The last program of the year brought out a large audience of Neighborhood club members. The fine work of the year under the leadership of Mrs. A. L. Richardson has manifestly taken this splendid civic organization forward as an influence in the community.

During the business meeting plans for the club breakfast to be held at the Country club next Tuesday were perfected. Everyone is requested to telephone reservations as early as possible. The breakfast hour will be eleven thirty, and the price $1.00 a plate.

The department supervisors for the next year were appointed: General chairman, Mrs. George Cochran; Art, Mrs. Turner Oliver; Music, Mrs. Harry Zurbrick; Literature, Mrs. J. K. Wright.

Slater, Mrs. John Theison, Mrs. Colon Eberhard, Mrs. C. H. Bidwell.

Mrs. Richard P. Landis had charge of the program for the day, dealing with the life and work of Longfellow, and covered with a most extraordinary facility the high lights of his poetry.

The stimulus given to the imagination by the gorgeous bower of spring blossoms transferred the audience into a fairyland when the much loved characters of Longfellow walked forth alive before our very eyes. Artistic honesty and interpretive force marked the performance of every one who assisted in making this a symphony of the beautiful in music and poetry.

Def't Touches that make the house a home

It may be only a chair, rescued from long oblivion in the attic, that lends a bright spot to an otherwise colorless room; or brilliant basket holding a bowl of flowers. But surely it is the little touches—the feminine touches—that make the house a home!

Women who are anxious to beautify the interior of their homes are devoted to such Fuller products as Silestone Enamel, Decorat and Fuller-varnish. Decorat, a varnish and stain in one, imitates various natural woods—oak, mahogany, walnut, etc.

Whatever your painting need, W. P. Fuller & Co. makes a paint for the purpose. There is a local Fuller agent or dealer who carries Fuller Products. Why not see him today. Write, too, for our "Home Service" booklet.
