

JULY CLEARANCE SALE JULY CLEARANCE

TUESDAY ARMY GOODS DAY

- 8 to 10 A. M.—Army Blouses68c
10 to 12 A. M.—Army Trench Shoes$1.98
12 to 2 P. M.—Army Officer Blankets.....$2.95
2 to 4 P. M.—Army Mess Kits19c
4 to 6 P. M.—Army Belts19c

All Specials Withdrawn at Time of Closing. Specials Subject to Prior Sale.

Men's Wear

1309 Adams Avenue

Across from Hooverized

Next To Star

LOOK FOR TUESDAY—$2.00 DAY

Pendleton was represented among the guests at the Sommer Saturday evening by Jack Sommers.

Baker was represented among the guests at the Savoy last evening by Paul V. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fowler drove to Wallowa Lake yesterday and report a very pleasant trip.

Mr. and Mrs. John Gardiner and son of Portland, are visiting in La Grande for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lantz of Mansfield, Ohio, are the guests of Mrs. Kate Hanley for a few days.

Miss Ann Shell is in this city from Wallowa for a few days visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Bean, of Elgin are in this city today on their return from a trip to Pendleton by car.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Knowles arrived in La Grande last evening from Seattle, Washington, and expect to spend about two months here visiting relatives.

C. E. Mays drove to Baker yesterday and accompanied the Baker band on a picnic up to Sumpter, which the White Pine Lumber Company was giving.

Mrs. Mabel and Esther Saunders, of Richland, Oregon, passed through La Grande this morning on their return home from Milton where they have been visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Ingles, of St. Louis, who have been visiting here at the W. B. Pickins home left this morning for Tacoma where they will spend some time with friends.

Vincent was represented among the guests at the Foley Saturday by Mrs. C. A. Laird.

Virgil Wagner and A. J. Hebert, were among the Enterprise guests at the Foley Saturday evening.

Mrs. Ed Ford recently communicated with the Evening Observer, stating that she had reached Los Angeles. She is driving through California and made the trip to Los Angeles without any accidents. She reports a very pleasant drive.

Arlie Campbell, of Union, was among the La Grande visitors yesterday.

A. W. Johnson, who makes his home at Milton, was registered among the guests at the Foley last evening.

J. L. Soule, trustee for the George Palmer Lumber Company, was in this city last evening as a guest at the Foley.

Mrs. Charles Goebel returned to her home at Wallowa this morning after a short time spent in this city. She was registered at the Savoy.

A. L. Scriber, of Enterprise, was registered among the guests at the Sommer Saturday evening.

Mrs. G. E. Smith and Misses Audrey Woods and Beulah Thompson came from Elgin last evening on a short business trip and are stopping at the Savoy.

Steel Industry Slackens; Rail Traffic is Heavy

(Continued from page 1)

necessity for liquidation. This stealer tone was apparent in both stock and cotton.

Emphasis was also given to the reassuring character of the British statement of reparations policy.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Knowles, who are living in Seattle while Mr. Knowles completes some special work in the University of Washington, arrived in La Grande yesterday and will visit Judge and Mrs. Knowles for several weeks.

C. L. Cleaver, who makes roof paint in Pendleton and who at one time was a resident of the Grande Ronde Valley, sat high in the grand stand yesterday and rooted for the home team which played the Cove boys.

Little fresh light was shed on the probable nature of the fall buying movements. Reports from the steel industry indicate a moderate falling off in activity.

After taking Tanlac I got back on the job for the first time in four years, and a medicine that will fix a fellow up like that is certainly worth recommending.

FOREST ROAD WORK PUSHED—BAKELI, Or., July 15.—A road programme which contemplates the completion of the roads on the Whitman National forest by September is now under way, according to F. W. Staussell, supervisor.

Harvest at Walla Walla.—WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 15.—Harvesting in the valley will become general this week.

SHORT SEASON—GET THEM NOW Those Fine Large Heavy Pack Loganberries $1.74—PER CRATE—$1.74

OUR OWN PRIVATE MOTOR DELIVERY HOOVERIZED GROCERY

The Largest Chain Department Store Organization in the World

J. P. Coats Sewing Thread 5c

Milward Needles 8c

Gingham Week

Offering Nation-Wide Savings!

Fancy Colored Gingham For Summer Dresses and Aprons

Here are gingham in all colors,—tiny checks for children's rompers, gay plaids for the older girls, and pleasing patterns for Mother's house dresses.

All Good Quality Temptingly Priced

At Yd 19c These Gingham are serviceable for children's clothing and for house dresses.

At Yd 23c 32-inch H. C. S. Gingham of superior quality, sold exclusively in the J. C. Penney Co. Stores, come in checks and plaids as well as plain shades.

At Yd 31c 32-inch Amoskeag A. F. C. Gingham of fine quality, woven from selected yarns, in the best checks and plaids as well as plain colors.

