A Brooklyn preacher declared that Christians should drop everything for the church. And while in the dropping process they should include something into the collection plate.

Modern science can magnify one voice to sound like a million. And when the roar of a million is reduced to the sound of one, we'll be getting somewhere.

Many young men nowadays are often heard to remark something along this line: "Well, I am not going to work all day. Pretty soon I'll marry some girl whose daddy don't know what to do with his dough, and then it'll be easy sledding."

But all young men with such Meas had better see "Your Friend" at the Sherry theatre today only before being too sure of their prospects.

In this picture, Wallace Reid appears as Billy Deering, a young man who wanted to marry Helen Rogers, daughter of Gordon Rogers, millionaire railroad owner. When young Billy broached the question to father, he got in answer the shocking proposition that he must work three months without being paid before the necessary consent would be given, and that in the meantime daughter mustn't know of the arrangement.

Billy, giving business as an excuse to Helen, sets out to fulfill what is now his main mission in life. It might be said that he bets the girl at the finish of the story, but not without a lot of adventures that promise to keep any audience laughing. By living up to dad's requirements he almost lost the love of the girl, but an exciting incident and a lot of explaining at the finish, ties things up with all parties concerned.

James Cruze directed and Frank Urson is responsible for the excellent photography. The picture was adapted from an original story by O. Henry. Included in the cast are Wanda Hawley, Henry Woodward, Theodore Roberts, Lillian Mason, Herbert Pryor, Raymond Hatton and other well known players.

A real comedy is also being shown.

STEPPING EAST WITH TOM MIX THROUGH LIVELY ACTION FILM

Tom Mix scored official qualification as a champion trick automobile racer in his latest William Fox offering, "Stepping East," which opens today at the Star theatre for a two day run.

In this highly charged melodrama of astounding thrills and sweet romance, Tom enlists the U. S. A. and China for his excitement locale. He and the lovely heroine escape from a dungeon in darkest China, when Tom lassoes a mouse and ties a "help message" around its neck and puts it out the window. Back across the Pacific they dash in a speedy yacht and race the blackguards to the hidden treasure.

Here it is that the versatile Tom qualifies as a champion trick racer. The heavy, on horseback, attempts a get-away, but Tom, flinging himself into his prize racer, corners him by an extraordinary skillful and scientific exhibition of driving. The day is saved, the heroine won, and Tom smiles broadly for the final happy close-up—the first he has found time for during the run of the picture.

The supporting cast is headed by Claire Adams, leading lady, who is a charming foil for the lively star. The others in the cast include: Donald McDonald, Hector Sarno, Edward Bell, George Seigmund, Tom S. Guise and Ethel Wales.

CIRCUS COMING! GLADYS WALTON IS FEATURED ACT

When a small town decorates itself for a holiday it does it with entire abandon. And circus day is one of the biggest holidays of the year to the folks who live in or near a small town.

Such an occasion is portrayed realistically in "Sawdust," the Universal attraction of the Big Top starring Gladys Walton, which will be shown at the Arcade theatre Sunday only. Circus day in a small Virginia town, embracing everything that goes to make up a true picture of a village under the magic spell of the Big Top is shown in the play.

Mrs. Walton has the role of Nita, the tight-rope walker, around whom the threads of the story are woven.

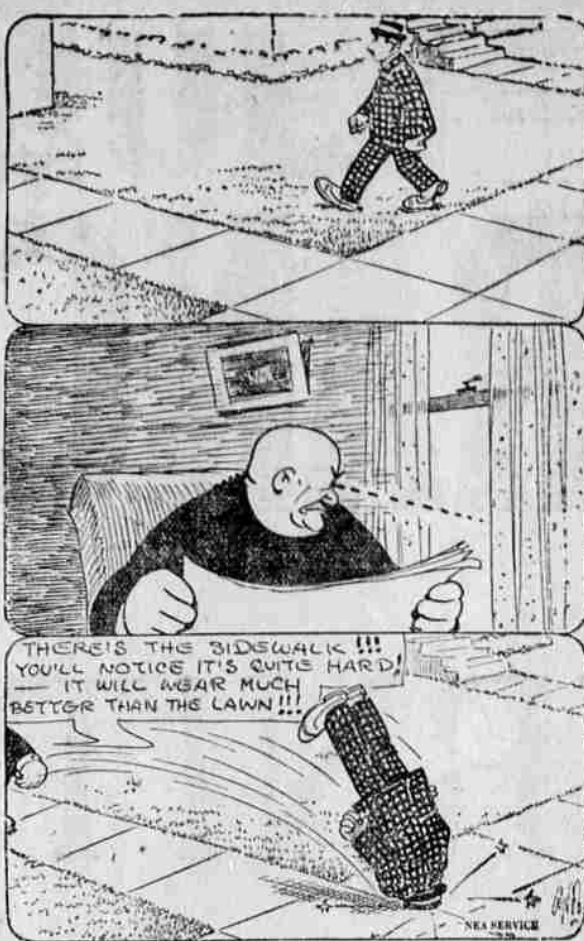

ITCHING ECZEMA DRIED RIGHT UP BY THIS SULPHUR

Any breaking out of the skin, even fiery, itching eczema, can be quickly overcome by applying a little Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, this sulphur preparation instantly brings ease from skin irritation, soothes and heals the eczema right up and leaves the skin clear and smooth.

It seldom fails to relieve the torment and disfigurement. Sufferers from skin trouble should get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur from any good druggist and use it like a cold cream.

and the part affords her an opportunity to display her athletic skill, as well as her dramatic ability. The picture presents her in her strongest role, perhaps, since her appearance in "Pink Tights," another story of circus life in which she scored a tremendous hit.

"Sawdust" was written by Courtney Riley Cooper and adapted to the screen by Harvey Gates. Mr. Cooper has been long associated with one of the biggest circuses in the country and has put much of the spirit and atmosphere of the life with which he is so familiar into the story.

The picture retains the flavor of the original story and has a deep sympathetic appeal. It was produced under the direction of Jack Conway.

A two reel Century Comedy will be shown by Harvey Gates. Mr. Cooper on the program also.

Never Ask a Kiddie What He Wants for Lunch!—Serve

Kindergarten Sandwiches

They make every lunch a "surprise." With some fancy-shaped cutters in the kitchen and this recipe your boy will eat his way to rosy cheeks and stalwart health, and find delight in every bite:

Cut white Bread and dark graham Bread in thin slices. Shape with cutters having two pieces each of white and of graham Bread of the same shape. Lightly spread half of the Bread, with well creamed butter. With smaller (fancy shaped) cutter, remove centers from unbuttered graham and white pieces.

Place graham Bread centers in white Bread rims and white Bread centers in graham Bread rims. Place decorated pieces with white rim on the corresponding piece of graham Bread and the decorated pieces with graham rim on corresponding pieces of white Bread.

For a variety use cutters that are square, oblong, triangular, elliptical, fluted or outlet shapes. For the centers use tiny rounds, or animal, flower, or other fancy shaped cutters. A circle of dark and one of white Bread may be cut diagonally three times and one-half the sections of each color to put together alternately on a plain circle of bread.

Add a juicy orange or rosy apple, and you have a hearty, well-balanced lunch.

Of course, to get perfect sandwiches, you must start with perfect Bread—the wholesome rich flavored loaf that assures vigor as well as enjoyment. That's
