There Will Be No Recall

About once a month energetic sensational news writers spring a story from Salem that there will be a recall on Walter M. Pierce, now governor of Oregon.

There will be no recall on Pierce. It is plain that the sensational news will be continued at intervals but there will be no recall.

When it comes to recalling a governor because he makes mistakes in appointments, or because some one or even a lot of people think he makes mistakes in appointments, it can't be done. The people as a whole do not care a rap about who holds minor offices, and the flurry of today is forgotten tomorrow except by those who are affected by the change.

We believe the governor is making some mistakes; that he is acting on the wrong judgment at times, but we are not ready to help recall Pierce and we don't believe any great number of people in Oregon are ready to do such a thing.

Why Advertised Goods Sell

There are many reasons why advertised goods sell best. In speaking of nationally advertised goods, for example, travellers are able to purchase the same brand of cracker in the east as in the west, in the north as in the south—and all of them are equally good and crisp.

And the same principles apply to all merchandise and goods made or sold locally. The buyer knows that a local advertiser is ready to stand behind his product because his advertising is proof of his confidence.

The advertiser is known and has pledged himself to stand back of his merchandise. He has given his printed word to the general public and must keep it. It is the mark of good faith and is recognized by buyers the world over as such.

Almost without exception, all of the improvements in packages or other containers have been the direct outcome of advertising.

Enjoyable Work

The president of the United States is coming and Eastern Oregon people are preparing to receive him. Business men of La Grande have deserted their business houses and many spend most of their time on Top O' Blue Mountains in preparing to welcome this honored guest. The whole community is looking forward to the occasion with great delight, for Eastern Oregon cannot hope to have a president here once in a lifetime, scarcely.

Top O' Blue Mountains will live in history because of this celebration. The old Oregon Trail pageant will be a historical fact and its impression will be left with the nation, as it should be.

This is a great year for the northwest and the third day of July will be the eventful day.

The idea that the world owes every man a living has put many men in the poorhouse.

Many persons would be better off if they did put off some thing until tomorrow.

Ever knew better than to try tempting Adam with anything she had cooked.

Men are creatures who cut down great trees to make room for a city, and then plant little saplings to beautify it.

An ad in a Florida paper says: "Wanted—Steady, respectable young man to look after a garden and care for a house who has a good voice and accustomed to sing in a choir."

You can't always tell. Tightwads never get tight.

Speakers come and speakers go. Some of 'em say "I told you so." Some of 'em start to "Show their stuff."

Some of 'em try to "Throw a bluff." Some of 'em try to be real funny. Some of 'em come to "get the money."

But the one who makes us all weel happy, is the "ten-minute bird" who makes it "snappy."

A wife is a person who thinks she wouldn't be nervous if you weren't there to criticize her driving.

Correct this sentence: "The husband brought home three unexpected guests, and the wife smiled happily as she greeted them."

"It's a grand life," the coal remarked when the kindling was being lighted.

A new book is advertised in an eastern paper as a story of "Desert Excursions," notes "Amos Tash," "It ought to have wide appeal. Our favorite is apple pie. What's yours?"

If the tongues of some folks could talk, they could say a mouthful.

What this country needs is an alarm clock that wakes up only the man who gets it.

People who live in glass houses should address in the dark.

COMFORT FIRST
 To the hills of the Southern Sea, A good missionary, said he, "A calico shirt, Is as cheap as diet!" "But is it as cool?" said she.

When we are crazy, as that pro-verb says we shall be, perhaps "underears" can save the expense of hiring a lawyer to prove it.

Breadcloth ideas and gingham imagines cause many a wreck of the family stip.

Some people are surprised that duck skin is thick enough for shoe leather, but they don't know much about loan sharks.

A mere pedestrian, standing on the corner by the postoffice counted the vehicles which passed him during a busy few minutes before he crossed the street, and these are what he saw: 30 automobiles, seven trucks, five delivery cars, six bicycles, a team of horses, a loggy and horse, three perambulators and last of all the five truck for which everybody scattered. Two boys on bicycles tried to hook on ten cars but were "blown" off.
