Palmer, 733 Adams avenue next Saturday. She will attend to forwarding them to the Portland hospital.

Was in La Grande—The Old Oregon Trail over the Blue Mountains is in good condition now with the exception of the unfinished stretch of six miles, according to E. M. Mayberry, who drove from La Grande this morning after spending the weekend at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hayes. "It took me three-quarters of an hour to make that six miles. It's rough, but the mud is about all gone, and remaining in three or four places."—Pendleton Oregonian.

Judge Davis in City—Judge George R. Davis spent last night at the Foley while on his way home from the supreme court session at Portland. Judge Davis lives in Vale and is one of the distinguished characters of the inland country. He formerly lived in Grant county and for years dispensed justice in his judicial district. While he is growing somewhat gray he is a young man in spirit and action. Not long ago a bank failed in Vale and the judge was stockholder and director. According to the government laws a stockholder is liable for double the amount of his stock and they cracked the judge for five thousand someones. "It's the way of life," remarked the wise old attorney. "no one goes through life without their ups and downs; this is one of the downs, so why worry about it."

I. B. Bowen, Jr., Here—I. B. Bowen, Jr., editor of the Baker Democrat, is spending the day in La Grande on business. He was present today at the meeting of the Union County Chamber of Commerce.

Senior Picnic Success—Nine cars, filled with members of the L. H. S. Senior class, left La Grande bright and early yesterday morning. The "toured" to a point several miles above Union, on the banks of Catherine creek, and there spent the day in their annual picnic. Miss Rohrer and Miss Nash accompanied the students. The time, according to some who went, was very delightfully spent in "ducking" the girls—and teachers. Visiting ice caves, rumping through the woods, and roasting squirrels, were a few of the sidelights. The ants, which were plentiful (trust the Seniors to guard away starvation), were the main issue. The only thing they brought back was a bunch of "ticks."

Hot Lake Arrivals—The following are recent arrivals at the Hot Lake sanatorium: Mrs. E. W. Spencer, Hesperia, Ore.; J. E. Stearnson and wife, Huntington, Ore.; W. E. And remember, your recipe or suggestion for new use of Grape-Nuts may also merit one of the large awards.

Grape-Nuts Ice Cream
Prepare plain flavored ice cream in the usual way. Just before the cream hardens in freezing, add Grape-Nuts as it comes from the package, in the proportion of one-half cup of Grape-Nuts to one quart of ice cream. If you buy ice cream ready made, add Grape-Nuts in place of nut-meats. You'll find the resulting flavor unique.

Grape-Nuts Salad

1 sliced orange
1/2 cup cut-up pineapple
1/2 cup cut-up banana
2 tablespoons lemon-juice
Cut up the fruit and lemon-juice, mix with Grape-Nuts, and serve on bed of lettuce with cream salad dressing. Makes four to six portions.

Grape-Nuts Six-Minute Pudding
1/2 cup Grape-Nuts
1/2 cups scalded milk
1 tablespoon sugar

2 well-beaten eggs
2/3 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
1/2 teaspoon cloves
1/2 teaspoon salt
Cream shortening and sugar. Add milk and well-beaten eggs. Add well-sifted dry ingredients, and raisins that have been dusted with part of the flour, and then the Grape-Nuts. Beat thoroughly and drop from a spoon on baking sheet one and one-half inches apart. Bake in a moderate oven for fifteen minutes.

Grape-Nuts Cheese Casserole

SHORT AND SNAPPY
What's become of the youngbloods who reeled along the street arm in arm singing: "It's Always Fair Weather When, etc.?"

Tillie, the Typist, slipped last night and skinned her knee. "I was glad I fell where I did as I'd hate to spoil the well silk stockings I was wearing," Tillie remarked.

Average motorist hates to put on his side curtains. He waits until it starts sprinkling, then rushes around frantically, gets them on in a down-pour of rain and, all wet, crawls back into his machine just as the rain stops. Words fail him.

Help Kidneys By Drinking More Water
Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Help Neutralize Irritating Acids

Kidney and bladder irritations often result from acidity, says a noted authority. The kidneys help filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it may remain to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread; the water passed sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in voiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is often one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Begin drinking lots of soft water, also get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast. Continue this for two or three days. This will help neutralize the acids in the system so they no longer act as a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs, which then act normal again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by acid irritation. Jad Salts causes no bad effects whatever.

Here's one more pleasant, effective, lithia-water drink which may quickly relieve your bladder irritation. By all means have your physician examine your kidneys at least twice a year.
