

Local News In Brief

COMING EVENTS
 July 4.—Old Oregon Trail Pageant at Top O' Blue Mountains.
 Sept. 25-29.—Union County Fair at Elgin.

Commission Meeting—The La Grande city commission will meet in regular weekly executive session this evening in the city hall at 7:30 o'clock.

Purchase House—Miss Helen Sims has purchased a six room modern house on Washington Avenue.

Saxophone Band to Release—The La Grande Evening Observer Saxophone band will meet tomorrow evening at eight o'clock at the usual meeting place.

Annual Roll Call—The annual roll call of the Moose lodge will be held Thursday evening, June 27, at 7:30 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

Mooseheart Legion Meeting—Women of Mooseheart Legion will hold a meeting at the Old Fellows hall, Thursday, June 28th, at 7:30. All members are requested to be present.

Fined for Spending—A perusal of the records in the justice of peace court shows that four people were fined during the past few days for spending. They were Mrs. Ada Kiddle, Mrs. Alpha Coniff, Milton Price and Stanton M. Palmer. Each was assessed $10.00 and costs.

Tickets Are Ready—Earl C. Reynolds, secretary of the Union County Chamber of Commerce, announced today that tickets for entrance to the Oregon Trail pageant to be staged at Top O' Blue Mountains July 2 and 4, and are on sale in the La Grande drug stores and he also urges that the who wish them, get them early—"and avoid the rush."

To Dispense Tents—The Grande Ronde Chautauqua association is offering twenty tents for sale, as is explained elsewhere in this issue of the Evening Observer. "They are just right to use at the Old Oregon Trail pageant," a member stated. The reason for selling the tents is that with the auto becoming almost everybody's possession, very few people are camping at the park.

Hot Lake Arrivals—The Hot Lake Sanatorium register contains the following names:
 Earl H. Harter, Payette, Ida, Mrs. J. W. Giles, Enterprise; E. E. McKinney, Baker; Fred L. Helsing and wife, Boise; P. Golden and wife, Dayton, Wash.; D. H. Morgan and wife, Walla; Mrs. Lulu Gardner, Baker; P. E. Horse and wife, Davenport, Wash.; Mrs. Orvel Jensen, Union; Edith Hess and wife, Union; R. C. Chaffin, Hermiston; Wm. Rith, Baker; Mrs. R. J. Tompkins, Walla Walla; Mrs. E. P. Peal, Freewater; Mrs. J. E. Alexander, Freewater, Ore; R. Tompkins and wife, Vincent; Eli C. Ebyusk, Pendleton; Esther Ebyusk, Pendleton; Alex. Laurie, Pendleton.

Band Rehearsal Tonight—The La Grande Municipal band will hold rehearsal tonight at the Elk temple and Director Loney asks all to be present.

Is Improving—Mrs. Maude Baertch, who underwent a serious operation Monday at the Grande Ronde Hospital, is getting along nicely.

Rain Worries Baker Farmers—Farmers in some localities are beginning to worry about the continued rains and the effect upon crops. A number had planned to start cutting hay this morning but with the rain during the night and morning gave it up. Much hay is ready to cut. From Eagle Valley comes the report that there has been considerable damage to hay on account of the rain.—Haker Herald.

Down From Lake—A. E. McInturf, manager of the Wallowa Lake summer resort, spent yesterday in the city making arrangements for the accommodation of the tourists that will visit the park this summer. "So far this year the weather has not permitted many people to enjoy the beauties of the Wallowa Lake country, but with the clearing of the weather I am preparing for a large crowd of campers."

Choirs to Appear At Conference—The musical features of the L. D. S. Conference to be held next Saturday and Sunday will consist of choir music (furnished by a choir from Union on Saturday afternoon), from the Baker choir (Sunday morning), and the combined choirs Sunday afternoon. The Baker choir has the distinction of having an accomplished lady director, Miss Ida Fossum.

Boys to Sell Ice Cream—The boy scouts wishing to earn enough at Meacham selling ice cream to take them to summer camp must hand their name in to scout commissioner. It will be necessary to have from 10 to 15 cars to transport the boys to the camp and anyone wishing to donate the services of their car may arrange with A. E. Fryke. There will be about 50 boys at the camp which is an ideal spot for swimming, fishing, games and scenery. An advance party with Jeff Bean in charge will go Saturday, June 30 to make ready for the boys who will leave on Monday.

