Lieutenant Forrest Ivanhoe, of the U. S. Navy, accompanied by his wife, will arrive in La Grande this evening to spend three days with Mr. Ivanhoe's mother, Mrs. A. E. Ivanhoe, and their little niece, Gracia Lou and Roberta Ivanhoe.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Ivanhoe have for the past four months been stationed in Washington, D. C., where Mr. Ivanhoe has been taking special training in his line of work. They are on their way to Mare Island where they will be for some time.

Monday evening, Dr. and Mrs. A. L. Richardson will entertain at a garden party at their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ivanhoe, previous to their departure to Mare Island.

Forrest Ivanhoe was a former La Grande boy, having graduated in the local schools. He entered the service of his country, and has risen to the rank of senior lieutenant. Mr. Ivanhoe is a young man of whom La Grande is justly proud.

The regular conjoint meeting of the M. I. A. will be held Sunday evening at 7:30 in the Auditorium of the I. D. S. tabernacle, at which time a program will be given, to which the public is cordially invited.

Howard Stoddard, who recently returned from Europe, will give a lecture on "Palestine." A violin solo by Dick Lindsey, accompanied by Miss Edris Matzinger, will be a number on the program, as will a vocal solo by Mrs. G. A. Bean, accompanied by Mr. Lindsey and Miss Matzinger. An anthem by the choir will be rendered and Miss Matzinger will play a pipe organ solo.

This program promises to be excellent, and many people of the city will take advantage of the opportunity to attend.

Miss Regina Well, who has been travelling in Europe, will arrive Sunday to visit her sister, Mrs. William Ash. Miss Well will remain for several days and then return to her home in San Francisco.

Miss Minna Ash is having a delightful time in Los Angeles, and expects to remain in the southland for a few weeks more. She wrote her parents that her time is well taken up by friends with motor parties and good times at the beaches.

Miss Anne Salley, of Portland, is visiting in La Grande, the guest of her sister, Mrs. G. L. Harrison. Miss Salley will remain in La Grande for some time.

Mrs. M. D. Brian, of Jefferson, Iowa, and Mrs. E. D. Selder, of Portland, are guests at the home of Mrs. E. E. Kiddle. They will remain two or three weeks, visiting relatives and friends in Island City and La Grande.

Mrs. Walter Reuter is entertaining the Clio Club at the Country Club this afternoon.

Last Thursday Mr. and Mrs. Harrison A. Zurbick entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Allread, of Spokane, Washington.

A beautiful crystal basket of orchid sweet peas formed the centerpiece and places were marked for eight guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Allread left Friday for their home in Spokane.

The birthday anniversary of Dr. George R. Vehrs was the motif for a most pleasant bridge dinner last evening at the Vehrs home, when Mrs. Vehrs entertained in his honor.

The guests at dinner included Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Perkins and Mr. and Mrs. Harrison A. Zurbick, with additional guests in for bridge.

Mrs. Zurbick won high score ladies' prize, and Mr. Zurbick proved himself most adept with the receiving of the gentlemen's prize.

In honor of the Misses Dorothy and Harriet Casey, who will leave next Tuesday for Portland to make their home, the Misses Irene and Louise O'Connell entertained a number of friends at their home last evening in the form of a farewell party.

Two tables of bridge were arranged, Mrs. Thomas Hill, Jr., carrying off the honors of the evening. Refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Women of Mooseheart Legion met Thursday afternoon and surprised Mrs. Jap Stevens at her home on First street.

The afternoon was spent in a social good time after which refreshments were served.

The dance at Honan hall last evening, sponsored by the Older Organization of the Girls' Campfire, was a decided success.

Japanese lanterns were used in decorating the hall, music was furnished by a three-piece orchestra, and a very good attendance was present to enjoy the event.

Refreshments of ice cream and cake were served throughout the evening at a minimum fee.

Mrs. Donald M. Pague, who has been visiting her father at Scio, Oregon, has returned home.

Mrs. Ray Murphy is recovering from a recent illness.

Donald M. Pague, after nursing an injured hand, expects to be able to resume his duties on the O.-W. within a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Watkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reynolds and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bigger and family, and Dr. and Mrs. Ray Marbury and family will leave tomorrow morning for Hayden Lake, Ida., where they expect to spend two weeks. They will be joined at Hood River by Dr. Murphy's brother, Lester Murphy, and wife.

The party are making the trip by car via Spokane, Elmer Stoddard and family and Charles Reynolds and family will go on to Banff, Canada, before returning home.

down, and on the following Sunday, the Rev. and Mrs. Creasy returned for them. While at the Springs, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis drove down from their ranch.

Mrs. R. A. Pratt and children and the Misses Fern Wells, Margaret Creasy, Margaret Ellis and Dorothy Pink made up the party, and although this was a small representation of the society, they all had a delightful time.

Bingham Springs is situated just two miles from a Ranger station, and is quite noted as an ideal spot for girls to spend their summer vacations. Hiking, swimming and fishing are the chief sports, and anyone can enjoy a vacation in this locality.

Several divisions of the Girls' Campfire from Pendleton and points in Washington spent last year's outing at Bingham, and they are expected to return this year.

Among the La Grande girls who have extraordinary vacation periods this year is Miss May Nell, daughter of Mrs. Nellie G. Nell of this city. May has been teaching in Hawaii and to while away the vacation period she decided to go over to the Philippines and inspect that portion of Uncle Sam's insular possessions.

A letter received by her mother dated in Mid-Ocean, Saturday, June 23, tells of a most delightful ocean voyage on the Pacific Mail Steamship Company's steamer, S. S. President Lincoln. The letter was hurriedly written when the passengers were advised that their ship would meet a boat bound for San Francisco that afternoon and there was an opportunity to send letters home.

She enclosed a program of entertainment on the ship for the week which is quite interesting and includes Miss Nell in musical number. In her description of a number of different passengers on board it would indicate that many interesting people are making the journey to the islands.

Instead of stopping at Yokohama on the way over she expects to continue her journey on the President Lincoln to Manila and make several stops on her return voyage.

Mrs. A. W. Schnupp was hostess to a group of her friends at her home Wednesday afternoon in honor of her sister, Mrs. George Kleinholz, of Denver. The afternoon was spent in sewing. The following ladies were present: Mesdames O. E. Patterson, E. E. Metzger, H. E. Dawson, George Dawson, Teresa Leslie, Daisy Rumbles, J. D. McCally, Chas. Johnson, C. R. Eberhard, of La Grande; O. G. Crawford, Miss Eula McCally, and Miss Eula Parish of Portland and the guest of honor, Miss Dorothy Eberhard assisted the hostess in serving.—Joseph Herald.

The Parkdale Club will meet Wednesday, July 25, with Mrs. Jay Shaw of Fruitdale.

You know why diplomats are more valuable than people? Their doubts you understand why laws no longer are respected.

"The Woman With 4 Faces"

with
BETTY COMPSON and Richard Dix

A Paramount Picture

A notorious crook—so clever she made fools of the police—so beautiful that when finally caught, the jury didn't have the heart to convict her—so charming that even the district attorney fell in love with her.

Herbert Brenon production

That's Betty Compsom in this high-class, high powered melodrama.

Also showing A Comedy.
