REAL THRILLER BOOKED FOR STAR THEATRE

"The most amazing piece of photography ever made" was the way one New York critic prefaced his review of the Universal-Special production, "Hunting Big Game in Africa," which comes to the Star Theatre on Tuesday for an engagement of three days. All who have seen the production made by the H. A. Snow expedition agree with the statement. It would be impossible to stage the thrills in the most sensational moving picture story that were enacted here in real life in the heart of darkest Africa.

"JAVA HEAD" BIG HIT
 New Paramount-Melford Production Is Heartily Received.

Received with intense satisfaction by a large audience, "Java Head," a new George Melford production for Paramount, made a big hit at the Arcade Theatre last night. The story by Joseph Hergeshelmer, pictured by Mr. Melford and the leading characters portrayed by featured players of prominence including Leatrice Joy, Jacqueline Logan, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett and Albert Roscoe, constitutes entertainment of the finest quality.

Those who have read the novel which deals with the fortunes of a skipper of the old clipper days of the late forties, and a Chinese maiden of high degree, will be charmed with the picture. The story is one of intense drama and appeal.

The artistry of the featured players was manifested in every scene. Leatrice Joy was excellent as the beautiful Manchu maiden, while Jacqueline Logan gave a sympathetic portrayal of the role of Nettie Vollar, one of the principals in the love triangle which is developed by the story. Albert Roscoe as the skipper, George Fawcett as the stern grandfather of Nettie and Raymond Hatton as a venal drug addict contributed largely to the success of the presentation.

"Java Head" will be the attraction at the Arcade Theatre tonight and Saturday.

SHERRY'S
TO-DAY IS LAST DAY OF "THE CHRISTIAN"

Truly one of the notable screen achievements of the year is Goldwyn's pietization of Sir Hall Caine's most successful novel, "The Christian," directed by Maurice Tourneur. The author collaborated with Goldwyn in making this screen version of his novel—the aid in preparing the continuity, helped Director Tourneur in picking locations, and revised and rewrote the title. Therefore it is fair to judge that the film meets his approval. It certainly meets the approval of the picture-going public, for it is a thrilling, emotional drama, built about a big theme, most ably directed and superbly acted.

Mr. Tourneur has the special ability of so photographing a story that it has great pictorial beauty with any sacrifice of drama or human appeal. "The Christian" is his most ambitious attempt so far and that he has succeeded was amply proved last night by the breathless attention with which the unfolding of the story on the screen was received.

The cast is composed of notable film players each of whom was skillfully selected for his fitness for the role entrusted to him. Richard Dix, as John Storm, the Christian Socialist who tries to live as he believed Christ would, if on earth, has been for a year and more one of the most delightful and interesting actors, but the present portrayal puts his head and shoulders above most of the leading men and proves him an actor of insight of deepening resources and of great variety. Mae Busch also materially advances her standing as a player by her skillful handling of the difficult role of Glory Quince.

Others who do excellent work are Phyllis Haver, Gareth Hughes, Mahlon Hamilton, Charles Gilmore, Cyril Chadwick, Joseph Dowling, Harry Northrup and Beryl Mercer.

If you would see the biggest and best film of the year, do not miss "The Christian." It's at the top of the list.

Lumbago
 This is a rheumatism of the muscles of the back. It comes on suddenly and is quite painful. Every movement aggravates the disease. Go to bed, keep quiet and have Chamberlain's Liniment applied and a quick recovery may be expected. Mrs. F. J. Dann, Brockport, N. Y., writes: "I can honestly say that Chamberlain's Liniment cured me of lumbago a year ago last summer. When I began using it, I was flat on my back in bed and could not turn to the left or right. I had a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment in the house and this was applied to my back. It promptly drove away the pains and aches."—Adv.

 It's true they both look alike in the bottle from the outside. They both weigh alike—and are both pints. BUT—There's a difference in the milk and cream. AND—There's a difference in the price. So it is with SUPERFINE Bread. Most bread looks alike in the wrapper. Most bread weighs about the same. Yet SUPERFINE Bread is like the cream—it costs more but it's worth more.
