Flings at Folly

And yet, it Shakespeare had waited until today to do his stuff, it isn't at all probable that anybody would have produced him.

These are decadent times. Babe Ruth is away behind, and the McCornicks don't average more than one headline a week.

As usual, however, the crops irreparably damaged by late frosts will be marketed at a loss on account of over-production.

The uncertainty in political fields may be due to the fact that multiplication of leaders has left none to qualify as followers.

People who hold that the dead can't come back never tried drowning a cat.

The Home of the Soul.

In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.—Adv.

CARD PARTY IS HELD FRIDAY

The Pythian Sisters gave a card party last Friday evening at the K. of P. hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. I. L. Douglas and daughter, Mrs. Jess Robertson, who are here visiting from California.

The hall was artistically decorated with poppies and pansies. "Five hundred" was played until a late hour, when a delicious lunch was served to the ladies of Rowena Temple, high score for ladies being to Mrs. W. L. Weeks and Mr. Weeks winning gentlemen's prize.

Those enjoying the evening were: Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Brandt, and son, Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCarthy, son, Ned, Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Weeks and son, Roswell.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Moss, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Nash and daughter, Maxine, Mrs. A. E. Shannon, Mrs. W. A. Wallace, Mrs. Ruth Halmarth of Elgin, Mrs. J. L. Yates of Elgin, Mrs. W. E. McArthur, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Oliver, Mrs. S. A. Douglas, Mrs. A. L. Crowley and son, Col. F. S. Ivanhoe, E. E. Monsell, Mrs. Elmer Rose, Mrs. C. A. Riley.

"Mob endeavors to break up Klan organization." So the Klan hasn't a monopoly of Americanism, after all.

Recommend Chamberlain's Tablets. "Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y. Take these tablets when troubled with constipation or indigestion and they will do you good.—Adv.
