Rumor Unfounded

A rumor, which has been current for the past few days, is to the effect that James and Habone, ladies' ready-to-wear, is contemplating disposing of their establishment. The proprietors of the concern state that there is absolutely no foundation to the report.

Partnership Dissolved

S. C. Kinsley and C. Baccini have dissolved their partnership and Mr. Kinsley has purchased the latter's share in their shoe repairing business on Adams avenue, and will continue to conduct the business in the same satisfactory way as formerly. Mr. Baccini has accepted a position in the Union Box factory.

Arrested for Drunkenness

Gas Hagland and Martin Kron were arrested last evening by the city police on the charge of drunkenness. Upon placing $15 bail each with the authorities, trial was set for this morning at 10 o'clock and the men were permitted to go free. They failed to arrive for trial, forfeited their bail, and apparently "skipped" town, as the police have been unable to locate them.

An Interesting Picture

"Souls for Sale," now running at Sherry's theater, is a production of universal interest. La Grande people who witnessed the first showing last evening were more than delighted with the picture and were told in their praise of the film, "Souls for Sale," described in a vivid manner, life in Hollywood and other moving picture centers and an interesting plot, intermingled throughout, gives the picture added prestige.

Dead in Spokane

Mrs. J. A. Bollen received the sad news last evening that Mrs. Mollie Minnie of Spokane, Wash., passed on at that city at 8 o'clock. Mrs. Minnie was well known in La Grande, where she spent her early life. Her more marriage she was known as Miss Mollie Hamman. Mrs. Bollen leaves this evening for Spokane to attend the funeral services which are yet unannounced.

Returns From Pendleton

George Cochran, La Grande attorney, returned to his home Wednesday evening at the close of several days spent in Pendleton attending the state supreme court session.

Unusual Initiation

Voltire Lodge No. 517 last evening held the attention of a large crowd of people on Main street, the occasion being the initiation of a class of "roofs" into the order that has been termed the "play grounds" of the American Legion. The big heavy curtain, which was drawn through the streets by Frank Rogers and P. H. Gray, lead horses, Frank McCutchen and Oscar Fredericks next and Sanford Adler and George Jett, wheelers. The public initiation was more or less a pleasure, but very little is said about what transpired after the efficient La Grande delegation took charge of the ceremonies at the R. P. hall unless mention is made of the splendid banquet that was served at the Geiser Grand which brought forth many oratorical efforts and made the bewildered "roofs" think they had at last found a friendly port in a stormy night.

Rumor has it that a prominent young candidate was kidnapped and taken to La Grande where he was left high and dry and forced to take the trail back to Baker. It is understood that a passing car assisted the young man to his home and family. —Baker Herald.

WILL FEATURE A SUMMER COLONY

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock the sale of camping sites at the Country Club will be started. The sale of these lots is in charge of G. L. Larson and reservation may be made of him by any of the members of the club.

Owing to high water in the river surveying of grounds has been held up, but last Sunday a crew as on the grounds and the survey completed. All of the members who have been on the grounds are most enthusiastic over the opportunities that are offered.

The camping grounds are located just across the river from the club house. They start at a point directly opposite the picnic grounds and extend up the river for approximately a quarter of a mile. Some years ago the county road crossed the river just opposite the club house and ran through the trees on the far side of the river. The greater portion of the camp sites are located along this road and nice ones would be hard to find anywhere. A temporary bridge will be put in for cars to cross on in the summer time, and campers will be able to drive to their tents or cottages.

It is also planned to pipe water to the lake and many other conveniences will be provided. The money that is realized from the sale of this land will be used to pay off the indebtedness which is still against the land purchased by the club.
