Westenhaver & Gilbert

Is there someone you are neglecting?

You have no excuse merely in saying that you are "too busy." The world is busier for everybody today. You can find time to send a Greeting Card—and you will never be in social or sentimental error.

Sentiment did not wane with white muslin and blue ribbons, flowered waistcoats, or the coach and four. The spirit of those times still remains in every man and woman.

Ask the dealer to show you his selection of Greeting Cards. Whatever the intent of your message, dignified or playful, you will find a card that will convey it.

MENARY BACKS WORLD COURT

SALISBURY, June 22.—Entrance of the United States into a world court furnishes the first immediate hope for relief from the depression under which the agricultural interests of this nation are laboring, Senator Charles L. McNary declared in a speech before the Markon county Pomona grange at Turon, Wednesday.

"To find profitable markets is one of the big problems of the farmer," Senator McNary said. "He looks across the waters to Europe and longs for the resumption of peace and normal business conditions that follow war. Our entrance into the world court may assist in bringing about that happy situation, and, in my judgment, it furnishes the first immediate hope."

Senator McNary also declared that a tariff rates must be reduced at the center of the western states were 15 percent at his labors. "Say a reduction, he pointed out, would not necessarily mean a diminished or return to D. railroads as the loss in the lower rates would be more than offset by the increased tonnage."

"Something will be done along this line by the forces that control freight rates," he said, "and, having its 60th session, Senator McNary pronounced.

THE OLD HOME TOWN By Stanley

Kind Words From Oregon's Prominent Men on the Oregon Trail Edition

Mr. Bruce Dennis, La Grande, Oregon.—My dear Senator: Some days ago I received a copy of your very excellent paper, and I wish to hereby thank you for your kind remembrance of me.

Your Special Edition was indeed worthy of great praise; for it was the equal of any edition of our best Portland dailies.

I was especially interested in the matter of the "Old Oregon Trail," as my mother passed through the Grande Ronde Valley in 1852; and she has often told me that it was one of the most beautiful valleys she ever saw. She came over the "Trail" when 16 years of age and walked and helped drive their ox teams most of the distance. She is still alive and remembers very vividly the experiences, hardships and pleasures incident to the trip over the "Long Long Trail."

Again thanking you and hoping to greet you in the 1923 session of the legislature I am, very truly,—Geo. W. Dunn, (Senator, Ashland.)

Mr. Bruce Dennis, La Grande, Oregon.—My dear Sir: I have received a copy of your "Oregon Trail Edition" which I have read with a great deal of interest. It is indeed a splendid article and I wish to compliment you upon same. Very truly yours—E. E. Calvin, (Vice-president Union Pacific System.)

Mr. Bruce Dennis, La Grande, Oregon.—Dear Bruce: I am happy to be in receipt of the Oregon Trail edition of your paper. I knew that you were the editor of a paper but I had no idea that it was so progressive and that your country was so progressive as to give you the support necessary to put out such a big job. It is larger than any put out by similar towns that I have chanced to see and compares very favorably with Memorial editions of the big cities.

You are to be congratulated upon the fine support you have been able to enlist in your community in such an enterprise and on the zeal and industry of yourself and employees which makes such an effort possible. I appreciate very much your sending me a copy of it.

With my kindest personal regards and very best wishes, I am, Yours very respectfully, Frank C. Bramwell, (Superintendent of Banks, Salem.)

Mr. Bruce Dennis, La Grande, Oregon.—Dear Senator: I received your Oregon Trail edition some days ago, I sincerely thank you for this good treat.

Here is why I have not acknowledged the receipt of the Oregon Trail Edition sooner. Did you ever go to an especially good show and afterwards want to tell all your friends all about it? Did you ever hear an especially good bear story and want to tell all your friends and everybody? Well, that's the way it's been with the seven sections of the Observer. Each of the seven sections have been in the hands of seven different friends for seven different days. Well, when the copy you sent me had attained an individual circulation of three hundred forty three readers I got most of it back and I am now ready to tell you that it is the most enjoyable edition of its kind I ever saw.

There is just one thing; I thought I knew a little bit about Eastern Oregon and after reading over the Trail Edition I still maintain that I know a very little bit. That one thing is that I shall see more of Eastern Oregon this year and I want to see more of its people and remembering that my friend, Bruce Dennis, is a "good many," I shall not fail to see him this year. Sincerely your friend—Murray Wade, (Publisher Oregon Magazine, Salem.)

Dear Senator Dennis: Your great number of the "Observer" interested me greatly. The Grande Ronde has been among the foremost of Oregon's beauty spots in memory, since first I saw that valley in the autumn of '75. I think it was that year, possibly '79, that we "hummers" sat in the stage with our hands on the butts of our Colts, expecting trouble with Bannocks and Plutes. The ravaged freight wagon lay wrecked beside the stage road a few miles west of Meacham's station.

Your 52 page edition is doubtless the biggest (and best) yet anywhere in Oregon east of this fat burg. I congratulate you upon its fine appearance and highly valuable material. Trust you are well, busy and prosperous. Sincerely,—John G.H. (President, J. K. Gilt Co., Portland.)
