ARTISTIC STELLAR CAST IS ASSEMBLED FOR 'JAVA HEAD'

Leading Roles Played by Leatrice Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Raymond Hatton, Albert Roscoe and George Fawcett.

With a stellar cast seldom seen in a motion picture, George Melford's latest Paramount production, "Java Head," a dramatization of Joseph Hergesheimer's celebrated novel, will be given an unusually fine presentation at the Arcade theater tonight, Friday and Saturday.

"Java Head" is a photoplay of exceptional heart interest and appeal. The scenes are laid in China and in old Salem town in the late forties, and the story deals with the trials and fortunes of a young sea captain and a Chinese girl of high station, whom he marries in order to save her life at the hands of assassins. He brings his bride to his home town, where his old sweetheart is awaiting him. His interest in his Chinese wife lapses, and when the latter awakens love in the heart of an opium smoker, dramatic developments ensue. The finale of the story, dramatic and tense, makes "Java Head" one of the strongest screen attractions produced in many a day.

Leatrice Joy, whose work in "Man-slayer" won her much praise, plays the colorful role of "Tou Yen," the Chinese wife. Jacqueline Logan is seen as Nettie Vohan and Albert Roscoe plays Gerrit Amundson, the leading male role. Raymond Hatton has the chief character role, that of an opium smoker, and George Fawcett has the part of Barzil Dunsack, an old sea captain.

Arthur Stuart Hull, who played the heavy in "The Great Moment" with Gloria Swanson, is cast in the role of William Amundson. George Fawcett, Jose Tapley, Helen Lindreth, Dan Pernel, Frederick Strong, Marie Axwell, Betty Bronson, Audrey Berry and Polly Archer have important parts in the picture.

The story by Joseph Hergesheimer has been given an authentic and elaborate background. The first scenes were taken in Salem, Mass., where the story was laid and all the sites spoken of in the novel were transformed into their 1850 style by Rudolph Byleck and his technical staff. After finishing work in Salem the company returned to the Paramount-Louis Island studio, where the colorful Chinese scenes were filmed.
