

Gingham Frocks To Nice for Vacations

The smartest of checks—the most attractively combined colors we've had—trimmings that are "different"—new little ways of using organdy and touches of hand-work. Ideal suggestions for the vacation or general summer wear at home. Mina Taylor and others.

A Good Place to Trade

Society

A social event of exceptional interest to La Grande ladies occurred yesterday afternoon at Honan hall when one of the largest and most enjoyable bridge parties of the season was given, with Mrs. Grover Grinnett, Mrs. L. M. Hoyt, Mrs. Clyde Kiddle and Mrs. Lloyd Pierce hostesses.

Woodcraft met in Engle's hall, with Mrs. Ferguson present to direct the work, and after the regular business routine, a social hour was enjoyed. The lodge meets every second and fourth Tuesday of each month.

A number of ladies called at the home of Mrs. P. S. Robinson at her home on Fourth street Monday night, and enjoyed a most pleasant social evening. At an appropriate hour refreshments were served.

Word has been received in La Grande by Mrs. Mary L. Council from Los Angeles, stating that her daughter, Miss Louisa Council, was married June 26 to Howard C. Cloyes of Los Angeles. Miss Council is very well known in the Grande Ronde Valley, having been born and reared here. She graduated from this La Grande high school in 1915 and taught several terms of school here prior to her removal to California three years ago. She also graduated from the San Jose Normal school June 22 of this year. Mr. Cloyes' former home was Payette, Idaho, where his parents still reside, he having been a resident of California the past three years, where he has been attending a photographic school the past year. He was an aviator during the World War, but was never sent overseas owing to poor health. Their wedding is the culmination of a courtship begun five years ago, when both were patients in a hospital.

Their wedding was very quiet, it being held at a Methodist parsonage. The double ring ceremony was used. After a few days spent at the beach they will make their home in Los Angeles where Mr. Cloyes has a photograph gallery.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Loney, accompanied by Mr. Loney's mother of Walla Walla, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Dunning.

Mrs. J. N. Stevens and daughter, Mrs. Lowell Korn, were visitors here today on route from Portland to Cove. They are making the trip by motor—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Mrs. J. T. Richardson pleasantly entertained the members of the Monday Bridge club at her home on Penn Avenue Monday afternoon in the form of a porch party. Bouquets of beautiful roses adorned the rooms of the home. At bridge Mrs. Peter McDonald won high score, and consolation fell to Mrs. William Ash. The afternoon closed with the serving of a delicious luncheon.

num of La Grande. Miss Hudson attended high school here and was graduated in 1920. The wedding date has not yet been set. The couple will make their home in La Grande where Mr. Faroum is employed by the State Highway Department—Pendleton East Oregonian.

At a ceremony at the Presbyterian manse yesterday, Miss Clara B. Starnor of La Grande, formerly of Pendleton, became the bride of Glen R. Despain of Pendleton.

Rev. George L. Clark, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony and the ring service was used. The bride wore a pretty frock of rose and white, and her costume was completed by a bouquet of delicate sweet peas.

Miss Etta Piessol was maid of honor and others who were present at the wedding were Mrs. Cora Clark and La Vernon Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Despain will make their home in this city—Pendleton East Oregonian.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Peacock, at Pendleton, last Thursday, when their niece, Miss Josephine Sanders became the bride of Mr. C. O. Harrison, of that city. The bride was dressed in fawn crepe and was attended by her sister, Ruth Sanders, who wore a pretty gown of green crepe. Robert Peacock acted as best man.

After the wedding ceremony a reception was held at the Peacock home, where only immediate relatives and friends gathered for the occasion.

Mrs. Harrison was a graduate of the local school, and finished a year of successful teaching in the Pendleton schools the past term. While in

The Straight Lines of the New Modes Are Gracefully Achieved By Wearing "La Camille"

Front Lace Corsets
Never have the styles called so insistently for lines that are straight and slender. "La Camille" works wonders in gently persuading surplus flesh into fashion's silhouette—makes your gown a smooth-fitting success. You'll love the new models of "La Camille"—giving you the lines and buoyancy of youth. Low-topped and of dainty fabrication—lightly boned—but visible only in their benefits. Be fitted to your individual model of "La Camille" and enjoy a youthful figure and a flexible ease that is delightful. A complete line of the latest models always on hand.

Everywhere—Royal Cords
United States Tires are Good Tires

THE growing number of Royal Cord Clinchers you see on the roads gives an idea of how many car owners there are who want the best tire money can buy. There weren't near enough Clincher Royals to go around last year.

This year—even with the production more than doubled—you can best be sure of them by taking them at the moment.