At Yd 27c Amoskeag 19,000 Range Gingham, 3500 yards of this fine quality 32 inch gingham in over 90 attractive patterns, at a very low price.

At Yd 35c Renfrew Zephyr Madras in a showing of 20 patterns. A tub and sun proof colored fabric of fine texture.

For All Home Sewing Use McCALL PRINTED PATTERNS August Patterns Now Ready

The Largest Chain Department Store Organization in the World

Personal Mention

F. S. Ivanhoe, attorney of La Grande, was at the Imperial hotel yesterday—Oregonian.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis B. Veal and Russell Marquis drove to Wallowa Lake yesterday and spent the day. They found fishing in that vicinity fine.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. McRae, who make their home at Vincent, were registered at the Foley Saturday.

Miss Billie Muse was down from Wallowa Sunday on Christian Endeavor business. She returned home this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Piper were down from Wallowa on a short business trip and were stopping at the Sommer.

Mr. and Mrs. Ward Fowler drove to Wallowa Lake yesterday and report a very pleasant trip.

Doctor T. M. Gilmore and son were among the Union people in the city Sunday to witness the Cove-

La Grande ball game.

Jess Spencer, well known business man of Union, motored to the city Sunday taking in the baseball game while here.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark Rippy and daughter, Ruth, returned to their home in Baker yesterday after spending a couple of days visiting at the home of Mr. Rippy's sister, Mrs. C. B. Johnson.

C. J. Black motored to Union and High Valley this morning where he spent the day on business.

W. M. Hawkins returned home this afternoon from Union where he spent the day attending to a few business matters.

Lavonne Morris and Reid Dalton were among the Union visitors in the city Saturday.

Ed Cline and Golden Gertsen motored to the city yesterday spending several hours visiting in the city returning to their home in Union in the evening.

Miss Elida and Bethene Miller, of Union, spent Sunday in the city visiting friends.

Miss Mildred Conaway left this morning for Baker where she will visit friends for a short time.

Miss Bertha Mayott returned to her home at Union this morning after visiting relatives in this city.

Misses Fern Wells, Margaret Greasy, Dorothy Funk and Marguerite Ellis returned home this morning on No. 24 from Bingham Springs where they have been for some time on a pleasure trip.

Enterprise was represented among the guests at the Sommer Saturday night by Wade Brooks.

J. B. Norris, Mrs. E. H. Norris and daughters, Charlotte and Margaret, of New York City, stopped over in La Grande last evening on their way to Seattle, Washington. They are making the trip by car.

Miss Vallette Harer left this morning for Boise and other Idaho points where she will spend a month visiting.

Mrs. Bessie McCormick left this morning on No. 24 for Hot Lake where she will spend the day visiting her son who recently underwent an operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Knowles, who are living in Seattle while Mr. Knowles completes some special work in the University of Washington, arrived in La Grande yesterday and will visit Judge and Mrs. Knowles for several weeks.

C. L. Cleaver, who makes roof paint in Pendleton and who at one time was a resident of the Grande Ronde Valley, sat high in the grand stand yesterday and rooted for the home team which played the Cove boys.

Little fresh light was shed on the probable nature of the fall buying movements. Reports from the steel industry indicate a moderate falling off in activity.

Before Going to Wallowa Lake

Stop at our shop and get the spoons you should have. We have just the very thing you should use.

Newlin Drug Company

SHERRY'S

LAST SHOWING TODAY

The Cosmopolitan Corporation Presents

The Nth Commandment

A Cosmopolitan Production

A Paramount Picture

Another gripping real-heart story by Fannie Hurst, author of "Humoresque." Colleen Moore, James Morrison, Eddie Phillips head the cast.

Comedy

"THE NEW MAMA"

DAVID GAMBLE IS DEAD TODAY

Philanthropist and Manufacturer is Called Beyond in Cincinnati.

PASADENA, Calif., July 16.—David Gamble, 75 years of age, a member of the firm of Proctor and Gamble, soap manufacturers, of Cincinnati, died here today.

Harvest at Walla Walla.—WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 15.—Harvesting in the valley will become general this week.

On Job First Time In 4 Years; Thanks Tanlac

"After taking Tanlac I got back on the job for the first time in four years, and a medicine that will fix a fellow up like that is certainly worth recommending."

"I suffered an accident that left me in such bad shape I was completely down and out so far as work was concerned. I had no appetite, was way under weight, and had such dizzy spells I couldn't stand up and didn't dare try to climb a ladder."

"Well, Tanlac gets all the credit for my being able to follow my trade today. I gained fifteen pounds by taking it and I never have a dizzy spell any more. I eat better, sleep better and feel better than I have in over four years, and I'll tell anybody, Tanlac is simply great."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

FOREST ROAD WORK PUSHED—BAKELI, Or., July 15.—A road programme which contemplates the completion of the roads on the Whitman National forest by September is now under way, according to F. W. Staussell, supervisor.

Harvest at Walla Walla.—WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 15.—Harvesting in the valley will become general this week.