which were grown on their grounds, and the same colors were carried out in the lace and china.

The guests departed at a late hour, all declaring the evening to be one of the most pleasant events of the season.

Miss Irma Puckett, who has been visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Oxner for the past few days, left this morning for her home in Union by car.

A party was given Monday evening by Miss Julia Hopkins for all Standard Oil employees. The evening was spent in playing "500" and in social converse.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Albert, Mr. and Mrs. Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Leubetter, Beth Hesse, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Webb, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Strickler, Earl Fleene, Robert Carrey.

Miss Penny Cowan, of Pendleton, became the bride of Leonard M. Rogers of La Grande, at a wedding this morning at the Christian parsonage, with Rev. W. A. Gressman, pastor, officiating.

The ring ceremony was used. The bride was attractive in a white frock, and her bouquet was of sweet peas. Miss Ruby Crow was maid of honor and Vern Mell was best man. Mr. and Mrs. Rogers will make their home in La Grande.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

At a double wedding ceremony at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage at noon today, Miss Ruby Shirley of La Grande became the bride of William B. Graham, of Hermiston, and Miss Hattie May Graham, sister of Mr. Graham, was married to King-ley LeRoche Bundy, of Portland. Rev. John H. Snow, pastor, officiated for the two ceremonies.

Guests were Miss Ruby Crow, Vern Mell, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Rogers and L. M. Rogers.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

One of the most delightful of early summer events occurred Thursday and Friday afternoons, when Mrs. H. J. Green and her sister, Mrs. Ed. Ward, entertained at bridge parties. Decorations consisted of yellow and white, the color scheme being carried out in flowers.

The first day Mrs. Charles Binger won first prize, Mrs. Grover Grinnett second, and Mrs. Bingham of Imbler consolation.

The second day Mrs. Lee Boury carried high score, Mrs. August Stange second, and Mrs. Claude Sernaton consolation.

Printed Voile.
London.—Printed voile today is extremely fashionable for summer wear. One afternoon frock of pale green crepe de chine was intersected with bands of Assyrian printed voile and had a short, loose coat, also of the voile.

Natty Bathing Suit.
New York.—One of the new bathing suits shown here today is a slip-on of printed terry cloth in brilliant shades of green, blue and yellow. It has a candarin coat to match, this comfortable garment reaching to the knees.

Unusual Veil Arrangement.
New York.—The bride at a recent smart wedding wore an unusual diadem arrangement of her veil. There was a wide band of lace and orange blossoms across the forehead. Above each ear the veil was held in place by a knot of orange blossoms, above which rose two wire, wisp-like peaks of lace.

Pearls "In" Again.
New York.—Pearls, which for a time yielded place to beads of brighter hue, are "in" again. Their return is due in great part to weddings and graduations, with their white gowns. Nothing looks more appropriate with a gown of white or cream than rosy or creamy pearls.

Highly Colored Shoes.

No Yawk—Highly colored shoes are popular, but the very fashionable woman is today selecting shoes of less striking shades. Her choice falls upon field mouse, champagne and various summery tints of gray.

When the Water Boils

An overheated engine not only indicates the need of oil, water, or mechanical adjustment to prevent damage—it is a "fire signal" that should not be ignored. Keep the engine cool—the gasoline, wood and cloth in your car are easily ignited.

There are other common causes of fire, some of which cannot be easily detected. Even a minor blaze in your car or garage means an outlay of cash for repairs. It is wise to insure your car against such loss.

A wedding of exceptional interest to La Grande people occurred Thursday evening at four o'clock, when Rev. William Crosby Ross of the Presbyterian church united in marriage, Miss Julia Hopkins, and Mr. Robert Carrey, at the home of the bride on Second street.

The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white crepe de chine and lace, and her going-away gown was of fawn colored crepe de chine.

The home was attractive with decorations of pink roses, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in all details.

The guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Turkey, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Warnick, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Oxner.

The bride is a daughter of G. C. Hopkins, former owner of the Blue Mountain creamery. Mr. Carrey is from Walla Walla, and for some time has been employed by the Standard Oil company of this city.

The happy couple were presented with a Dodge roadster by the father of the bride, and they left on a two-weeks wedding trip to Walla Walla, Seattle and Portland.

As a final close to the two-day L. D. S. convention which is being held in La Grande, a program will be presented tomorrow evening at 7:30 in the Tabernacle by the M. I. A. which gives promise of being very good.

Reports from the late Salt Lake convention will be given by S. F. Andrews, Howard Stoddard, Mrs. George R. Lyman and C. J. Black; a vocal solo "Ave Marie" (Pietro Mascagni) will be sung by Miss Phosia Humphreys; a male quartet will give a selection; the La Grande choir will sing "Calvary," featuring a solo by Mrs. G. A. Bean, and the choir will sing the closing anthem.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

A number of ladies pleasantly surprised Mrs. L. H. Ramelhart Wednesday afternoon at her home, the occasion being her 72nd birthday anniversary. The afternoon was spent in a social way and ice cream and cake were served. Mrs. Ramelhart received the best wishes of all the visiting guests.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Williams of Chicago, Illinois, are visiting their old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Coombs of May Park.

Their son-in-law, A. G. Cox, is a partner in the Wigley, P. K. Gum company of Chicago. They are touring the western country, and have traveled 10,000 miles. They started from Chicago, Illinois, in May, spending three months in Pasadena, California. In Mexico they visited all the interesting points on the route, and are now returning home, which they hope to reach in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams were very much pleased with La Grande and surrounding country, in spite of the
