LEAH LEASKA IS NOW MRS. GREGG

PORTLAND, July 11.—Leah Leaska, dramatic soprano, who is known throughout the northwest for her singing, stole a march on her friends yesterday and eloped to Vancouver, Wash., with Earl M. Gregg, Portland automobile man and University of Oregon graduate.

The two were married there at 1:20 yesterday afternoon, with Dr. W. Park Richardson and Miss May Wilson as witnesses.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg, who were at 294 East Thirty-fifth street last night, where Mr. Gregg has been staying, announced that they would make their home in Portland. They said that they did not know as yet just where it would be.

"Yes, it was an elopement," admitted the bride. "My family didn't know anything about it and all my friends were surprised."

Mrs. Gregg was recently in the limelight as a result of having been selected to be the soloist at the celebration at Meacham for President Harding. She recently returned from New York city.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. I. Labovitch of Seattle. Her real name was Miss Leah Cohen, the name Leaska having been chosen for her professional career.

MAXWELL, CHALMERS BUSINESS IS LIVELY

A. T. Stanton, Director of Services, Maxwell Motor Corporation and Chalmers Motor Car Company, who recently returned from an extended trip in the South, reports a lively business by Maxwell and Chalmers dealers visited, according to word received by C. W. Bunting, local Maxwell dealer.

"Notwithstanding apprehension as to the cotton crop in Georgia and South Carolina," Mr. Stanton stated, "there is no let-up in sales."

"Florida dealers particularly are enjoying a truly remarkable closed car business. At no point did I find any accumulation of used cars in the hands of our dealers."

"I gained two very definite impressions during my trip.

"One is the solid mass of faith, loyalty and confidence in the new Maxwell-Chalmers manufacturing and sales organizations as well as a keen appreciation of the earning power of our franchise."

"The other impression is that the Maxwell Flat rate Guaranteed Service plan has been as eagerly and as readily accepted by the small dealer as the large one. This occasion no surprise because the system is laid out in such a simple and thoroughly workable manner as to immediately effect shop economies, produce legitimate profits and directly increase new car sales."

15,000 INSPECT HOMES.

(By the Associated Press) SPOKANE, July 11.—Nearly fifteen thousand people visited and inspected two homes used as models during Spokane's recent "Better Homes Week," according to Mrs. Grace B. Beckman, who had charge of the campaign.

"They sought new ideas, plans and color schemes, either for immediate or for future use," she said. "It is hard to compute the dollars and cents value of such an awakening and urge for the better things of life among our citizens."
