THEATRES

NEW HUGHES FILM TO BE SHOWN AT SHERRY'S TODAY AND TOMORROW

"Look Your Best" Tells a Human Interest Story of an Italian-American Dancer

Rupert Hughes, Goldwyn author-director, in his new photoplay, "Look Your Best," which comes to the Sherry theater today, has reverted from middle western town to New York City, mainly, for the locale of his new picture. It is not a story of the Irish either as was his "Hold Your Horses," "From the Ground Up," and "Come on Over." The principal characters are all Italian-Americans. The story is a comedy-drama of small time vaudeville life. It begins in New York, shifts to the small towns covered by the vaudeville tour and comes back to the Metropolitan Opera house in New York.

Mr. Hughes has blended much comedy in the story of pretty Perla Quaranta, daughter of an Italian organ grinder, who is given a vaudeville engagement with Carlo Bruni's "butterfly dance act" when one of the girls becomes so fat that the wire which supports her in the air is likely to break. John Krug, Bruni's stage mechanic and wireman, discovered Perla and took a proprietary interest in her, expecting an amorous reward. But Perla did not welcome his advances and Krug plotted against her—he plotted to get her put on more avoirdupois than a butterfly girl should have—Perla simply was devoted to food—and then have a supporting wire break. But Bruni, himself in love with Perla, discovered Krug's treachery and the fight which ensued landed both in jail. But upon Bruni's release, Perla married him and their career lead them to the Metropolitan Opera house, but always they had to eschew food and the sweets they loved for the sake of their art.

Goldwyn gave the director an excellent cast with Colleen Moore and Antonio Moreno in the leading roles of Perla and Bruni. Earl Metcalfe was especially engaged for the part of Krug. Other players are William Orlamond, Orpha Alba, Martha Mattox and Francis McDonald. Norbert Brodin was the cameraman and Cedric Gibbons the art director. The picture holds a universal appeal—an appeal to which women especially will respond.

Also showing another of the great "Fighting Blood" stories.

THREE NOTED PLAYERS IN "BROAD DAYLIGHT"

A story of the underworld written by newspapermen who studied the underworld for years before they thought of writing, directed by a man graduated from the ranks of famous actors and enacted by players of wide popularity comes to the Arcade theatre Wednesday only.

Universal offers "Broad Daylight" as a special feature of the underworld.

Harvey Gates and George W. Pyper, newspapermen and crime investigators long before they were film writers, wrote the story.

Irving Cummings, who played with such famous artists on the stage as Lillian Russell and Henry Miller, and later became one of the screen's idols, renounced his standing as an actor some time ago and has been directing for over a year. "Broad Daylight" is his latest product.

Lois Wilson of DeMille fame, Jack Mulhall, whose popularity dates back several years before such of his recent successes as "Molly-O," and Ralph Lewis, in the front ranks of character men since "The Conquering Power," have the leading roles. Others are Ben Hewlett, Kenneth Gibson, Robert M. Walker and Wilton Taylor.

"Broad Daylight" pictures the two ends to a crook's career, the grey dawn of death and the "broad daylight" of reason. The latter end comes to but a few, and it is of both kinds that "Broad Daylight" tells.

Besides this feature, another installment of "The Oregon Trail" will also be shown.

POOR OLD ADAM'S RIB

Has Caused Trouble in All Ages As Shown in "Adam's Rib."

It is said that the original "Adam's Rib" caused a lot of trouble in the "Garden of Eden." Well, whatever trouble Eve may have caused is more than atoned for by Mathilda Ramsay, another product of "Adam's Rib," in a new Cecil B. De Mille production by that name, which will open at the Arcade Theatre Thursday, and which features Milton Sills, Elliott Dexter, Theodore Kosloff, Anna Q. Nilsson, Pauline Garon and Julia Faye.

The story deals with the domestic troubles of Michael Ramsay, a wealthy Chicago broker (Milton Sills) and his spouse (Anna Q. Nilsson). Theodore Kosloff as M. Jaromir, exiled king of Morania, a small European state, plas the part of the designing suitor for the hand of Mrs. Ramsay. Her husband is aware of his intentions and disposes of him by having his country recall him to the throne. This is not accomplished, however, without first reimbursing financially this little kingdom which, in that respect, was in dire straits. "Adam's Rib" is not a story of the Garden of Eden, although Mr. De Mille does include a few cave man scenes as a "vision," but one of everyday life and a humorous one at that. The production is massive and the supporting cast is of the highest De Mille standard.

RENO, Nev., May 8.—Refrigerator cars destined for California points, to handle the cantaloupe crop, as well as asparagus and other fruits and vegetables from the Imperial velley, California, are passing through here. It is stated that several thousand refrigerator cars will reach their destination in time for the crop movement.

ONE ROD LIMIT

BOISE, Ida., May 8.—One fishing rod is all that one fisherman may legally use when fishing in Idaho, according to the construction placed on the Idaho law by R. E. Thomas, state game and fish warden. The warden also ruled that, according to the law, one line is all that may be attached to one pole. Any other means of taking fish from waters of the state, except by special permit, is a violation of the law, he said.
