Scribes To "Tick" Fight

Dempsey-Gibbons Match to Find Army of Journalists at Ringside to Relay Results to Nation.

SHELBY, Mont., June 8.—Handling the work of a championship fight requires more ticks than a clock.

The Great Northern railroad, working with the Western Union in Shelby July Fourth will tick the clock and the results of the Dempsey-Gibbons fight to the world outside.

It will take more than a million ticks. The result will be ticks on who wins.

The color will be ticks on how he did it.

There will be 15 sending tickers at the ringside.

At this fight there will be no such thing as a private wire.

J. C. Roakins, superintendent of telegraph of the Great Northern would like to give every newspaper writer a separate wire.

But this is Shelby and not Toledo or Jersey City.

Writers will be grouped around the tickers sending their general direction.

For instance the scribes sending east will be grouped on one side of the ring. Those firing their impressions west on how Dempsey smacks Gibbons and how Gibbons smacks Dempsey will be grouped on another side of the squared circle and so on.

Copy will be filed in takes. Clerks provided by the Western Union will feed the stuff to the operators quickly and without confusion.

Superintendent Rankine believes that close to a million words will be handled by his staff.

The major dome wires associations will probably hook up the telephone lines. There are accommodations for four outlets this way. It is possible that additional wires may be strung by the phone company from Conrad to double the present capacity.

The Great Northern already has one observation car parked here and equipped with a first-class telegraph office. By June 15 another will be brought here and fitted up.

Railway officials are planning to park 32 special trains here on newly built spurs.

The five trains expected from Canada will be stopped at Varden, a mile and a half east of Shelby.

The Great Northern will establish a regular hotel camp here to house and feed its extra employees needed for the overnight big city terminal.

It is possible that some of the visiting newspapermen will be housed in Pullmans. Between 300 and 400 berths are expected to be here to tell what happens.

The railroad is working with Promoters Mike Collins, Loy J. Molmby and Mayor Jim Johnson, in every respect to make the show a big success.

Railway officials estimate they will haul 25,000 to Shelby by rail July Fourth.

Fans who will travel by auto should number around 20,000 more.

The arena, built to seat 40,000, is nearly one-half complete. The promoters are already figuring on plans to boost the capacity of the octagon to 60,000 if the advance sale looks healthy enough.

There are 1,200,000 feet of lumber being used in the bowl. A sellout will make the gate $1,200,000—a dollar for every foot of lumber used.

6 Lose Crown Sing John L.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 8.—Should Tommy Gibbons win from Jack Dempsey in their fight for the heavyweight championship of the world at Shelby, Mont., July 4, next, the heavy-weight crown will have passed eight times in 31 years, with one wearer taking it by default.

While many battles for the heavy-weight championship have been staged during the last 31 years, the actual change of title has passed in only the following fights:

Sullivan to Corbett; Corbett to Fitzsimmons; Fitzsimmons to Jeffries; Jeffries to Burns by default; Burns to Johnson; Johnson to Willard to Dempsey.

James J. Corbett wrested the crown from the brow of John J. Sullivan at New Orleans on September 7, 1892, knocking the veteran out in the twenty-first round.

"Gentleman Jim" Corbett held title to the heavyweight championship for five years, and then lost it to Bob Fitzsimmons by a knockout in the fourteenth round at Carson City, Nev., March 17, 1897.

The lanky Bob held the title for only two years, being knocked out by James J. Jeffries in the eleventh round at Coney Island, N. Y., June 9, 1899.

Jeffries retired and Tommy Burns claimed the title by default.

Burns defended his claim against Jack Johnson at Sydney, Australia, on December 26, 1908, and was defeated in the fourteenth round by the colored fighter on a technical knockout.

Jeffries was dragged back from retirement in 1910 and met the colored champion at Reno, Nev., July 4, but failed to regain the crown. Johnson knocked the former champion out in the fifteenth.

The next transfer was made on April 5, 1915, at Havana, Cuba, when "Lil" Arthur was knocked out in the twenty-sixth round by Jess Willard.

Willard held the championship belt for four years, but lost it to Jack Dempsey when the latter knocked him out in the third round at Toledo, Ohio, on July 4, 1919.

While Dempsey has engaged in a number of exhibition battles, he has defended his title only three times in four years, defeating Billy Miske, three rounds; Bill Brennan, twelve rounds, and Georges Carpentier, four rounds.

MICKIE WALKER SUSPENDED

NEW YORK, June 8.—Mickie Walker of Elizabeth, N. J., world's welterweight boxing champion, was indefinitely suspended Wednesday and his title declared forfeited by the state athletic commission for failure to accept a challenge from Dave Shade of San Francisco. Under the commissioner's ruling Shade was recognized in that state as the title holder.

SALT LAKE MAN WINS

OGDEN, Utah, June 8.—Sam Sherman of Salt Lake City won the Utah singles trap shooting title for the second consecutive time here Tuesday in the closing feature of the seventh annual shoot. C. J. Heilly, Jr., of Salt Lake tied with Sherman with 194 out of 200 birds but lost the shoot-off which required 75 extra birds in sets of 25 to determine the winner.

RAILWAY MEN MAKE TOUR

BEND, Ore., June 7.—After familiarizing themselves with central Oregon conditions and possible rail routes in anticipation of a hearing on the Corey complaint, by which the Oregon public service commission will seek to compel the building of new lines, a party of Union Pacific system officials completed a trip from Bend to Lakeview and Burns and took the train at Prineville for Portland. No indication was given in regard to the policy that will be pursued as a result of the investigation.

Here's K. M. M. as Big as Life! Announcing Krause's Annual Marshmallow Shower Saturday, June 9 to June 16 REMEMBER HOW YOU ENJOYED the marshmallow shower last year? You took Brother K. M. M. with you and let him tickle your palate at the picnic, at camp, at the club and at home. In salads, chocolate, desserts—and on your tongue—plain or freshly toasted. The kiddies went wild over him; mother said he was the sweetest, tenderest little rascal she ever met—and you, too, pronounced him the big treat of the summer. With the advent of the cold weather, K. M. M. went to his retreat. Here he is back again, after a long, eventful voyage. Back again to make summer 1923 picnics just as enjoyable as those of last year. What Is the Flavor that Makes KRAUSE'S Marshmallows So Delicious? Ah, that's a secret! So carefully guarded that it is known to but three men in the world. Get a pound tin. Maybe you can guess it. Whites of eggs? Yes. Purest pulverized sugar? Yes. These and other gelatinizing ingredients help. But there's a certain combination of something that gives Krause's Marshmallows a pleasing "bouquet" that can't be produced by any other formula. Guess again! It's fun, even if you miss your guess every time you try. Take Home a Handy Full-Pound Tin Sealed Tight to Keep the Freshness In —to keep in perfect condition the best marshmallows we can produce. It's doubly economical—keeps your marshmallows tender and fresh for weeks and weeks, and gives you 30% more marshmallows for your money. Priced the same every where, the FULL-pound 60c tin.
