SHERIFF'S LAST DAY TODAY.

DON'T FOOL YOUR HUSBAND. IS THERE OF SUPERIOR PICTURE.

What is meant by "The Nth Commandment"? In the case of the Paramount-Cosmopolitan production of that title it seems to mean "Thou shalt not fool thy husband."

This picture should be interesting to all housewives. It is to be compared to "Humoresque," since the author, director and scenarist combined to create that successful production, and it is similar in its appeal. Colleen Moore, James Morrison and Eddie Phillips play the leading roles.

The story tells of a young wife, whose husband is ill and who leaves home one evening presumably to work overtime at the Mammoth department store where she is employed, to obtain the money necessary to send her husband to the country for his health. Instead, she attends a speedy Christmas Eve party given by a number of her friends.

At a cafe a sum of money is thrust into the hand of the bewildered girl by a drunken customer. In her hurry to escape she neglects to return the money and carries it home to her husband, telling him that she received it from an old society. He knows that she has not been at the store working, for he has been there to take her home, so he accepts this as a plausible excuse. The question arises, was this girl justified in deliberately telling a falsehood in order to preserve the peace of her home and perhaps save her husband's life? Was she justified in fooling her husband? You will be better able to answer this question for yourself after viewing one of the showings of this splendid picture.

Charlotte Merriam and George Cooper are included in the cast. Frank Borzage directed; Francis Hurst wrote the original story and Frances Marion made the adaptation.

Never Ask a Kiddie What He Wants for Lunch!—Serve

Kindergarten Sandwiches

They make every lunch a "surprise." With some fancy-shaped cutters in the kitchen and this recipe your boy will eat his way to rosy cheeks and stalwart health, and find delight in every bite:

Cut white Bread and dark graham Bread in thin slices. Shape with cutters having two pieces each of white and of graham Bread of the same shape. Lightly spread half of the Bread, with well creamed butter. With smaller fancy shaped cutter, remove centers from unbuttered graham and white pieces. Place graham Bread centers in white Bread rims and white Bread centers in graham Bread rims. Place decorated pieces with white rim on the corresponding piece of graham Bread and the decorated pieces with graham rim on corresponding pieces of white Bread. For a variety use cutters that are square, oblong, triangular, elliptical, fluted or outlet shape. For the centers use tiny rounds, or animal, flower, or other fancy shaped cutters. A circle of dark and one of white Bread may be cut diagonally three times and one-half the sections of each color to put together alternately on a plain circle of bread. Add a juicy orange or rosy apple, and you have a hearty, well-balanced lunch.

Of course, to get perfect sandwiches, you must start with perfect Bread—the wholesome rich flavored loaf that assures vigor as well as enjoyment. That's
