SHERRY'S TO-DAY AND TO-MORROW "DARK SECRETS" LURING

That "Dark Secrets" always arouse popular interest, The Paramount production of the same title, starring Dorothy Dalton, presented at the Sherry Theatre last evening amply indicates. In this picture, by far one of the best seen here in many months, Dorothy Dalton in the role of Ruth Rutherford, is presented with two magnificent Bedouin horses by her fiancée, Lord Wallington. At a fashionable horse show Ruth rides one of the steeds in a hurdle race and is thrown, suffering spinal injuries and partial paralysis. An Egyptian doctor, Mohammed Ali, gifted with miraculous curing powers, undertakes the seemingly hopeless task of the girl's cure. He is successful and exacts as his payment the hand of the beautiful white girl. From this point on, the action is speedy and dramatic. The picture ends with the reunion of the sweethearts.

"Dark Secrets" directed by Victor Fleming, is an excellent screen version. Miss Dalton's acting is superb and Jose Ruben, as the sinister Egyptian doctor, is excellent. Robert Ellis plays the main lead of Lord Wallington, and the parts of Ruth's girl friend, Dr. Case and Baskara are played respectively by Ellen Cassidy, Warren Cook and Pat Hartigan. The direction and photography of the production is faultless. The Egyptian settings are unusually beautiful as are those of the elegant home of the rich on Long Island. The story holds one's attention from start to finish. Comedy, "The Egg" also shown.

At four o'clock he saves the "only girl" and her million.
All in the space of twelve hours in "One Wonderful Night."
Herbert Rawlinson does it in this newest Universal production which is the attraction at the Arcade Theatre Wednesday only.
Louis Tracy, famous novelist, wrote the play from which the picture was adapted. Stuart Paton directed.
Lillian Rich, Dale Fuller, Sidney Bracy, Robert Thurston and Spottiswoode Aitken are in the supporting cast.
In addition to this feature picture there will also be shown another chapter of the historical chapter play "The Old Oregon Trail."

THE DIFFERENCE IN A PINT OF MILK AND A PINT OF CREAM

It's true they both look alike in the bottle from the outside. They both weigh alike—and are both pints. BUT—There's a difference in the milk and cream. AND—There's a difference in the price. So it is with SUPERFINE Bread. Most bread looks alike in the wrapper. Most bread weighs about the same. Yet SUPERFINE Bread is like the cream—it costs more but it's worth more. Milk won't satisfy you when you want cream. Ordinary bread won't satisfy you—you want MACPHERSON'S SUPERFINE BREAD. Always Clean Always Pure At Your Grocer's Ask the Folks Who Eat It
