

Here's a Tip If You Are Looking for Suit Values

If you are one of those men who always look for that something that distinguishes a high type suit from the one that is commonplace, you will, we know, immediately see that something in our FASHION PARK SUITS. It is partly their exceptionally good tailoring; partly fabrics; partly style. Taken all together they make up suit value of the very highest calibre.

Today and Saturday we have a special offer of one lot of men's spring and summer suits at $23.50, and young men's suits at $19.50. A good range of sizes in different makes.

Mrs. Riddle and Mrs. Coolidge entertained the ladies of the Parkdale club Wednesday at the lovely home of Mrs. Riddle in May Park. The rooms were beautifully decorated with flowers for the occasion. Twenty-five members and five visitors were present.

After a short business session, the balance of the afternoon was turned over to Mrs. Riddle and Mrs. Coolidge, who proved themselves very capable hostesses.

The next meeting of the club will be June 6, at the home of Mrs. Francis Carbine in Fruitdale.

Mr. and Mrs. Bertie Kuhn and family, and Mrs. John Cantrel and family motored to Lane Pine last Wednesday and spent the day with Mrs. Barr Cantrel.

Society

The joint program of the M. L. A. which is to be given Sunday evening, May 27, at the L. D. S. Tabernacle promises to be of great merit, and many La Grande people will take advantage of the opportunity to attend, as the public is cordially invited. The program will commence at 7:30 o'clock, and will consist of: Song—"Come All Ye Sons of God," by congregation.

Opening prayer—Frank Black. Organ solo—Mrs. Lester Stoddard. Vocal solo—Mrs. Verne Ainsworth and Elmer Stoddard.

Story of the Book of Mormon—Luelle Metcalf.

Quartet—Mrs. Jack Hiatt, Mrs. R. M. Humphreys, Elmer Stoddard and Earl Stoddard.

Organ solo—La Rue Hanks. The Bible as evidence of the Book of Mormon—Mr. Lloyd Walsh.

Vocal solo—Miss Phosia Humphrey.

Quartet—Mrs. R. M. Rogers, Mrs. Elmer McManus, John Stoddard, and Bishop George R. Lyman.

Benediction—Fonda Hanks.

With the closing of school yesterday, the various grades of the different schools enjoyed the afternoon with festivities of some kind.

The teachers of the Greenwood school took their respective rooms on a picnic in the afternoon, some going to Rooster peak, some to the park, and others to nearby spots of beauty.

The seventh and eighth grades of the Riviera spent the afternoon together at the school building, where they played games until six o'clock, after which refreshments were served.

Last evening in the high school gymnasium, the parents of the 8th grade pupils of the Central school entertained in honor of the students. Games were played the early part of the evening, after which all sojourned to the Domestic Science department where refreshments were served.

The Country club was the scene of a delightful Spring party Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Walter H. Lelaman entertained the Alpha club.

The affair was made even more pleasing, with the warm sunshine pouring down on the picturesque surroundings of the club, and the interior of the rooms being decorated with beautiful spring flowers.

Cards were played at seven tables, at which Mrs. McNamee received the club prize, Mrs. T. J. Scrogens the guest prize, and Mrs. L. A. Dixon consolation.

A dainty luncheon was served at an appropriate hour.

A delightful three-course dinner was given Wednesday evening by Miss Bertha Berger, in honor of Miss Jane Harlan, who is leaving La Grande to join her parents in Portland.

Following the dinner the guests proceeded to the home of Miss Mildred Weeks where dancing was enjoyed until a late hour. Dainty refreshments were served during the evening.

Those present were the Misses Jane Harlan, Dorothy Krause, Fonda Hanks, Marion Howell, Carrie Bur-
