

New Vacation Corsets

One of our corsets, fashioned to combine those features desired by the active sportswoman, are ideal for vacation time. They are of lightweight fabrics, some of elastic and are as supple as can be. They are here in many different models in Gossards and Warners.

the scriptures; it is ever in advance of man's entire life on earth, entering even into eternity itself. "Behold," saith the Master, "I have foretold you all things."

At the Riviera Parent-Teachers Association meeting which was held Friday afternoon at the school building, the following officers were elected for the coming year: Mrs. E. I. Shepherd, president; Mrs. Faust, vice-president; Miss Galloway, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Whitteker, county health nurse, gave an interesting report on the school children she had examined, four songs were sung by the first grade pupils, recitations were given by the first, second and third grade pupils, and a piano solo was rendered by Mrs. Collingwood.

One of the many delightful spring parties occurred Sunday at the park, when Mrs. L. Carter and Mrs. J. E. Clark celebrated with a combined birthday party.

Those present were Mrs. L. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Swalberg and Harvey Carter.

One of the features of the party was the delicious picnic dinner.

Mrs. E. P. Mossman left last evening for Portland on a combined business and pleasure trip.

Batiste for Sleeves.
New York.—Batiste is a material fast coming into use today for sleeves in such summer frocks as have sleeves at all. It is seen in combinations with such unaltered materials as castor crepe and foulard.

Short Gauntlet Glove.
New York.—Nothing has a more remarkable appearance than the short gauntlet glove worn with a sleeveless gown. Nevertheless this short glove is quite permissible today and, if it looks amusing, this is because the beholder is not sufficiently saturated in styles to lose a sense of humor.

Choker Less of a Choker
New York.—The choker necklace of today is a bit less choking than at first. It is still composed of huge, round beads. But instead of being worn high on the throat—a line unbecoming to all save the very beautiful—it is now worn more often at the base of the throat.

Lingerie of Two Materials.
New York.—Lingerie today is made up of two materials, but frequently of only one color. Georgette in tea rose will have strips of tulle in the same tint as ornamentation. Crepe de chine is trimmed with self-colored lace, and batiste with organdie.

LADD FARMERS SEE FINE YEAR

LADD CANYON, May 22.—The recent rains make everything in this locality bid fair for a banner year. The farmers are busy with their spring work and the fall crops look fine. Every man in the neighborhood is busily engaged.

Mrs. Turnbow and daughter Nellie from Wallowa, are here on a visit for a few days. Mrs. Turnbow is a sister to Mrs. Mary L. Counsell.

The county readmaster has been having some work done on the foot-hill road which is greatly appreciated by those who travel it every day.

Ladd Canyon school closed Thursday afternoon of last week. Before noon the patrons of the district began gathering at the school house with their baskets, the school boys being busy fixing tables, etc. By noon the tables were laden with goodies and all sat down to satisfy their appetite. Cakes, cookies, salads, pickles, pie, bananas, oranges, and to top it off, Mrs. Deihl had supplied the ice cream which did credit to both teacher and pupils. Mrs. Deihl has taught a very successful school, and it with deep regret that we told her good-bye.

The club meeting at Mrs. T. Sherwood's last week was a very pleasant affair. Although the day was a rainy one, the ladies were out, and had a delightful afternoon. Mrs. Braden from town was a guest and joined in the pleasures of the afternoon with these present. The business meeting was disposed of by the president and at this meeting it was decided to send flowers to only the members of the club and their immediate families except in case of death. Flowers had been sent to Mildred Conway at Hor' Lake sanatorium the week before, and we are glad to know that Mildred is improving. The hostess served delicious refreshments at the close of the afternoon. The next meeting will be with Mrs. George Tilton, May 24th.

The Neighborhood club was shocked at the news of Geneva Childers' death at her home in Oakland, California, May 12. Mrs. Childers was the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Butner, formerly of this neighborhood but who is now living in Du Boise, Idaho. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Peebler were the recipients of the sad news in a telegram from Mr. Butner. It will be remembered by all her friends that Mrs. Butner was in a very serious condition when they moved from here and has steadily grown worse until neither she nor Mr. Butner were able to go to see their daughter, but the son, Emmett, went and arrived a few minutes before death claimed his sister. RHEUMATISM

Cannot Exist in the Human Body If You Will Use Trunk's Prescription

It is preposterous; in fact it is a shame to suffer with inflammatory, muscular, sciatic or any form of rheumatism.

This prescription does not ruin the stomach. It does not depress the heart. Eat all the meat and good food you wish while taking Trunk's Prescription. Contains no mercury, salicylate soda, oil, watergreen or narcotics, but positively overcomes any kind of rheumatism or gout on earth. What more do you want? There is nothing just as good, and it is impossible to get something better. The greatest use acid solvent known and also a superior liver medicine.

