A Good Place to Trade

Society

One of the most delightful social events of the week occurred at the Country club last evening when Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Ingle and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Bohlenkamp entertained at a dinner party.

Ten tables were seated at bridges in the rooms, which were effectively decorated with white lilacs and pink carnations. High honors went to Mrs. Charles Reynolds and Ernest Watkins and second prize went to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Stoddard.

Members of the Pinochle club and their friends will gather at the home of B. M. Darland at the foot of Mt. Emily Sunday morning at ten o'clock for a picnic dinner, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson and family, who will leave for the coast where they will make their future home.

All friends of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson are urged to be present at this picnic.

Mrs. T. B. Johnson entertained the Loyal Sisters of the Christian church at her home at 1708 First street Wednesday. Thirty-one members were present and all reported a very enjoyable afternoon.

The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers, featuring tulips and lilacs. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Aarck Conley, Miss Florence Nelson and Mrs. T. B. Johnson.

The officers of the La Grande High school Associated Girls Students held their annual banquet at the Foley grill Wednesday evening. The banquet was given by the retiring officers for the incoming officers, recently elected.

Tables were set with dainty place cards and were decorated with sweet pea centerpieces.

A four course dinner was served to 12 girls.

The Eastern Star Social club was delightfully entertained Wednesday afternoon by Mrs. Charles Bagnier. Three tables were in action, high honors going to Mrs. W. H. Safford. Refreshments were served at the close of the afternoon.

The Mission Band of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. F. Hoaty, 1705 Second, tomorrow afternoon at 2:30. All members and friends are urged to be present.

La Grande music lovers are anticipating a treat this evening when the pupils of Mrs. R. J. Green will give a recital in the auditorium of the library at 8:15 o'clock.

Lanier Pearson, of La Grande, left for Eugene last evening where he will attend the University of Oregon Junior Week-end.

Mrs. J. J. Pearson, of this city, returned to her home last evening from Eugene, where she attended mothers week at the University of Oregon. Her daughter, Miss Dolores Pearson, is a student in the state university.

Miss Gertrude Kline, of Baker, returned to her home last evening at the close of a short visit with friends in this city.

Fashion Notes

Trimming on Right Side Only.
Paris.—Trimming today is frequently posed on the right side of the hat. Sometimes it is an airy pomponna huge cord thrusting high above the crown. Sometimes it is long, incurled feather falling down over the shoulder.

Soft Kid on Frocks.
Paris.—Very soft kid is being used today as a trimming on frocks of crepe de chine. The kid comes in delightfully striking shades. One black crepe de chine had collar and pockets of gold kid. The leather is usually stamped with an intricate design.

Series of Aprons as Drapes.
London.—A series of little aprons in organdie is a favorite bit of drapery today for afternoon frocks of crepe or printed silk. There may be as many as three aprons in organdie of white or a contrasting shade, all the aprons tying behind with ribbons.

Still More Bandanna.
New York.—A clever thought in sports clothes today makes an even more than ever extended use of the bandanna. Not only is there a bandanna around the shoulders but also one hanging in long ends about the waist. Moreover, the closely fitting little sports hat is covered with a bandanna, all three handkerchiefs matching.

Short, Stubby Parasols.
London.—Parasols today are exceedingly short and stubby, just escaping ugliness because the squat ferules and handles are so prettily decorated. Egyptian and Oriental designs in colors are painted or enameled on both handle and ferule and the silk is resplendent with Luxor figures.

Effective Interpretation.
New York.—The tendency to have the evening cloak match the gown was effectively interpreted in a costume shown here today in gold and black. The evening gown was of gold and black brocade, the background being black. The cloak, on the other hand, was in gold and black with the background in gold.

It is well to remember that every sound belief the race now has was at one time called heresy.

Dream Come True

Miss Nanette Guilford has dreamed of being an opera singer ever since she was a little girl. In 1921 she sang in a Broadway show. She was 18 then. Now she has joined the Metropolitan Opera, being the youngest soprano in the company.

JAILS FOR TAXPAYERS

LONDON, May 18.—What happens to the people in England who do not pay their income tax, has been told by an official of the Inland Revenue, who declares there are about 1,000 such delinquents now in jail, compared with 1,162 two years ago.

Plenty of time is given by the authorities for payment, said this official, and in cases where it can be shown that funds are not available, any methods are devised. In other cases, after a certain interval, a notice is sent to the defaulter that the tax must be remitted by a certain date—usually ten days time. If that is disregarded a more urgent notice is sent, and three days grace given. After that a distress warrant against the defaulter's goods is obtained. Those who are imprisoned for default are generally single, or have no seizable property of their own.

JOCKEYS PAID LESS

BERLIN, May 18.—Jockeys in Germany got about forty to fifty cents a race, with a small percentage added for riding a winning mount, under the terms of a new tariff. The schedule prescribes 10,000 marks for every flat-race ridden, and 12,000 for each steeple-chase. If he wins, the jockey gets two per cent of the purse. Apprentice jockeys are paid half the rate of the "regulars" and their share in any first purse won is one-fourth of one percent.

ASKS PERMISSION TO STAY IN JAIL

BOISE, Ida., May 18.—Tied to bands whirled during his three months incarceration in the Ada county jail here, Joseph Hamon, who served his term for issuing worthless checks, was loath to depart when his sentence expired the other day. Touched by his appeal the jail warden permitted Hamon to remain in his cell, a voluntary tenant.

A second attempt to free the man met with a repulsion of the request to be permitted to stay. His wish seems was granted and the jailer, sympathetic and interested in the case, asked Hamon to tell his story. The prisoner asserted that he had communicated with the mayor of Chicago by wireless and had been told that $1,000 had been deposited in a Boise bank to Hamon's name. Knowing well, however, that there is no wireless in the county jail, the jailer asked him to continue.

"Why, I've got $7,000,000 in the banks and they won't let me draw a cent of it—they won't even give me a check book."

The next morning Hamon was committed to the state insane asy-

Reformers are useful, but as a means of promoting virtue they are not as efficient as old age.

Lots of people, apparently, attend automobile shows in order to select a model to steal on the street.
