A Good Place to Trade

Society

The following item will be of interest to people in La Grande and surrounding country, as the young people are well known here, and the wedding comes as a pleasant surprise to their large circle of friends:

Los Angeles, Calif., June 13. (Special)—The wedding of Miss Hazel C. Hauser and Mr. Philip A. Conklin occurred on Wednesday evening, June 6th, at the Church of St. James, on Wilshire Blvd., at St. Andrew's Place, Los Angeles, California.

White carnations and sweet peas were used in the decorations and the altar was made into a beaver of beauty.

The bride was charming in a frock of chiffon over white satin, made in a Grecian design. The veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms. Orchid flowered gladioli formed the bridal bouquet.

She was attended by Miss Edith Moses, who wore a beautiful gown of hydrangea blue and orchid and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The groom was attended by Mr. Horace Moses, a close friend.

The marriage ceremony was read by the Reverend John W. Areson of Ventura, California.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hauser of Baker, Oregon, and has been very popular in Baker social circles where she has resided for the past few years. She has been a student at the Oregon Agricultural college and is a member of the Chi Omega Sorority.

The groom is a son of Mrs. A. G. Conklin of Cove, Oregon. He spent three years at the Oregon Agricultural college where he is a member of the Kappa Theta Rho fraternity and also of the Sigma Tau, honorary engineering fraternity. He later spent some time at Ann Arbor, the University of Michigan. For the past year and a half he has been in an architectural office in Los Angeles, California.

Following the wedding an informal reception was held at the residence of Prof. and Mrs. T. H. Elson, 800 S. Kenmore avenue, Los Angeles, California.

A most delightful picnic was enjoyed by a number of friends, old and new, near the head of Mill creek, a mile north of where W. H.

Oliver's sawmill stood and was in operation for many years. (A story) little corner was cleared of underbrush, by the owner, D. L. Sanderson, and others, at the edge of the stream for the convenience of spreading the big "feed," such as is always in evidence among the generous farmers. Three large freezers of ice cream was only part of the dessert.

Emery Oliver proved himself an adept at catching fish, while some of the other children made use of the swing, and others at climbing trees.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Neiderer, of La Grande; Bill Park, Charlie Rhodes, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Woodell, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Park, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Sanderson and sons, Virgil and Lyle, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sanderson, Mrs. Ruby Borry and baby, Mrs. W. H. Glenn and children, Verda Lucile and Margaret, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Oliver and children, Harold, Emery and Madeline, Miss Lydia M. Hug of La Grande, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Neiderer and sons, Roy and Vernon.

The Hug reunion will be held in the city park at Elgin, June 24, and ing them early in the evening with a splash party at the natorium and later adjourning to her home on north Main street where the guests remained for the night. A delicious supper was served at midnight and the affair concluded Sunday morning with the serving of a late, but tempting breakfast.—Baker Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. George T. Cochran of La Grande are registered at the Multnomah.—Portland Journal.

Mrs. Frank Frazier is a La Grande visitor. She is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Jasper Stevens.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Fashion Notes

Emphasizing By Concealing.

Paris.—The newest way of emphasizing through partly concealing a décolletage is causing as much of a sensation today as the "animal" gown with figures of jungle beasts appliqued on it. The décolleté evening gowns at present are very low indeed, and over the bare back are strung many chains of crystals.

Tassels on Costumes.

Paris.—Odd little tassels appear here and there today on costumes intended for summer afternoons. A little silk tassel has found its way to the corner of the bandanna. Another in beads hangs from the strap of the shoe to match the colored heel.

Hat for Slim Face.

London.—A hat extremely becoming to a pointed, slim face was worn by a young Russian princess at a tea dance in Claridge's lately. The hat was wide and black and covered with lace. On the very edge of the side brim was poised one large pink rose.

Fashionable Colors.

London.—Among the colors very fashionable at the moment for formal gowns are the sunshine shades, heightened by gold embroidery; the lighter and more delicate shades of green, eucalyptus, peach and apricot.

Newest Negligee.

New York.—It is a pretty idea, that of naming the organdie gown in two colors. Such lovely combinations are achieved today as French blue over orchid, orchid over green, pale yellow over pink, and pale green over blue.

Tab Silk Sport Frocks.

New York.—The young girl who likes to be thoroughly tailored when in sports clothes at present is wearing a tab silk sports frock with a smartly tailored collar and tie to match. There is a tailored pocket or two and long sleeves with cuffs fastened by pearl links.

Some Wedding Gowns.

New York.—Many of the wedding gowns being designed today touch the floor and have rather long trains.

Some skirts are closely plaited, along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take out ten being cut out close to the base of the throat.

Recommends Chamberlain's Tablets.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take out ten being cut out close to the base of the throat. "Chamberlain's Tablets and or two of Chamberlain's Tablets they fit me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Woodland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.—Adv.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened with attractive, healthful, and safe Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

Well-known druggists everywhere use Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.
