

Tricky Blouses

—that's just what they are. For every blouse takes an unexpected turn that lands it in the realm of individuality. For wear now, there are blouses of printed silk in side-tie, Russian and jabot effects that are full of snap. Also many striking wash blouses and waists.

Society

An enjoyable time was experienced last night by a large crowd of dancers and card players at the Country club when the last of the first series of dances was held by club members. By 9 o'clock the floor was filled with merry-makers and the card tables were centers of interest. The program of fun and merriment lasted until midnight when refreshments were served. A general undemanding affair of refreshments among those present that all would attend the May Day dance at the new pavilion to be opened in Union on Tuesday night. When guests were leaving the general expression was, "We've adjourned until Tuesday night when we will meet at Union."

The Central Parent-Teachers association met Friday afternoon in the high school auditorium.

The meeting opened by prayer by Rev. R. Bogstad of the Lutheran church, and was followed by an interesting program consisting of: Two songs by the 7th and 8th grades; Cinderella play by pupils of Miss Russell's room; and two songs by the grade school's glee club.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. J. H. Traynor, president; Mrs. A. W. Nelson, vice president; Mrs. H. R. Hanna, secretary; Miss Effie Smiley, treasurer.

The retiring officers are Mrs. C. R. Eberhard, president; Mrs. Stella Ingie, vice president; Mrs. W. B. Sargent, secretary; Mrs. C. E. Short, treasurer.

Refreshments were served in the Domestic Science department of the high school following the meeting.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Buell, 2004 Second street, was the delightful setting of an informal evening of entertainment. Wednesday given in favor of the younger set, the foremost diversion being dancing which was unremittingly enjoyed by everyone present. The music was furnished for the occasion by the city's most excellent musicians and was of splendid character.

Those present were the Misses Ruth Smith, Inez Hughes, Etta Belle Kitchen, Dorothy Haines, Dorothy Campbell, Myrtle Hoyt, Myrtle George, Irma Lyman, Mildred Hoyt, Marion Howell, Myrtle Black, Fonda Hanks, Avis Maguire, Thelma Kitchen, Garnet Bowers, and the Messrs. Francis Dublin, Harold Murray, William Boyd, Willard Clark, Harold Lyman, Owen Pries, Clifford Blokland, Clark Price, Bernard Hummel, Francis Stodgrass, Lou Fuller, T. C. McDonald, Robert Sullivan and John Ivey.

Refreshments were served at a convenient hour through the charming assistance of Mrs. Ada Clark and Mrs. Eva Daggett.

The Boy Scout banquet which was held Thursday night at the Y. M. C. A. was a decided success, there being about forty-five present, including a goodly number of parents of the boys.

The dinner, which started about 6:30 o'clock, was presided by the boys themselves. During the evening C. E. Short, A. E. Pryke and Rev. W. C. Ross each gave a short talk to the boys.

The Scouts put on several demonstrations of Scout work for the benefit of those present, and then presented a short skit.

The special guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Pryke, who are leaving today for their home- stead in Montana across the border from Glacier National Park, where they will remain for about a month.

Mrs. Mary E. Reeves, who has been visiting in La Grande for the past week, left for her home in Ref- tel, Washington, this morning. She came to La Grande to attend the meeting of the past matrons and patrons of the Eastern Star which was held Wednesday evening.

At one time, Mr. and Mrs. Reeves made their home in La Grande, Mr. Reeves being mayor of the city and proprietor of the Blue Mountain House. Mrs. Reeves' many friends gave her a cordial welcome to her former home.

Mrs. F. S. Ivanhoe delightfully entertained at dinner last evening in honor of Mrs. Reeves. Other guests at dinner included Mrs. William Sargent and Mrs. Clara P. Lyle, who was formerly a resident of La Grande and who was organizer of a musical club in this city. Mrs. Lyle is now a resident of Okmulgee, Oklahoma, and came to La Grande to attend the Eastern Star meeting.

A particularly delightful evening was spent Wednesday evening, April 25th in Eagles' hall, when the Knights of Columbus and Catholic Girls Sodality gave a card party and social.

"608" was played during the evening. Mrs. E. C. Gullberg being high score winner among the ladies and Harry Lavey carrying off the gentlemen's honors. Rev. Father F. Leipsie, of Corvallis, gave an interesting talk, which was enjoyed by those present.

