Plans are progressing rapidly for the Junior-Senior banquet which is to be held in the banquet room of the Domestic Science department of the high school Saturday evening, May 5th, at 6:30 o'clock. About one hundred and seventy-five guests are expected to be served.

of the Misses Helen Mohr, Adelaide Clark and Marjorie Kirby, very charmingly served. Following the luncheon a program was given.

The Parkdale club will meet Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. L. Lathrop.

Miss Margaret Baugh arrived in La Grande this morning from Salt Lake City.

Miss Eileen Bowling returned from Pendleton last evening where she spent the week-end.

Miss Nedra Hunt, of Baker, returned to her home last evening after visiting over the week-end with friends.

Friday evening, April 27, about one hundred and fifty Odd Fellows, Rebekahs and friends met in the L. O. O. F. hall to celebrate the 104th anniversary of the Order in America.

The three divisions of the Ladies Aid of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Sherwood Williams, 701 Washington, Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Westminister Guild will not meet with Mrs. E. P. Mossman tonight as was formerly announced.

Mrs. Duffey will entertain the Eastern Star Social club at her home, 2065 Oak street, Tuesday afternoon.

A delightful luncheon was given Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. P. Mossman, when the members of the Westminister Circle entertained in honor of the new members.

The luncheon committee, composed of the Misses Helen Mohr, Adelaide Clark and Marjorie Kirby, very charmingly served.

Eighteen girls were present, and a most pleasant afternoon was spent by those present.

New York—Chambray, cotton crepe, striped batiste and English print are some of the materials from which the very young lady's romper frocks are made.

Paris—The new chignon mode of dressing the hair has the hair in place on the temples.

London—Tortoise shell lace is used more or less sparingly today on gowns of tortoise shell crepe.

New York—There is a distinct reversion to the bustle in the draping of wide ribbon with which one gown shown here today is decorated.

London—A remarkable hat of the moment is of apricot felt in a shape reminiscent of the sombrero.

New York—The costume blouse gets, as its name in Wonderland remarked, curiouser and curiouser.

from brilliant colors. No hint of faded, however, is seen in a new dance frock shown today of orange crepe roman, heavily beaded with jet, pearls and brilliants.

POWDER PLANS A RADIO PARTY

NORTH POWDER, April 29.—The North Powder high school will give a radio party and basket social at the high school building on the evening of April 30. The radio will be free to all.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hiele were business visitors in Union on Wednesday. Lucile Hudson has been very sick with a bad sore throat and mouth. She is reported to be better today.

Ed Lindley will move his sheep out to the pasture he has rented in the Riverside section. He reports very fine grass in his pasture.

Miss Sarah Goplinger and Miss Sadie Houston returned from their eastern trip on Wednesday. They have had a good time and saw lots of territory in their eastern trip but it is not quite as nice as here.

Mrs. Homer Bidwell was a business visitor in town on Thursday afternoon. She says the farmers are very busy out in their section with their crops. Owing to the scarcity of help the farmers are doing their own work as much as possible. Born, on April 24, to Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson, a son. Mr. Johnson has not yet decided just what to call the young man but is thinking seriously of "Warren."

Mrs. Wade came to Tuesday to spend several days with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ashby. She is visiting with all friends since she came to town.

Mrs. E. Edward Forsstrom entertained the ladies' card club at her home on April 25. Twenty-five were present and five tables for cards. After some time spent in playing "Go" the party adjourned for refreshments and the good eats were forthcoming in which everyone partook with good appetites.

The ladies' "500" club spent another pleasant afternoon for which this club is noted. Mr. and Mrs. House, of Tolocast, have purchased the Millerite restaurant from Mrs. Mary Christman and now have full charge.

When the citizens of Southern Europe wish to speak hard words to one another, they can just name their towns.

P. J. Powers Announces A Juvenile Ball At Rex Hall Friday Evening, May 4, at 8:00 o'clock

Only pupils of my dancing class are invited to participate in the ball as dancers, but the balcony is open to the general public and everyone is invited.

INDIANS BUY SEED

(By Associated Press) RONAN, Mont., Apr. 30.—Many of the Indians of the Flathead reservation who have just received their annual allotment of $35 each, a total of about $100,000, will spend their money this year for grain seed, according to Charles E. Cow, superintendent of the reservation.

A Farmer Cured of Rheumatism "A man living on a farm near here came in a short time ago completely doubled up with rheumatism. I handed him a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and told him to use it freely," says C. P. Rayder, Patten Mills, N. Y. "A few days later he walked into the store as straight as a string and handed me a dollar saying, give me another bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment; I want it in the house all the time for it cured me."—Adv.