Trunk's Prescription sells for $1.75 or 3 for only $5.00 at drug stores.

Fashion Notes

Identifying Cape.
Paris.—When the gown is of printed materials of a striking design, the wise courtiere today makes the accompanying cape on a plain material and solid color. But to show that the cape "belongs," it may have a narrow collar of the dress material.

Feathers Disarranged.
Paris.—Bunches of burnt goose and peacock feathers stick out at strange and unexpected angles from the little, close-fitting hats of straw being worn here today. These soft and uncurled feathers hang over the ear or over the eyes, or they drape sidewise at a tangent most coquettish.

Shambolo Jacket.
London.—The shambolo jacket is a new feature today, for afternoon frocks. One of these of black silk has a bolero that pretends to open on a waist coat and belt of blue. The bolero is one in name only, being sewn down to the rest of the bodice.

Hand-Painted Vestees.
London.—Some of the brilliant little vestees that peep out from sports clothes and tailored suits worn here are hand-painted. There are several materials which take well to a touch of hand painting. Silk is perhaps most often seen, the painting being

At the Country club last evening Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton entertained a few friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg with a seven o'clock dinner. Mr. Bragg is soon to leave for Salem where he will take up his duties as a member of the State Industrial commission to which he was recently appointed by Governor Walter M. Pierce.

Around the dinner table gathered the friends of Mr. and Mrs. Bragg, many of whom have been associated with them for a number of years. They have watched with deep personal interest the advancement which has marked Mr. Bragg's career, from the teacher in Grande Ronde valley to county superintendent of public instruction, then to postmaster of La Grande and now to the capitol at Salem where he will sit on a commission that has to do directly with the important business institutions of the state.

Following dinner, guests gathered around the fireplace and enjoyed several hours general discussion of public affairs interspersed occasionally with some reminiscences which stand for in the Grande Ronde valley history.

Dancing was enjoyed for a time before the party adjourned.

In honor of Mr. and Mrs. Erickson, who will leave soon to make their home near the coast, a number of their friends and neighbors gathered at the Park Sanitarium where an elaborate picnic dinner was served and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Gukleman and family, Oliver Sudbrock, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Hoyt, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Standley and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tod Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Irvie Kuhn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Billy Stein and family, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stanley, and Thelma Standley Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Will Nibarger and daughter, Mrs. Lodema Terry, Mrs. Alice Sandix and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Portland and family, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Glenn and family, Mrs. William Webster and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Shaw and family, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Glenn and family, Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins, Mr. and Mrs. August Erickson and family.

training on the part of their instructor, Miss Anthony.

The public taking part were: Beatrice McAllister, Ruth McAllister, Wilma Mays, Sally Siegrist, Russell Nelson, Adolph Siegrist, Philip Newlin, Judith Snodgrass, Phyllis Peterson, Phyllis Dunn. A flower dance, by Sally Siegrist, a pupil of Leona Newlin McNamee was an added feature of the evening.

Miss Anthony is to be complimented upon her splendid class of young musicians. Two more recitals will be given in the future by Miss Anthony's class and they promise to be of merit. Those who were fortunate enough to attend the recital last evening will not miss the following two recitals.

A very pleasant little party was given Saturday afternoon, when Mrs. L. G. Terry entertained a number of boys and girls in honor of her son, Elmo, who is 12 years of age.

The children first attended the matinee at the Star theatre, after which they were taken to the Palace and treated to ice cream.

Those present were: Marjorie Reynolds, Dorothy Ann Warnick, Virginia Warnick, Marian Ann Stange, Jane Stange, Betty Cochran, Clea McKennon, Barbara Hlatt, Gertrude Scranton, Gilda and Trillian Ashby, Edward Buchanan, Marion Crowe, Richard Lyman, Herman Meyers, Kenneth Gxner, Alfred Zweifel, Harold Short, Lafau Bollen and Elmo Terry.

The Moody Bible Study class will meet at the home of Mrs. D. C. Graham, 1411 Madison tomorrow afternoon, May 23, at 2:30 o'clock. These meetings open with a ten-minute discussion on current religious events, conducted by Mrs. D. C. Graham. The subject for the afternoon will be the story of David, his great victories over the enemies of Israel, his selection and his anointing of Israel's King to the displacement of King Saul; and the latter's jealous pursuit of him to take his life, including also the incomparable friendship for him on the part of Jonathan, the son of King Saul.

The Bible has long been known as the greatest book in the world and the one fraught with the deepest interest to humanity. It is ever new; no step can be taken by man that has not been previously recorded in