A musical program was rendered by students of Sacred Heart Academy consisting of: "Who's Afraid" (Mortimer Wilson) by Beaulash Stephens; violin solo, "Galoppe Militaire" by Donna Scott; "Arabesque" (Debussy), "Danza Tripolina" (Yon) by Mildred Lovett; "A Fragment" (W. Kramer), Benah Newlin. The second part of the musical consisted of: Violin solo, "Canto Filipino," (Santiago), Alice Ryan; piano solo "Etude" (Kelsa) by Eva Provost; "In the Garden of My Heart," violin solo by Clark Fitzgerald; violin trio, "Addio" (Tasty) Donna Scott; Alice Ryan and Edward Fitzgerald; piano trio, "Tancredi" (Cassidy) by Grace Chapman, Eva Provost and Isabel Beaker.

At a late hour refreshments were served.

Miss Eileen Bowling, a teacher in La Grande high school, left last evening for Pendleton, where she will visit during the week-end.

The Junior class is very busy getting ready for the Junior-Senior banquet which is to be held Saturday evening, May 5th. The committees are busy making arrangements, and everything is going fine. The class this year hopes to give the best banquet that ever has been given in La Grande.

Mr. and Mrs. George Norris entertained at dinner Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. Merion Kiddle and children and Mrs. Kiddle's mother, Mrs. Jensen.

Mrs. Emma Johnson, who has been visiting in La Grande for the past few days, returned to her home at Lakepine, Oregon, last evening.

Miss Nedra Hunt and Miss Katie Kime, both of Baker, arrived in La Grande last night to visit for a few days with friends.

Mrs. H. W. McCarry, of Pendleton, arrived in La Grande last evening for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Bussey will entertain the Eastern Star club next Tuesday at her home on Oak street.

Lester A. Huntley and Clara Bickford, both of La Grande, were married by Reverend A. R. Sitten, at the home of T. W. Morrisey, April 21st.

Fashion Notes

Ostrich Tips Replace Fur. Paris—Ostrich tips, very uncurled, today are more or less replacing monkey fur on both gowns and blouses. Some of the blouses have a fine straggling line of ostrich down one side of the front. The gowns usually have cocades of the feathers.

Colored Stone Earrings. Paris—The smartest earring at the moment is colored stones which make no pretense at being precious. Several colors are used in one earring, a very large stone at the lobe of the ear and a fringe of smaller stones hanging to a length of six inches.

Bright Red on Costumes. London—Little touches of bright red today are seen on many costumes; the smaller and brighter the touches, the more chic. This brightening takes the form sometimes of the merest bit of embroidery and again of a closely plaited georgette ruffle at the neck.

Nobility Falls for Tut. London—Lady Mountbatten is one of the young matrons who has succumbed to the lure of the Egyptian gown. She attended a recent dance at the Savoy wearing a beautiful creation copied almost exactly from one of those worn in Tut's time.

Brown Hat the Vogue. New York—The brown hat, especially the hat of reddish brown, is enjoying a decided vogue today. It is seen more often than even the hat of green, though the latter is very popular. Very frequently the brown hat has a trimming of yellow flowers.

Spring Styles Flourish. New York—The warm weather has brought out late spring styles in all their glory. One young woman attracted a good deal of attention today while strolling down the avenue by her harem sandals also of the desert brown and her stockings of beige with horizontal bands of Egyptian figures.

Scarab Garters. New York—Scarab garters are the latest idea today. The garters are merely pieces of ribbon pinned together with jeweled brooches in the form of scarabs. They are going to be much worn with bathing suits.

Little Canes for Hiking. New York—Swanky little canes which pretend to be necessary for countryside hiking or for strolls

Bobbed Hair Taboo in Follies

Flo Zienfeld, who has started another beauty discussion by declaring his Follies girls more beautiful than Venus, has ordered that none of the Follies girls shall cut their hair. Those who have bobbed it must let it grow. Miss Nellie Savage, above, has longest hair of any of them—26 3-4 inches.

along the boardwalk are to be had today in colors matching any costume. Some of them have really lovely carved amber heads. Others are finished in brilliant colors and occasionally jeweled.

HAN STUDENT BORROWING (By Associated Press) OAKLAND, Calif., April 28.—A rigid rule against borrowing by students has been put in effect by Principal Frank H. Boren of the University high school. He declared the borrowing habit has "almost become a disease and must be stopped." Principal Boren says "carelessness for the rights of others has been on the increase in schools throughout the country."

Robert Quillen says "home is getting to be little more than a point of departure. We imagined it had become pre-eminent as a place to be towed back to."