First Ore Car Shipped—The first carload of ore for the Sumpter smelter to arrive over the main line of the O. W. R. & N. is in the Baker yards. The car has 50 tons of ore from the Bay Horse mine on the Snake River and is the first of the regular shipments of ore to be coming through to Sumpter from that mine. The Bay Horse mine will ship two cars of the ore per week to the smelter for the present. The ore will be unloaded at the sampling works of the smelter company in Baker, run through the sampler and reloaded on Sumpter valley cars. It will make three cars on the narrow gauge road. Reports coming from the Bay Horse mine are to effect that recent development work is opening up more and better ore than has been encountered in the lower workings.—Haker Herald

Farmers are Haying—The harvesting of wheat has around the edges of the big grain fields in "matina" county is beginning to be rather general now. Several farmers started last week, and the movement to open up fields with binders is general this week. Alfalfa harvest has been under way for about two weeks, but the alfalfa men are faced with a peculiar situation in that they have one crop cut and cocked, and the second crop is getting pretty old before they can stack the first cutting. The rain has caused the delay and some losses.—Pendleton Oregonian.

Home From Trip—Mr. and Mrs. Al. Andrews and Mrs. John Theison returned home last night after a seven day tour through the state, covering 1648 miles in the seven days. The members of the party report a splendid time and had the luck to spend a few hours with the former La Grande City manager O. A. Kratz, now business manager of the city of Astoria, and were also entertained by Captain Roper who anchored them through the vessels now anchored at Astoria. "We also visited Ray Logan and I am glad to say that Ray is getting along fine and Mr. Andrews said that you know my weakness for sports and fishing, so I just had to make a stop and fish on the stream that is known so well as the McKinzie river and I will tell the world that the fishing of Union county is just as good and you can catch just as big ones right here at home."

TO OUR STAGE-DRIVER.
 Your pardon, sir, but good intent was all that I essayed to speak. Not ridicule and merriment To cloud a gay auspicious week. Perhaps a word was misapprehended, but still I only meant respect To those whose dreams were not denied.—
 Whose wagon trains lie bleached and wrecked.
 —By Wilbur Shaw, La Grande.

BRITISH STUDY PROPOSAL ON 12-MILE LIMIT

 dumped overboard and almost 4000 bottles of wine were carted away to government warehouses. The beer was poured out instead of seized on request of the ship's officers, in order to save the kegs.
 After breaking the seals on the Oedipus wine room the officials carted away 7391 bottles of beer, 90 bottles of spirits and 27 bottles of assorted liquors. Officers said they had received no word as to what action their lie would take.
 Dr. E. K. Surague, United States public health officer here, who issues permits for medicinal liquor aboard foreign liners, Tuesday opened a special office in the customs house to facilitate this work. Six other vessels are waiting with excess liquors, and several more are expected this week.

Japanese Ship Raided.
 HONOLULU, June 27.—United States customs officers here Tuesday seized and removed 292 quarts of liquor from the Toyo Kisen Kabushiki liner Korea Maru. The Korea Maru was the first Japanese vessel to arrive here since the new rules governing supplies of liquor on board ships became effective.

PEPPY LECTURE MAKES BIG HIT

 home life, school life and church life with that end in view. To clean house at a community is the whole solution. "Character building is the greatest thing in the entire community because what is more important than the building of the youthful character so that it will follow rightful channels," he concluded.
 Mr. Gates' lecture was applauded energetically by those in attendance and, in addition to touching upon the high points of his subject, he kept a steady stream of wit playing upon his audience that served to keep their attention throughout. His speech was considered by many to have been the best delivered during chautauqua week.
 Lot's Pacific Serenaders, handicapped by the absence of one of their members, furnished musical preludes both in the afternoon and evening.
 This afternoon the Sprague players are making their first appearance in "Rough Diamonds" which is to be followed by a lecture, "The China of Today," by Paul Fung. "The Bubble," a three act comedy drama which was played in New York, will form the evening program.
 Tomorrow the Marine Maids will furnish evening entertainment with a singing program and on Friday evening, the closing day of the chautauqua, the La Grande Municipal Band, with assistance from the Union County Chamber of Commerce quartette and Stuart Bennett, will stage a musical program.
 Plan Old Time Wedding.
 Next Friday evening after the bath concert at the park, as a final wind-up of the chautauqua, there is going to be a most elaborate old-fashioned wedding at the park. Mrs. T. J. Scroggin and Mrs. Ray Murphy are the committee in charge, and the gowns the ladies are wearing around town will be displayed and the event gives promise of a regular fashion show of 1845.
 Just who the principal participants will be has not been announced yet, but any one who will participate are asked to call either Mrs. Scroggin or Mrs. Murphy. A call is also out for as many small girls in costumes as they can get. Further particulars will be issued tomorrow.

