THEATRES

TOM MIX COMING TO STAR THEATRE IN NEW QUIXOTE ROLE

Tom Mix is in a new kind of picture; that is a new kind for him. It is described as the story of a modern Ivanhoe. Tom portrays the character of a cowboy who reads "Ivanhoe" and fancies himself to be a modern knight who has set forth to rescue his fair lady. There are armor and broadswords and many brave imaginings. The girl is imbued for the tales of King Arthur than she does for modern fiction.

The scenes include a tournament arranged in Western fashion, a fire-roaring fight, and Tom Mix crossing a river in a tool basket suspended from a cable two hundred feet in midair. The action does not let up for a minute, the story is replete with tense situations and brightly tinged with comedy, according to advance reports.

The Fox star is said to have surpassed himself in this latest screen effort. It is called "Romance Land" and will be shown at the Star Saturday and Sunday.

SHERRY'S "BACKBONE" LAST DAY.
 The dominating male character of "Backbone" is acclaimed by motion picture lovers as the real successor of the late Wallace Reid. He looks like him, and acts like him. LUNT starred in "Clarence" on the legitimate stage, and the public comment on the resemblance between him and "Wally" who later appeared in the picturization of this play.

He is a perfect "screen idol" type, young, handsome, six-foot two and broad-shouldered—yet, a real "He-Man," which he easily demonstrates during the exciting hand-to-hand struggle with a husky opponent in the final scenes of "Backbone."

Comedy showing Larry Semon in his latest "The Barnyard."

MARION DAVIES IN STRONG PICTURE

Creating a profound impression, Marion Davies' latest Cosmopolitan production, "Adam and Eve," had its premier at the Arcade Theatre last night, Robert G. Vignola directed.

Miss Davies, as Eva King, is the extravagant daughter of James King, owner of many rubber plantations. She is taken in tow by an energetic young man who succeeds admirably in keeping her in check, that is, until the trick which he has played on her has been discovered. Then there is the mischief to pay. Eva leaves him flat, but remembering that he has done this all for her good, she returns and begs forgiveness.

Ho! for Summer Sandwiches

Club Sandwiches
 Make ready the desired number of pieces of toast. Prepare each sandwich as follows: Place a lettuce leaf on one of the slices; sprinkle over it a teaspoonful of salad dressing; add the sliced chicken; put on a little more lettuce and dressing, then the bacon and tomato, and more lettuce and dressing. Finish with the second slice of toast. Cut the sandwich diagonally. Garnish with very small lettuce leaves or parsley and serve at once.

Hot Chicken Sandwiches
 Cut bread in slices one-quarter inch thick. Spread lightly with creamed butter and lay on thin slices of chicken. Sprinkle on a little celery salt. Press the second slice of bread in place; toast on other side and when finished butter the toasted surfaces.

Jelly Sandwiches
 Spread buttered slices with currant jelly and sprinkle with chopped English walnut meats. Trim crusts and cut slices in half, diagonally. For jam or marmalade sandwiches, follow the same directions, omitting the nut meats.

Outing Sandwiches
 Prepare the desired number of slices of bread and butter lightly. Peel one or two sweet apples, core, and slice very thin. Place a layer of apple on the bottom slice, then a generous spread of peanut butter, add another layer of the apple and press two slices firmly in place.

To get the most delight and benefit from these Summer sandwiches, they must be made with quality bread. You'll find—

THE NEW HALL OF FAME

Sigrid Onegin

Contract Metropolitan Opera Co.

15048—"Sapphische Ode"..... Tralans (Sapphic Ode)
 "Auf Dem Kirchhofe"..... Tralans (In the Churchyard)
 (Song in German)

Sigrid Onegin created a sensation as a new addition to the Metropolitan Opera Company. Her voice has the glorious richness of tone looked for in contraltos. Like other artists of the New Hall of Fame she selected Brunswick as her recording medium because of its faithful interpretation of different tones, its clearness and brilliant intonations. Miss Onegin gives the two beautiful selections a rendition full of phrasing and levelness of expression. Be sure and hear her.

New Brunswick Records are not for sale every day. They are to be had on our phonograph but best on The Brunswick.
