WONDERFUL WILD ANIMAL PICTURE

Star Theatre Presenting An Exceptional Picture By Hunters in Africa.

"Hunting the Game in Africa" is a picture now running at the Star theatre which should be seen by everyone. There is no trick photography about this picture and when the elephants appear in their wild state, when they stampede and tear down acres of timber, it is absolutely real for the African elephant is untamable and no camera man could stage such a performance from caged animals.

Not only are the jungle pictures of elephants, lions and other jungle animals interesting, but the plains animals are equally interesting. It would seem that every animal known to circus life has here been pictured in its wild state. From the zebra to the hippopotamus and rhinoceros, all are included.

It is a story of months of travel and hardship in interior Africa, first the hunters using the ox team but finally falling back to the flivver to accomplish their work.

Many people last night saw the two shows at the Star theatre so intensely interested did they become in the picture.

Another film shown prior to the animal film is the diamond mines of South Africa, which is also a film conveying great information.

This program continues at the Star tonight and tomorrow.

A conference, embracing the Eastern Oregon district of Ford dealers and employees from Enterprise, La Grande, John Day and Baker was held in La Grande last evening in the Foley hotel for the purpose of giving dealers and their organizations first hand information of the weekly Ford purchase plan, which is in brief, a plan whereby anyone can purchase a Ford at $5 down and the remainder in weekly installments. The meeting was one of a statewide series that is now being conducted. Following the business session, which was held in the Foley at 7:30 o'clock, the delegates retired to the Silver Grill where the Perkins Motor company of La Grande entertained at luncheon.

W. H. Goodwin, branch manager of Portland; J. E. Jordan, assistant branch manager, of Portland and Clarence Francis, of the Francis Motor company, of Portland, were among the delegates from western Oregon.

Mr. Estes, La Grande, John Day and Baker were all well represented. Incidentally, Mr. Francis is proprietor of the largest Ford organization in the state.

"That La Grande should be chosen for the conference is ample proof," stated Mr. Perkins, "that this city is in reality the business hub of Eastern Oregon."

Not H. G. Estes—The advertisement by the Old Oregon Trail Association in regards to bids on the parent grounds called for by Mr. Estes, unauthorized by the association, which appeared in the Observer yesterday and today, has caused some confusion as to the identity of the Mr. Estes. The gentleman in question is said to be Claude Estes, R. G. Estes, of the Imperial Billiard Parlors of La Grande, has absolutely no connection with the matter.

Los Angeles Resident Says Tanlac Saved Her Life

MRS. CAROLINE HENDERSON

"I owe my present good health, if not my life, to Tanlac," is the emphatic statement of Mrs. Caroline E. Henderson, 3711 Woodlawn Ave., Los Angeles, California.

"For years I had stomach trouble and was about as bad off physically as a person can be. At the time I got Tanlac I couldn't walk ten steps without assistance. Nothing I would eat agreed with me, and I suffered so it almost drove me distracted. I finally had a complete nervous breakdown. I tried treatment after treatment and nothing helped me.

"Tanlac has built me up over ten pounds and I am as well as I ever have been. I eat anything I want without suffering and sleep well, too. In fact, I feel just like a new person. Tanlac has won my life-long gratitude."

"Tanlac is sold by all good druggists. Accept no substitutes. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—adv.
