FAIR BUILDING IS AUTHORIZED

ELGIN, June 11.—Decision to erect a pavilion 200 by 50 feet, and to purchase a canvas covering for it if the money can be raised, was made recently by the Fair Board during a meeting in which plans for the Union County Fair, Elgin, September 25, 26, 27, 28, and 29 were elaborated.

The new building will be erected as soon as possible. It is hoped to secure enough volunteer labor to put it up in short order. As soon as the building material can be secured, a call will be put out for helpers, and the business houses and everybody will turn out to do the work. When the work is completed it will be whitewashed. A renewal of the whitewash occasionally will keep the building looking trim for several seasons.

Discussion by the fair board developed interest in the amendments to be made this year as part of the 1923 fair program. Until an expense budget is made up, appropriations for various items cannot be made, but the sentiment favored hanging the best possible middle for the bucking contest and it is hoped to attract some real buckaroos for the event.

Earl Chandler suggested a wild cow milk men's contest as an every day event with some of the toughest specimens of range cattle to work on. Another suggestion was a goose-picking contest, and a third called for a clown contest to run during the entire fair week.

CHAMBER MEETS TUESDAY NOON

Commercial Body Will Have as Chief Speaker C. A. Warton; Agriculturists Invited to Attend.

When the members of the Union County Chamber of Commerce partake in their weekly luncheon today noon in the K. of K. Hall they will have on the program, as the chief speaker of the day, C. A. Warton, of the Oregon-Idaho Dairy Loan Association, who will have an address of interest to not only the business men but the cattle raisers of the Grande Ronde Valley. With realization of the importance of his message to the dairymen, the Chamber extends a most cordial invitation to all agriculturists to attend the meeting tomorrow, which will begin at 12:05 P. M.

Floyd McKennon will act as chairman and specialties on the musical program for the day include a violin solo "Souvenir" (Dredia) by Miss Dorothy Caldwell and the "Military Polka" (Chopin) at the piano by Miss Bertha Berger.

LUMBER TRADE STILL SPOTTY

The wholesale lumber trade remains spotty, reports received this week from important manufacturing and distributing centers indicate that the lull is being broken and that activity is slowly returning to the market, says the American Lumberman, Chicago. Retail yards having enjoyed a big volume of business throughout the spring, are rapidly cutting into their stocks and are being forced into the market for replenishments. Transit cars, of which there are comparatively few now, are being quickly picked up and a close watch is kept for any kind of bargain. However, dealers still show a strong disposition to postpone mill buying on any large scale, expecting that the recent price decline may be carried farther before their needs become imperative. Distributors are of the opinion that retailers, if they persist in their present policy in this respect, will all reach the bottom of the pile about the same time and rush into the market simultaneously with long lists of requirements, in which event, seeing that stock conditions at mills are none too good, prices would quickly shoot upward again and dealers lose what advantage they now have. The advice of the distributors, therefore, is to lay out leveling out demand and thereby insuring greater price stability.

Industrial demand also appears to be improving, and an excellently maintained export movement continues to feature both softwoods and hardwoods.

Production in the South continues to be hampered by bad weather, particularly in the hardwood sections of the Mississippi valley, where many mills have not produced a board for some weeks on account of lack of logs, and are not likely to be able to start up again before July 1. Conditions in the inland Empire and on the Pacific coast have been more favorable, and the output remains heavy in those sections. The transportation situation generally is favorable and shipments are moving promptly. The mills are, therefore, able to make material progress in cleaning up their old orders, so that they again are in a position to book a fair volume of business. Stocks, however, are not much improved, and there is still trouble in placing orders for badly mixed cars or for material needed immediately.

Mrs. Markham Declares Celebrated Medicine Ended Stomach Trouble Two Years Ago, Restoring Perfect Health; Has Felt Fine Ever Since

When a medicine proves so effective in the restoration of health—toning up the system, strengthening and invigorating the constitution—that those who take it can say, "After years of suffering, I am still strong and well," it must be conceded that such a preparation obtains of the highest degree of purity and efficiency that skill and science are able to accomplish.

It is both the immediate and lasting good accomplished by Tanlac in the case of Mrs. Ives Markham, 1747 Fourteenth street, Oakland, Calif., that prompted her to make the following statement, a few days ago:

"Tanlac proved such a wonderful blessing to me that I will praise it as long as I live. It took the treatment some two years ago and not only gained 28 pounds, but I have enjoyed splendid health ever since. It is only by the help of Tanlac that I was able to overcome a case of stomach trouble and nervousness that had almost completely wrecked my health. I never saw a walt day and had fallen off to only 82 pounds. Besides having an awful time with indigestion, my liver was almost always congested, and my complexion was sallow and unhealthy looking. Worries just can't tell how miserable I felt all the time. "Tanlac helped me almost from the very day I began taking it. My appetite, picked right up, my stomach felt better, and in a few weeks I was enjoying good health for the first time in 15 years. I now couldn't say too much in praise of Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 27 million bottles sold.
