THEATRES

EVERETT TRUE

An Unusually Attractive Vandeville Bill Will Be Seen At The Arcade Theatre on Sunday.

The Four Nations will be the headline attraction, two marvelous, agile young men and two perfectly formed and talented females in a study of sculpture, present an offering which is decidedly unique and class. Their posing is not only novel and meteorically presented but so original in conception as to mark them as extra-ordinary performers in their line. Sandy McKay, the Scotch Comedian with his local pipes and a song and a story or two done in a quaint manner which is always a popular hit. Took & Toy, in "A Brood from Pekin" a Chinese novelty. A Chinese couple Americanized Chinese costumes. Millard & Millard in a rural comedy offering "The Maple Patch." Comedy songs, talk, eccentric, dancing and banjo manipulation. This act is full of good comedy and many laughs.

"ROMANCE LAND" NEW MIX VEHICLE, HAILED AS A MASTERPIECE

"Romance Land," a Fox production, featuring Tom Mix, which begins a two-day run at the Star theatre today, is a little masterpiece of its kind, and by far one of the best things that this imitatable and talented artist has done so far. "Romance Land" has all the charm of "Vanhoose" and the tales of King Arthur, combined with thrill and excitement of a modern Western photoplay. The director has blended not only the spirit of two continents, but the spirit of two ages.

Here is genuine ability, if it is not genius. The atmosphere which surrounds the narrative has been developed by a capable mind. The action itself gathers speed as it goes along, rising to a sharp crescendo at the finish. In and out among these exciting scenes is embroidered the golden thread of romance and the silver skein of comedy. To these elements of excellent entertainment is added splendid photography that pleases the artistic sense.

Tom Mix renders a performance that is more than satisfactory. The other members of the cast are well chosen for their parts. The acting, the situations, the story and the entire production come up to every expectation given us by the producer's advance publicity. Here is a screen offering that has not been overrated.

SHERRY'S TODAY ONLY

"Carnival" a Picture Allocated With Color. What can the motion picture provide in place of stage color? This is a question largely answered in the spectacular Harlan Kados production of "Carnival" which was recently released at United Artists.

The devices employed claim chief attention. Here is a story which almost cries aloud for color. To an extent they have supplied color in monochrome. Thus in the night pictures of Venice, the light of the Venetian masks, the sparks and the carnival ball, the lanterns flash now one that, now another, on the crowd of dancers. But the real substitutes are variants in Lighting and that rapidity of movement which is the cinema's monopoly. The ball scenes, with their animation and brilliance, compel enthusiasm in these respects, while agreeable novelties of the film are views of the stage from behind and of a huge audience in front. As for the illustrative panorama of Venice, it is as good as photography can make it.

Who's got the button? One of the most laughable situations in "Nobody's Money," a Paramount picture starring Jack Holt is one of the most necklaces. This necklace passes from hand to hand at a dizzy rate of speed, everybody trying to get rid of it by passing it on to his neighbor. Mr. Holt, in the role of a wealthy young man who tries burgling for adventure and romance, chooses for his pal a real yegg, Eddie, for whom everything of value has a lure. When Holt returns to the "honest life," he endeavors to reform Eddie. He hires his ex-burglar pal as a secretary. Then the fun begins in earnest. Mr. Holt falls in love with the Governor's daughter. When he visits her, his secretary accompanies him. Finding the safe open, Eddie takes from there a pearl necklace. But he is seen by Holt, who demands the necklace with the purpose of returning it.

Ho! for Summer Sandwiches

Club Sandwiches
Make ready the desired number of pieces of toast. Prepare each sandwich as follows: Place a lettuce leaf on one of the slices; sprinkle over it a teaspoonful of salad dressing; add the sliced chicken; put on a little more lettuce and dressing; then the tomato and tomato, and more lettuce and dressing. Finish with the second slice of toast. Cut the sandwich cornerwise. Garnish with very small lettuce leaves or parsley and serve at once.

Hot Chicken Sandwiches
Cut bread in slices one-quarter inch thick. Spread lightly with creamed butter and lay on thin slices of chicken. Sprinkle on a little celery salt. Press the second slice of bread in place; toast on other side and when finished butter the top and surfaces.

Jelly Sandwiches
Spread buttered slices with currant jelly and sprinkle with chopped English walnut meats. Trim edges and cut slices in half, diagonally. For jam or marmalade sandwiches, follow the same directions, omitting the nut meats.

Cottage Sandwiches
Prepare the desired number of slices of bread and butter lightly. Peel and core two sweet apples, core, and slice very thin. Place a layer of apple on the bottom slice, then a generous spread of peanut butter; add another layer of the apple and press top slice firmly in place.

To get the most delight and benefit from these Summer sandwiches, they must be made with quality bread. You'll find—