PRESIDENT TALKS ABOUT TAX MENACE

 all over the world as one of the most notable and successful fiscal accomplishments ever recorded." He added that aside from reducing the burden of American taxpayers, the settlement had been one of the "most reassuring events since the armistice," coming as it did at a time of "widespread uncertainty and misgiving throughout the world of business everywhere."
 To the budget bureau Mr. Harding attributed much of the credit for getting government expenditures back to something like normal. Under this plan, he declared, the administration has been able to "awaken a spirit of economy and efficiency in the public service."
 "We have introduced business methods in government," he added, "and instead of operating blindly and to suit individual departments which have never visualized the government as a whole, and felt no concern about the raising of funds, we are scrutinizing, justifying, coordinating, and not only halting mounting cost, but making long strides in reducing the cost of government activities."
 "Perhaps the budget system would not accomplish so much for taxing and spending divisions smaller than the state, but a resolute commitment to strike at all extravagance and expand public funds as one would for himself in his personal and business affairs," he said.

 "Take the costs of state government," he said, "I am informed that the revenues of the states in 1913 aggregated $365,000,000, and that in 1921 they had increased to $555,000,000; that is, they had increased 161 per cent, and every dollar of that increase had to come in some way or other from the public. The expenditures of the state in 1913 aggregated $382,000,000, and in 1921 they were $1,065,000,000; an increase of 163 per cent. The indebtedness of the states in 1913 amounted to $423,000,000 and in 1921 to $1,012,000,000, an increase of 139 per cent.

 "Turn now to the cost of city government. The census bureau has compiled data on the governments of 227 of the large cities. It is shown that those cities in 1913 collected $59,000,000 in all revenues, and in 1921 they collected $1,287,000,000; that is, they were compelled to take 75 per cent more in taxes in 1921 than they had taken in 1913. The same group of cities expended in 1913, $1,010,000,000 and in 1921, $1,726,000,000—an increase of 71 per cent. The total debt of this group of cities in 1913 was $2,391,000,000, which by 1921 had risen to $4,284,000,000—an increase of 45 per cent.
 "County administration appears from the rather limited information which at this time the census authorities have been able to produce, to have shown a much larger proportionate increase in cost and tax collections than did the government of cities.
 "There is but one way for the community finally to get back on its feet, and that is to go seriously about paying its debts and reducing its expenses. That is what the world must face. The greatest and highest government must face it, and so must the humblest citizen.

 "If I could urge upon the American people a single rule applicable to every one of them, it would be to learn to spend somewhat less than your income all the time. If you have debts, reduce them as rapidly as you can; if you are one of the fortunate few who have no debts, make it a rule to save something every hour.
 "Keep your eye everlastingly on those who administer your government; your state, your national government. Make them understand that you are apprising the rule of thrift and savings in your personal affairs, and require them to apply it in their management of your public affairs. If they fail, find other public servants who will succeed. If they succeed, give them such encouragement and inspiration as will be represented by a full measure of hearty appreciation for their efforts."

Suffered After Every Meal for 10 Years

"Tania has done so much for me that I would not say of my way to tell anyone suffering as I did about it." recently said William C. Jensen, 1232 W. 25th Street, San Angeles, Calif.
 "For years I couldn't eat without agonizing for hours afterward. Gas would always form on my stomach and press around my heart. That alone made me miserable, but I would almost double up in a knot from the sharp pains that struck me in the stomach. I had dizzy spells and headaches, too, and never felt like working."
 "Tania was suggested as the one medicine that would put me back on my feet, and six bottles have done that very thing. All my troubles are gone now. I always feel fine and go to work as though I never had been in a day of my life. I'll never begrudge the money I spent for Tania."
 Tania is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 27 million bottles sold.
 Tania Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Adv.
