BAKER MEETS COVE SUNDAY AFTERNOON. While La Grande is idle tomorrow Baker and Cove will cross bats at Cove in a decisive game.

Whether Cove or Baker breaks even in the two games to be played Sunday and on the following Sunday, rests the chance of a pennant for the Pirates. If Baker and Cove break even, La Grande can, by winning the remaining three games, tie for leadership of the league.

Yale Wins From Howard In Annual Thames Races. Regatta Course, New London, Conn., June 23.—Sweeping to rowing glory that it has not known for nearly a decade, Yale's powerful varsity crew capped the climax of a record comeback this season under American home bred coaching methods with a smashing spectacular victory over Harvard as dusk was settling Friday evening over the picturesque Thames river course.

Leonard Must Fulfill Contract. NEW YORK, June 23.—The New Jersey athletic commission Friday notified the New York athletic commission that it would suspend Benny Leonard, lightweight champion, unless he fulfilled his unexpired contract to meet Charlie White. The New York commission will consider the matter at its next meeting on Tuesday.

Leonard-White match was called off after the champion received an injury to his mouth which kept him out of the ring for some time. Meanwhile his manager, Billy Gibson, has matched him to meet Lew Tonder at the Yankee stadium, July 27. White wants Leonard to box him first.

25 MAY ENTER TOURNAMENT

Horseshoe Contest at Top O' Blue Mountains Is Open to 75 Men From Umatilla, Union and Baker County.

Union county may enter 25 men in the horseshoe tournament for the champion of Top O' Blue Mountains at the Old Oregon Trail pageant July 3. Each of three counties, Umatilla and Baker, may enter contestants in the tourney and reports from the two latter are to the effect that many have announced their intentions to participate.

The rules to be followed are not regulation but were adopted with the view of speeding the play up so that it would not drag over a period of four or five hours. Regulation rules are as follows: Shoe must be within six inches of peg to qualify, closest shoe counts 1 point, ringer 3 points, and topped ringer neutralizes, giving 1 point to the nearest shoe.
