning is done automatically. When allowed to grow fairly thick, some will make good roots and crowd out the others, giving an uneven growth. These, of course, will be first pulled and the others will then get a chance.

The carrot is the one vegetable where departing from the orthodox directions doesn't make a great deal of difference. If the carrot alone is not fancied as a vegetable, it is indispensable for stews and soups and is one of the standards of the garden. The early strains of Chanten-

When plants growing indoors turn yellow the first fault to look for is poor drainage. Water must run off readily to prevent trouble.

The Court of Last Appeal

YOU are the judge and the jury. Your verdict is final. There can be no appeal—for this is the High Court of Public Opinion.

The wares of the world must appear before you—the product of every factory—the merchandise of every store. Those things that fail to measure up to your requirements are quickly condemned to oblivion.

The manufacturer who advertises deliberately places his merchandise on trial. He openly courts your critical inspection. He invites comparison. He directs your attention to his goods and then forces those goods to stand on their own merits.

If he were not sure of his wares he would not dare to advertise. For advertising would put him to a test he could not meet, and thus hasten the end of his business career. It would be business suicide.

You can depend on the man who advertises. He knows his product is good.

That's one reason why it pays to read the advertisements you find in this paper. It is through advertising that you are able to keep in touch with the good things that progressive business men are spending their money to introduce and to keep before you.

Base Your Judgment On the Advertisements.
