Never Ask a Kiddie What He Wants for Lunch!—Serve

Kindergarten Sandwiches

They make every lunch a "surprise." With some fancy-shaped cutters in the kitchen and this recipe your boy will eat his way to rosy cheeks and stalwart health, and find delight in every bite:

Cut white Bread and dark graham Bread in thin slices. Shape with cutters having two pieces each of white and of graham Bread of the same shape. Lightly spread half of the Bread, with well creamed butter. With smaller fancy shaped cutter, remove centers from unbuttered graham and white pieces.

Place graham Bread centers in white Bread rims and white Bread centers in graham Bread rims. Place decorated pieces with white rim on the corresponding piece of graham Bread and the decorated pieces with graham rim on corresponding pieces of white Bread.

For a variety use cutters that are square, oblong, triangular, elliptical, fluted or cutlet shape. For the centers use tiny rounds, or animal, flower, or other fancy shaped cutters. A circle of dark and one of white Bread may be cut diagonally three times and one-half the sections of bread.

Add a juicy orange or rosy apple, and you have a hearty, well-balanced lunch.

Of course, to get perfect sandwiches, you must start with perfect Bread—the wholesome rich flavored loaf that assures vigor as well as enjoyment. That's

KEEPING CHILDREN ON THE FARM

Milwaukee Sentinel: Twenty boys and girls of Wisconsin are given certificates of merit by the Wisconsin Bankers' association for successfully completing four years of practical farming work and at the same time maintaining banking connections.

This is part of a country wide movement to interest the youth of the land in the greatest of industries, agriculture, and demonstrate to them that all the opportunities are not in the cities. All of these children successfully marketed their products and, no doubt, built up a bank balance in excess of what they believed possible.

That is a practical way of showing the youths that there is money to be made on the farm. However, the work does not stop there. Efforts are devoted to instructing these children in a broader way, showing them what is to be gained by adopting business methods, by crop rotation, all to the end that future generations of farmers may have an easier life and a handsomer reward.

The rush to the cities is becoming a serious problem, leaving the agricultural districts short not only of workers, but of leadership, which is almost as vital.

Helping and stimulating the work of the boys' and girls' clubs in Wisconsin and throughout the country may be the initial step toward solution of one of the gravest of problems.

Do you wish to see a good, human story about real folks—a story that actually mirrors life, your life and the life of your neighbors? Do you wish to see a picture that will make you say, "I know a woman just like that," or "The author must have known a man like my son or my husband?" Then drop in at the Arcade theatre today or Saturday and see "Heart's Haven." Benj. B. Hampton's latest production and the newest Hoodlum release.

In "Heart's Haven" the hero does not make a million, but he does win out over all his difficulties. The heroine does not marry a title but she does mate with the man she loves.

Carl Gantvoort, whose popularity has been won as the hero of western drama, shows his versatility in a new type of part, as the hero of every day life.

Claire Adams scores a success as the lovely and suffering heroine who meets with an accident and is finally cured by an act of faith.

"Heart's Haven" also shows in sharp contrast two mother—the right kind and the wrong kind of mother. The right kind happens to be also a mother-in-law. If this seems almost a contradiction, ask yourself this question: Why do the stage and screen always depict a mean mother-in-law? Why is she always the butt of coarse jokes? Is this fair, considering the number of nice, sweet, comfortable and comforting mothers who are giving their lives in devotion to married children?

Claire McDowell as "May Caroline" does justice to the real mother we know in life. The fine spiritual quality of Miss McDowell's acting makes the personality of "May Caroline" a lovely and lovable character.

Betty Brice, the clever character actress, known behind the footlights as "Rosetta Brice," is the far from angelic daughter-in-law. She is the wife who thinks that marriage means give and take. You give and I take. The cast, like all Hampton productions, is an all-star group of leading and character players including Robert McKim, Jean Hersholt, Betty Brice, Frank Hayes, Aggie Herring, Harry Lorraine and the very famous child actors, Frankie Lee and Mary Jane Irving.

A late Fox News reel is also on the program.

ACTION STORY TAKES MIX ACROSS PACIFIC

Tom Mix has added the working schedule of a stoker in the hold of a Pacific tramp steamer to his movie experiences. In his latest picture, "Stepping East," Mix is shanghaied and forced to pass coal for his passage to China, where he meets with a series of thrilling dramatic situations.

This picture, which was produced by William Fox, comes to the Star theatre Saturday and Sunday.

Mix plays the role of a young hunchman who is captured by a band of criminals because he possesses the secret of the location of a gold mine hidden in the Arizona desert. After being thrown into the waters of San Francisco Bay, he is picked up by the crew of a tramp steamer and forced to work his way to China, where he again meets the gang. With the aid of some American sailors, Mix and the daughter of the scientist who discovered the mine fight their way out of a Chinese den and start back to the States.

Olivia Fires a Double-Header

Olivia, what happened between you and that young man you were talking to?

I told him his brother looked like a sap, and he got sore.

I don't wonder that he got peeved.

No—and they're twin brothers.

How do you know? Have you ever met my brother?

Yes several times—I've danced with him—I think he looks like a sap.

Oh is that so? Well, that for you miss smarty!

I don't care for candy!
