THEATRES

At the Star, "The Hotentot" Makes Real Hit.

"All my life I've been afraid of horses," says the man who rides "The Hotentot" to victory in a dangerous race. He fears horses more than anything else and still he wins in one of the most exciting steeplechases ever filmed. He wins both the race and the girl in the case. And he does it on sheer nerve.

Everyone thrills to deeds that dare, to chivalry courage. And that's one reason why everyone will love the character of Sam Harrington in "The Hotentot," Rhonnia H. Ince's comedy drama at the Star theatre. Sam is fearless on the seas and has braved trifles like typhoons and the wild men of the Cannibal Isles. But he's afraid of horses and admits it until suddenly he finds himself forced to ride in a horrace or lose the girl he loves and his own self-respect.

It doesn't take him long to make his choice. He may be afraid of horses but he would rather be dead than brand himself a coward. So he says to Peggy Fairfax: "I'm either going to make you look up at me and say 'Good boy, Sam,' or look down and say 'Don't he look natural!'"

"The Hotentot" furnishes laughter and excitement from beginning to end. It starts with a race between a runaway horse and an auto and ends with a unique steeplechase. The action develops into another even funnier as Sam flounders from deep water to bottomless depths.

Douglas MacLean plays the part of Sam Harrington, the role which was created for the stage by William Collier and played to packed houses, both in New York and throughout the country on tour. Raymond Hatton, as the butler, is at his best, and pretty Madge Bellamy enters herself as the winsome Peggy Fairfax, whose love for horses makes a man out of Sam.

"The Hotentot" will be the attraction at the Star Theatre until Saturday night, making way Sunday to a one day showing of Tom Mix in "The Fighting Street."

Sherry's Last Day

Case Members All Prominent

The term all-star cast, so often misapplied to pictures, is justified in characterizing the Preferred Picture "Thorns and Orange Blossoms," the feature at the Sherry theatre. Practically every artist in the production has been either studied or featured in his own right and each member of the cast has an interesting record of former achievements behind him.

Kenneth Harlan, who plays the male lead, is known to movie fans everywhere for his work with the Palmador sisters, especially in "Thorns and Orange Blossoms." He has also been seen in two famous stories this season, "A Fool There Was" and "Monte Cristo," which Edith Johnson starred in, as well as in Cecil B. DeMille's "Saturday Night."

In the supporting cast are such names as Arthur Hill, Carl Stockdale, Evelyn Selby and Frances Raymond. Hill has done a sensational work under the direction of Gannier, particularly in "Good Women." He was also seen lately in support of Gloria Swanson in "The Impossible Mr. Bellew." Carl Stockdale's is a familiar screen face, his many character parts covering every type of scene. With Jackie Coogan in "Oliver Twist," his portrayal of the boy's half brother was a foretelling one.

Evelyn Selby and Frances Raymond are also popular type actresses. The latter was in the cast of "Shadows," a picture praised by the critics among the most artistic films ever made.

American Y. M. C. A. School in Berlin Lures Refugees

BERLIN, July 27.—Forty-two hundred Russian refugees, scattered all over the earth, are taking courses in the correspondence school which the American Young Men's Christian Association is conducting in Berlin.

A hotel porter in Cairo is studying bookkeeping. Three Russians who have sought refuge in Tunis are studying farm organization. Eight refugees in Turkey are taking courses in stenography. A former Russian officer who found work in France selling steam engines is taking a course in steam engineering.

Down in the heart of China one Russian is taking a course in road building. Six Russians in Cyprus are studying radio telegraphy. A Russian in Brazil is taking machine drawing.

Bulgaria has a larger number of correspondence students than any other country, 864 in all. Most of these are studying mathematics, but there are also many there who are taking courses in farm organization and bookkeeping, and 127 Russians in that country are taking electro-technics.

Eight Russians in the United States are taking courses from the Berlin school, most of them mathematical courses. But Bulgaria, Rumania, Jugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Germany, the countries where the greatest number of Russian refugees are, lead all others in their enrollment. Poland is second with 810 mail students.

The new Baltic states, Latvia, Lithuania and Estonia, are also well represented in the list, having from 150 to 400 students each. Algeria, Morocco, Syria and Palestine also are represented.

Tomatoes Show Bright. ROOD RIVER, Ore., July 27.—Unfavorable weather, according to J. H. Kohberg, owner of the Twentieth Century truck farm here, has resulted in a serious blighting of mid-Columbia tomatoes. He does not expect more than half a crop.

Mr. Kohberg says truck growers are also hampered by inability to obtain competent labor. He was in Portland Saturday committing work employment bureaus, but got no encouragement, he said.

Polk Road Work Hampered

MONMOUTH, Ore., July 27.—Greatly hampered by lack of materials and by the extreme shortage of labor, Cummins & La Pointe, contractors, have laid one-half mile of concrete paving between Monmouth and Benton county line. Another week the paving crew will move to the Luckiamute river and pave south in order to give bridge contractors a chance to move materials for two bridges to be constructed south of Sycer. Little the gap of nine miles this summer.

Deaconess Hospital Defended. SALEM, Ore., July 27.—Salem ministers have published a letter in defense of the Deaconess hospital, which recently was criticized for alleged cruelty to inmates. The charges were made by one who said she had been beaten and sent to bed at various times without food. The letter urged the public to withhold judgment until investigation has been made.

TOURIST TRAVEL

BRISK IN SPOKANE

(By Associated Press) SPOKANE, Wash., July 27.—Tourist travel here is 40 per cent ahead of the same date last year, and indications are that this percentage will increase as the season progresses, according to Frank W. Guilbert, secretary of the Inland Automobile Association.

Speaking to members of the Chamber of Commerce recently, Mr. Guilbert added that this season would probably bring about 150,000 cars to the city, compared with the 100,000 cars which came last season. He reported that inquiries at the association offices so far this year had been more numerous than in the past.

Give Way to Push Carts

(By Associated Press) LONDON, July 27.—Still it be "Opera" or "Onions" in the question agitating holders of business premises in Covent Garden Market. Business has grown to such an extent of late that dealers allege the Opera House, which is admittedly old and decaying, should be demolished and the site utilized for an extension of the congested market.

Rieh Boys Monitors (By Associated Press) SANTA BARBARA, Cal., July 27.—One priest, the Rev. A. Serra, and thirteen wealthy young men of Montecito, a suburb, have been appointed special deputies to keep thoroughfare leading to fire clear of automobiles when the alarms are sounded.
