At six thirty last evening, in the Foley dining room, the Vestry of the Episcopal church entertained with a farewell dinner in honor of Mrs. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg, who will leave soon for Salem, where Mr. Bragg will assume his newly-appointed duties on the Industrial Accident Commission.

Seated about the beautifully arranged tables, which were made additionally pleasing by the presence of carnations which adorned them, were Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton, Mrs. Nellie Neil, Mrs. W. B. Sargent, Mr. Marx, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Slater, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Pratt, and the guests of honor, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bragg and daughter, Miss Edith.

Immediately following the banquet, Mr. and Mrs. Bragg and Miss Edith left for the Country club, where they were guests of honor at the Wednesday Bridge club, of which Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cochran and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lilly were hosts and hostesses.

Bridge was played at six tables, at which Mrs. Bragg received the guest prize, Mrs. J. J. Carr the ladies' prize, and H. K. O'Brien the gentleman's prize.

The Country club rooms were made fragrant and beautiful by the decorations, composed of lilies and honeysuckles, which were placed at intervals about the rooms.

At an appropriate hour, an exquisite two-course luncheon was served.

Grande, and has for the past year been employed in the Model restaurant. Mr. Lilly is engaged in cement contracting business with his father.

Alonso R. Loyell and Helen L. Rice, both of La Grande, were married here, June 2. Those stages will be presented as part of the University of Idaho commencement exercises here, June 9. Those stages will be used for the spectacle, which will depict the passing of the emigrant train on the Old Oregon Trail, Indian fights of the Nez Percé war, and similar events.

NOSE CLOGGED FROM A COLD OR CATARRH
Apply Cream in Nostrils To Open Up Air Passages.

Al! What relief! Your clogged nostrils open right up, the air passages of your head are clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffing, mucous discharge, headache, dizziness, no straggling for breath at night, your cold or catarrh is gone.

Don't stay stuffed-up! Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream in your nostrils, let it penetrate through every air passage of the head, soothe and heal the swollen, inflamed mucous membrane, giving you instant relief. Ely's Cream Balm is just what every cold and catarrh sufferer has been seeking. It's just splendid.

FELINE LOYAL TO TRADITION

(By Associated Press)
OGDEN, Utah, May 24.—"And the cat came back." This was the message received by employees of the Union Pacific freight station in Ogden from Denver, after the disappearance of a black cat that had come to this city in a car of merchandise.

Three weeks ago, according to local men, a black cat jumped from a car that had just been opened at the local station. It soon found a home with the workers, but disappeared a week later.

And now comes the message saying that the cat had returned to Denver in the same car in which it left the Colorado metropolis.

COMMENCEMENT IS HELD AT COVE

Sixteen Graduates Given Diplomas; Judge Anderson Delivers Address.

LA GRANDE, May 24.—The home was filled to overflowing for the "commencement" on Friday evening. It was a fine testimony to the interest people have in the progress of our young folks. The juniors had made the stage into a woodland bowery and adorned the whole with a profusion of blue. The music was furnished by the school orchestra. The invocation was pronounced by S. H. Weimer. The eighth grade class first came forward to receive their diplomas, which were presented by A. A. Antley, chairman of the school board, who received them from the hands of Mrs. J. E. Mills, eighth grade teacher. A vocal solo by Miss Esther Saunders followed. The sixteen graduates presented a most pleasing appearance as they came in attired in their graduation garb and carrying armfuls of flowers. Judge Anderson of Baker City, delivered the address to the class. A special feature of the program was a violin solo by Gilbert Miller. The graduates were given their diplomas. After the commencement exercises, a senior banquet was held in the domestic science hall. The guests included the entire senior class, Prof. and Mrs. J. H. Price, Misses Esther Saunders, Helen Dougherty, and the speaker of the evening, Judge Anderson, and his wife. The banquet was presided over by Mrs. T. W. Conklin, assisted by Mrs. Hugo Blank and several high school girls.

Miss Mary Conley, who has been ill at the Baker hospital where she went for an operation, was sufficiently recovered to return for his graduation with the class.

