Fashion Notes

Emerald for Betrothal.

Paris.—Betrothal rings are not usually diamonds now. The emerald is extremely popular today, one large stone—often of six carats—mounted in an almost invisible circle of platinum. Gold as a setting has yielded completely to platinum except in the case of the new 18-carat white gold, of which any wedding rings are made.

Timbo Straw for Hats.

London.—A dance at the fashionably dressed women in the Savoy and at Claridge's today proved timbo straw to be the proper thing for hats. Crinoline is perhaps second in favor. Many flowers are used, and trimmings are inclined to dangle over the shoulder or down the back.

Fancy Stuff for Shoes.

London.—Even when shoes are black today, they have fascinating insets of bright red and green. For dancing, the buckle has been somewhat edged out by the tiny circle of stuffed flowers surrounding a center of stones. Black satin sandals with heels of bright hue have tassels to match the heels.

Agates are Popular.

New York.—One of the new wrist bags shown here today is a luscious concoction of silk and velvet in the form of an inverted flower. The long silk or velvet petals, of many shades, end in black silk fringe. A wrist bag of this sort in delicate tints is intended for semi-formal dress which is a bit more formal than semi-

Change in Bathing Suits.

New York.—Crestone bathing suits have suffered a sea change. Instead of being the big, splashy patterns of yesterday, they are the small flowered design which always look so neat and effective. The slip-on suit seems to be the most appealing today.

Brightly Painted Furniture.

New York.—For use on the porch or in the summer houses there is furniture copied after the brightly painted tables and chairs of the earlier times. Apple green tables with nosegays in pink or pale blue chairs with a knot of buttercups on the bank will brighten any porch or country boudoir.
