BE PRETTY! TURN GRAY HAIR DARK
 Try Grandmother's Old Favorite Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Almost everyone knows that Sage Tea and Sulphur, properly compounded, brings back the natural color and lustre to the hair when faded, streaked or gray. Years ago the only way to get this mixture was to make it at home, which is messy and troublesome. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this famous old recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, at a small cost.
 Don't stay gray! Try it! No one can possibly tell that you darkened your hair, as it does it so naturally and evenly. You dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy and attractive.

SHIRAZ—LAST DAY
 High Scenes Abound in Dorothy Dalton's "Dark Secrets."

A most cosmopolitan assemblage is seen in Dorothy Dalton's new Paramount production, "Dark Secrets." The scene is a gorgeous hotel in Cairo, Egypt, with its picturesque courtyard and terraces, its lily-pond and stately, romantic looking balconies and distant palm trees. This exotic atmosphere is enhanced by the presence of birds of gorgeous plumage and tropical plants and flowers. The scene is rich with the color of interesting costumes and unusual uniforms as contrasted with the conventional garments of the Americans. In addition to Miss Dalton's party of American tourists are seen English army officers, one of whom, Lord Wellington, is her sweetheart; then there are Arabs in full desert regalia, gay ladies from Spain, Hindus, Egyptians, Mussulmans, Orientals and attaches of various legations. Small page boys and waiters, barefoot and swarthy of skin, their heads swathed in turbans, dart in and out among the pleasure-seeking throngs of tourists. Here, too, the sinister Dr. All, an Egyptian physician, uses his poisonous influence to gain the confidence of Ruth Rutherford, played by Miss Dalton.
 Comedy showing "The Egg."
 "JAVA HEAD"

New George Melford Production Soon To Be Seen Here.

Dramatic, impressive and thrilling, George Melford's latest Paramount picture, "Java Head," will be the attraction at the Arcade Theater Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Salem, Mass., is the locale of the story, although several of the scenes are laid in China. The story, in brief, tells of the love of a young sea captain, Gerrit Amundson (Albert Roscoe), for a young Chinese maiden, Tsao Yuen, played by Lantree Joy. Gerrit returns from Shanghai with his Chinese wife to find Nettie Voljar (Jaquette Logan) ready to marry him; Nettie suffers an injury, and Gerrit leaves Tsao to go to her. Edward Dunsack (Raymond Hatton), a rival of Gerrit's and an opium smoker, tells Tsao Yuen that her husband and Nettie Voljar are in love. The young wife orders him from the house and goes to Nettie's home herself. She arrives just after her husband has left and goes to the sick room. Edward, now a raving maniac, follows her and a dramatic finale, filled with thrills, is reached.

USE SULPHUR TO HEAL YOUR SKIN
 Broken Out Skin and Itching Eczema Helped Over Night

For unsightly skin eruptions, rash or blotches on face, neck, arms or body, you do not have to wait for relief from torture or embarrassment, declares a noted skin specialist. Apply a little Mentho-Sulphur and improvement shows next day.
 Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation. The moment you apply it healing begins. Only those who have had unsightly skin troubles can know the delight this Mentho-Sulphur brings. Even fiery, itching eczema is dried right up.
 Get a small jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like cold cream.

Lumbago
 This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches.—Adv.
 "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."—Adv.

THE DIFFERENCE IN A PINT OF MILK AND A PINT OF CREAM
 It's true they both look alike in the bottle from the outside. They both weigh alike—and are both pinks. BUT—There's a difference in the milk and cream. AND—There's a difference in the price. So it is with SUPERFINE Bread. Most bread looks alike in the wrapper. Most bread weighs about the same. Yet SUPERFINE Bread is like the cream—it costs more but it's worth more. Milk won't satisfy you when you want cream. Ordinary bread won't satisfy you—you want MACPHERSON'S SUPERFINE BREAD Always Clean Always Pure At Your Grocer's Ask the Folks Who Eat It
