"The Glimpses of the Moon"
Filmed at Great Expense

Allan Dwan, famous as the producer of "Robin Hood," has done remarkable work in his first Paramount picture, "The Glimpses of the Moon," adapted from Edith Warton's novel, which is the feature at the Arcade Theatre today and Saturday. With Bebe Daniels, Nita Naldi, Rubye de Remer, David Powell, Maurice Costello and Charles Gerrard in the cast and an exceedingly costly investiture, this picture is one of the most effective and elaborate screen society dramas thus far presented to the public. Director Dwan has produced "The Glimpses of the Moon," with the same lavish hand that fashioned "Robin Hood" for Douglas Fairbanks.

The Paramount studio was taxed to its capacity for this production. More than three-quarters of a million dollars' worth of properties, consisting of costly jewelry, expensive hangings, rare oil paintings, and antique furnishings were used to give the picture the rich flavor called for in Mrs. Wharton's novel. In the settings of wealth and splendor, made for this picture at heavy expense, Director Dwan has woven a dramatic story of the love of Susy Branch and Nick Lansing and the troubles they encounter in trying to keep pace with their millionaire friends. Mr. Dwan has transferred to the screen the picture of sophisticated society people in their highest and lowest moments which Mrs. Wharton so cleverly put between the pages of her book.

SHERRY'S LAST DAY TODAY

Seldom do motion picture enthusiasts find such an all-star cast as that in the Charles Giblyn production, "A Woman's Woman," and certain it is that theatre goers are in for a rare treat from the first to the very end of this photoplay.

In the first place there is Mary Alden in the leading feminine role. That in itself is almost enough, but when it is explained that Miss Alden is seen at her very best in her very own type of character, the quality of the entertainment is made doubly certain.

In the role of the woman, who after twenty years of marriage finds herself but an unpaid domestic drudge for her husband and family, and is seeking a way out, Miss Alden never gave a better example of her splendid artistry. In all the varying phrases of the heroine's life, from the time she decides to cease being merely a home maker and permit her long submerged ideals to have free rein, to the point of her greatest triumph—a triumph which is shattered by the crash of the family that has gone on the rocks without her wise and efficient management, and on to the crisis which forces her again to sacrifice and again to take up woman's martyrdom, Miss Alden never falters in presenting a character so real that it seems as an actually living and breathing personality.

SAGE TEA KEEPS YOUR HAIR DARK

When Mixed With Sulphur It Brings Back Its Beautiful Lustre At Once

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the recipe at home or get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," which is merely the old-time recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients. Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully, besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.

CHAPLIN DROPS DERBY FOR MINISTERIAL HAT

Enter Charles Chaplin in the pulpit!

The inimitable comedian has been a tramp, a soldier and a dude on the screen, but now he blossoms forth in the full regalia of a parson.

In "The Pilgrim," the First National picture which will be shown at the Star theater Saturday and Sunday, he discards his battered derby and swagger cane of other film triumphs for the clerical hat and frock.

Charles' ministerial garb is stolen property, however, for he portrays an escaped convict who exchanges his prison stripes for the clothing of an unsuspecting parson in swimming.

The complications which ensue when an eloping couple endeavor to get "The Pilgrim" to marry them, and when he is unwittingly forced into the pulpit by a chain of extraordinary circumstances, are among the most ludicrous ever screened.

"The Pilgrim," like all of the comedian's starring vehicles, was written and directed by Chaplin himself. It is a feature production in four reels, and, according to preview reports, rivals that screen classic, "The Kid."

Tea-time is Sandwich time

Jelly Sandwiches
For the sweet sandwich—which serves nicely for a dessert—use marmalade, jam, jelly or any conserve not too liquid. Here's a suggestion:
Spread buttered slices with currant jelly and sprinkle with chopped English walnut meats. Trim crusts and cut slices in half, diagonally.

Tea and light sandwiches make a pleasant bracer to tide you over until the evening meal is served. Chat goes so well over the tea-cups that everywhere tea-time has come to be the most popular hour for informal friendly hospitality.

Make your tea sandwiches dainty both in size and kind, without crusts. Fillings should be smooth and delicate, preferably of lettuce and mayonnaise, watercress, chopped olives, minced chicken or turkey. Here is something new that will appeal:

Savory Sandwiches
Blanch almonds, and brown one-half cup in cooking oil placed in a skillet. Chop fine. Season well with salt and paprika and add two tablespoons of chopped pickles and one tablespoon chopped chutney. Cream one large cream cheese and spread on thin slices of Bread. Sprinkle with the almond mixture and press top slice of Bread into place. Cut in triangle shapes.

The tastiest sandwiches are made with
Superfine Milk Bread
It is a delicious eat-y loaf, rich in the flavor and nutrition that satisfies. Ask your grocer.
