A Good Place to Trade

Society

Unusual interest in social circles was centered around the two home parties given Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons by Mrs. Hagley H. Richardson, Mrs. J. T. Richardson, Mrs. Charles Playle and Mrs. H. E. Dixon.

The Richardson home was most artistically arrayed in beautiful pink snapdragons, this being the color scheme, and used throughout the entire afternoon each day. Mrs. Dwight Jesse won high score trophy the first day, Mrs. Walter Leishman second, Mrs. T. J. Scroggins third and Mrs. Donald Pague fourth.

Mrs. P. S. Robinson won high score the second day, Mrs. H. Hall of Nampa, Idaho, the second, Mrs. E. C. Tuckey third and Miss Margaret Anson fourth.

A delicious two-course luncheon was served, which brought a close to two delightful afternoons.

The Pythian Sister club met at the home of Mrs. Alva Crowley this week. Mrs. Crowley was assisted by Mrs. Henry Council, and the following members were present:

Mrs. H. W. Riley, Mrs. Frank Cleavinger, Mrs. Ruby Howell, Mrs. Willard Moss, Mrs. L. W. Weeks, Mrs. J. A. McCarthy, Mrs. Mac Ribby and daughter Violet, Mrs. Jack Oliver, Mrs. I. F. Douglas, Mrs. Elmer Rose.

After the usual business meeting the afternoon was spent in playing "500." The high score of the afternoon went to Mrs. J. A. McCarthy and the consolation to Mrs. L. W. Weeks.

The house was decorated in red and white flowers, and a dainty luncheon was served, being carried out in the same color scheme.

Monday night the Past Matrons of the Eastern Star were hostesses to the 1923 officers, at the Masonic hall.

The evening was pleasantly spent in guessing and writing contests. Mrs. Earl Reynolds and Mrs. O. E. Silverthorne had to draw for the advertisement prize and Mrs. Silverthorne won. Mrs. E. P. Messman proved to be the greatest writer of the evening. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

At eight o'clock yesterday morning, at the home of the bride's mother, occurred the wedding of Martha Salisbury and Lewis Larson.

Bishop Black of the L. D. S. church officiated. Only the immediate relatives were present. The happy couple left for Portland on the 8:55 train to be gone for three or four days.

Chas. Andrews and Agnes Karnes were married at the home of Mrs. James Strong on Jefferson avenue, on the fifth, Mr. Jones of the Christian church officiating. After the ceremony Mrs. Strong served a bounteous dinner in honor of the occasion.

The Original Food-Drink for All Ages. Quick Lunch Home Office, Fountains, Rich Milk, Malted Grain Extract in Powder & Tablet forms. Nourishing—No cooking. Avoid Imitations and Substitutes.

Mr. and Mrs. Andrews will reside at the Johnson apartments on third street, where they will be at home to their many friends.

Mrs. W. G. Sawyer is entertaining this afternoon from three to five o'clock, twelve little girls, in honor of her four-year-old niece, Dulcinea Nancy Carse, of Portland, who has been visiting with Mrs. Sawyer for some time, but who will leave for her home tomorrow.

The Second Division of the Methodist Ladies Aid met with Mrs. Roy Forrester, 501 Washington, Wednesday afternoon for their regular meeting.

Following the business meeting, a social hour was enjoyed, during which refreshments were served.

Fashion Notes

Popular; Lots of Them.
Paris—What did women do before the era of the little cloche hat? Today these hats are seen in almost every imaginable material and every smart woman has several of them, matching several costumes.

Cream Georgette.
Paris—Cream georgette is being used quite as much as white organdie for the little collar and cuff set—now so much in vogue. Even with gray or black, theuffs and collar are likely to be a deep cream tint, often emphasized by a tiny black velvet bow with long ends.

Quaint Victorian Touch.
London—There is a decided air of quaintness in the Savoy and other chic eating places these days. The quaintness is given by the deep poke bonnet so reminiscent of Victorian times, and by the very short wrist gloves with sleeveless gowns.

Beaded Gown Fashion.
London—The beautifully beaded gowns worn at the recent court functions have started a new fashion. For these beaded gowns are in patterns which are not only beaded, but subtly shaded and the effect is magnificent, indeed.

Everything Wrap-Around.
New York—The wrap-around dress and the wrap-around coat and the wrap-around bathing suit are topped now by the wrap-around turban. This is a long swath of georgette for swimming, or rubberized silk, which is wound about the head and Long Bridal Gowns.

New York—Bridal gowns incline to be rather longer than any other type of gown this season. The contrast between the brief and child-like wedding gowns of last year is great. Many of this year's gowns come nearly to the toe of the shoe.

It Still Persists.
New York—The Egyptian designs, which refuse to be ousted, are dramatically carried out now in chains or ropes of crystals. These crystals strung across a gown in Luxor patterns, are sometimes tipped with gold or silver and they form an exceedingly glittering array.

BOYS AND GIRLS WORKING
(By Associated Press)
IDAHO, FALLS, June 8.—A shortage of adult labor in the farming sections of Homerville county is being largely supplied by boys and girls, particularly in the sugar beet fields. They are being paid from $2.50 to $4. per day, according to the class of labor they perform.
The Utah-Idaho sugar company is operating trucks to convey the boys and girls to the fields in the morning and return them to town when the day's work is ended.

BABY CHOKES TO DEATH.
(By Associated Press)
ST. ANTHONY, Mo., June 8.—Robert, 2-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. William Nyberg, choked to death Tuesday night when a small object the child had picked up while playing in the yard, lodged in his throat. In spite of every effort made by the parents, their son died. Physicians who were summoned arrived too late to save the child's life by making an incision in the throat and taking out the object.