One of the best and most pleasing programs of the year was given by the second, third and fourth grades, arranged by their teachers, Miss Junilia Smithpeter, and Miss Lois Lawson, Miss Della Weimar, president of the group. The program was "Oregon," by chorus; "A Little Bit of Honey," Bertha Nelson; "Big Man," Zora Evans and Merrill Richardson; "When You and I Were Young Maggie," Vera Houx and Warren Lloyd; "Annie Laurie," Annie Kohlman; "If I Only Had a Home," Kohlman; "Joey Retel and chorus; "Freddie," Frankie Kohlman; "Bingo," Alman Geiss, Ned Marten, Benny DeBorde and Frankie Kohlman; "Little Orphan Annie," by chorus; "Our Yesterdays," Louise Anderson; "No Sir," Zora Evans and Harold Blank; "Leaves Me With a Smile," Zora Evans, Warren Lloyd, Jane Daniel, Ned Marten, Vera Weimar, Darrel Weimar, Lowell Weimar, Emma Heyford, Bertha Nelson, Dell Simons, John Blank and Wallace Simons; "Brides Ball," by chorus; "Everbody Calls Me Honey," Dell and Lee Ellen Freshberg; "Good Bye Shanghai," Ned Marten; "Grandfather's Farm," by chorus; "Old Fashioned Garden," Frankie Pulp, Dora Lloyd, Chistina Neiger, Annie Kohlman, and Gertrude Peterman; "Perfect Day," Judge Conklin, Miss Helen Dougherty, accompanist; "His Buttons Are Marked U. S.," Benny DeBorde; "Lovin' Sam," Warren Lloyd; "America," chorus and audience. Director Almon Geiss; announcer Ada Lloyd. All of the special numbers were little character sketches and were presented in a real artistic style. The children as well as the teachers are deserving of a great deal of praise. After the program the young people danced for an hour. The net proceeds, $22.50, were given to the juvenile department of the public library.

Nine Pass 8th Grade
A class of nine successfully passed the eighth grade examinations in Cove. They are Emory Hartley, Irene Haaz, Nina Peterman, Florence DeLaney, Robert Laird, Ray Randall, Jean Weimar, Edith Johnson and Lura Barker. Four others only missed one subject and will finish in June.

Girls Party
Mrs. E. H. Thomas and Mrs. A. H. Orton gave a very pleasant girls party at the home of the former on Thursday afternoon. "Five Hundred" was played at four tables, the honors being won by Mrs. C. Heyford. At the close of the games, delicious refreshments were served. The guests were Mrs. A. Conley, Mrs. Ray Goodnough of La Grande; Mrs. T. W. Conklin, Mrs. C. Bertsch, Mrs. C. Heyford, Mrs. A. G. Conklin, Mrs. Roy Lay, Mrs. J. J. Conley, Mrs. L. B. Carter, Mrs. John Dean, Mrs. R. H. Daniel, Mrs. G. E. Barker, Mrs. E. C. Ross, Mrs. George Southwick, Mrs. Robert French, Mrs. E. Hefty, Mrs. Frank Miller and Miss Bess Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Conklin gave a small dinner party on Sunday. Guests were Misses Lois Comstock and Jean Stearns; Messrs. Homer Lettle and Stewart Bennett of La Grande.

Oliver Hyllebuhrt of Baker was in Cove on Friday evening.

Messrs. Roy Shephardson and Clifford Perkins drove over from Baker on Sunday.

Cove played half in Baker on Sunday and lost, the score being 4 to 1. A contest of football was given in the game at Baker, among them being R. H. Davis, Darrel and Russell Pulp, Grace Goyette, Sylvia Coons and many others.

The Rev. P. L. Post has been in Baker for the past week.

Rev. Chester of Baker conducted services at the Methodist church on Sunday morning.

Rev. Alderman of Haines conducted the services, both morning and evening, at the Baptist church. He was accompanied by his wife and daughter. He will be here again next Sunday, May 27. While here, the Rev. and Mrs. Alderman were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Richards.

Association Meeting
