Appreciation---

Ever stop to think that it wasn't so doggone long ago that this neck of the woods was called the "wilderness?" Ever stop to think that it wasn't so long ago that thousands of pioneers suffered to put this end of the U. S. A. on the map? Here's a chance to even up and fulfill the visions they had. Attend the show on the hill near Meacham July 3 and 4. All the gravy goes to the "Old Oregon Trail" committee to put us on the map. We've got some little wagon road 'round these parts and it's time, "We'll tell the world," that if they haven't been over the "Old Oregon Trail," they-ve never taken a real journey through a real he-man's land.
