HILLS DEPT STORE

A Good Place to Trade

of a beautiful gift from the organization.

Refreshments were served, and a pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. A series of quotations and toasts were given which created much merriment.

The guests departed with many good wishes to the happy couple. Mrs. Bowser was formerly Miss Edith Pickett, who is city librarian.

At a morning wedding at St. Mary's Catholic church yesterday, Miss Lavina Weigamood, daughter of the late P. F. Weigamood and of Mrs. Weigamood, of Pendleton, became the bride of Ezra Hazen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hazen, St. of Standfield.

The bride was a lovely picture in a charming wedding gown of white beaded tulle with long sleeves, worn with full length veil of white tulle, caught with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of Opbellia roses and lilies of the valley.

Miss Lucille Weigamood, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a dainty gown of French blue crepe, with flower-tipped lace-trimmed hat, and carried delicate pink sweet peas. Rev. Father Van Hoomen officiated, using the ring ceremony. Charles A. Hazen, Jr., of Pendleton, brother of the groom, was best man.

Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the Weigamood home, 812 Mill street. White carnations, narcissus and snap dragons were used in decorating. Miss Ruth Proebdel, of Weston, assisted in serving. She wore a pretty frock of pink and white organdy.

Guests for the breakfast, besides the bride and groom, were Mr. and Mrs. Hazen, Sr., of Standfield, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen, Jr., of Pendleton, Father Van Hoomen, Mrs. Chester Dupuis, sister of the groom, and Mr. Dupuis, of Standfield, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Lynch and son of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Becker and sons of Cove, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Crawford and Cyril Proebdel of Pendleton.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Hazen left for a wedding trip to Portland, Seattle and San Diego. For her traveling attire the bride chose a three piece tailored suit of navy blue, worn with harmonizing hat.

The bride, who is a girl of much charm, was graduated from Sacred Heart Academy in La Grande. Later she completed nurses' training course at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Baker. Mr. Hazen is an ex-service man, having served in France in the army.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazen will make their home near Baker—Pendleton, East Oregonian.

Harry C. Hearing, of Wallowa, and Miss Victoria Callahan of Union, were united in marriage yesterday at the Methodist parsonage by the Rev. G. I. Quagley.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet this evening at the home of Mrs. Fred Kiddle of Island City.

The Ladies Aid of the Zion Lutheran church will be entertained at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. G. Gardner at her home on East avenue. A full attendance is desired.

Women of Mooseheart Legion will meet Thursday afternoon, at two o'clock at the home of Mrs. Roy Smith, 2111 Cedar street, for the social afternoon meeting. Mrs. Frank Reynolds and Mrs. Chas. Stunyan will assist Mrs. Smith as hostesses. The time will be spent at needlework and all members are urged to attend as there will be a business meeting of importance.

PROHIBITION
FINES GROWING
(By Associated Press)
OAKLAND, Calif., May 16.—Arrests and fines are growing since the Wretch act placed prohibition enforcement in the hands of the local police, according to Chief of Police James T. Drew. He says the police have made 1,629 arrests for liquor violations between July 1, 1921, and December 21, 1922.

Between December 27, 1922, when the Wretch act became effective, and April 25, 1923, there were 262 arrests, 151 soft drink licenses revoked, and $14,266 collected in fines.

SCIENCE HEAD CHOSEN.
(By Associated Press).
STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Calif., May 16.—Major William L. Gary, field artillery, will succeed Major LeRoy K. Collins as head of the department of military training and professor of military science and tactics at Stanford next year, according to a report from the office of the president. Major Collins has been detached from duty at Stanford to attend the General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. His attendance at the staff college has already been delayed several times as the result of the university's desire to keep him here as instructor.

It must be confessed, however, that few statues are erected to men who attend to their own business.

Neighborhood Club May Day Breakfast Is Supreme Success

Beauty in all its appointments, sanitation in all its addresses, melody in all its musical selections, marked the May Day Breakfast of the Neighborhood club a supreme success.

The beauty of the tables, and the gorgeous display of spring flowers formed an unusually striking background for the well-gowned assemblage of two hundred and fifty club members and their guests.

The menu, which carried out the club color scheme of yellow and white was delicious. To Mrs. C. H. Bidwell and her committee, much credit and praise is due. The girls from the domestic science class of the La Grande high school were a charming addition, and showed their splendid training in the ease and quietness with which they served.

Mrs. Fred Schulte was the able toastmistress and with delightful humor carried her audience with Alice through Wonderland. She pictured Alice as the Club Woman, the cat as the Home and the White Rabbit the lure to activities outside of the family circle. The different phases of Club life as experienced by Alice were amusingly and cleverly portrayed by the toasts.

The ladies responding were: Growth, Mrs. Turner Oliver; "Curse and curser" cried Alice, "now I'm opening out like the largest telescope that ever was. Good bye feet (for when she looked down at her feet they seemed to be almost out of sight, they were getting so far off); Stagnant moments, Mrs. Norman Frost; "I only took a regular course," said the Mock Turtle; "What was that?" inquired Alice; "Reading and writing, to begin with," the Mock Turtle replied, "and then the different branches of Arithmetic: Ambition, Distraction, Uglification and Derision"; Friendship, Mrs. A. R. Hunter; "The game's going on rather better now," Alice said, by way of keeping up the conversation a little; "Tis so," said the Dutchess, and the moral of that is, "Oh, tis love, tis love, that makes the world go round"; Fun and frolic, Mrs. Sherwood Williams; "Will you walk a little faster," said a whiting to a snail; "There's a porpoise close behind us, and he's treading on my tail"; During this toast Miss Beulah Newlin appeared as the clown from Alice in Wonderland, and danced between the tables while a chorus sang "The Way of the World"; Opportunity for Service, Mrs. A. L. Richardson; "Can you row?" the sheep asked, handing Alice a pair of knitting needles as she spoke; "Yes, a little, but not on land—and not with needles," Alice was beginning to say, when suddenly the needles turned into oars in her hands, and she found they were in a little boat, gliding along between banks; so there was nothing for it but to do her best; After the toasts the following musical program was given: a. "Bridal Chorus" from Rose Maiden, Coven; b. "Where My Caravan Has Rested", Lehr; Neighborhood Club Quintette; Mrs. Guy Fuller Miss Flavia Jitter
