Afternoon Tea Given in Honor Of Visitors

One of the most charming social events of the season was the reception given on Wednesday afternoon from three to five o'clock at the spacious home of Mrs. Edward E. Kiddle, of Island City, with Mrs. Edward E. Kiddle, Mrs. Frederick H. Kiddle, Mrs. Chester H. Bidwell and Mrs. Robert S. Eakin as hostesses.

It was an occasion complimenting Mrs. M. D. Brian, of Jefferson, Iowa, Mrs. Elmer Halstead of Kansas City, and Mrs. Eugene Seltzer, of Portland.

The decorations were unusually artistic. Large baskets of roses and larkspur were used in the living rooms, and a profusion of nasturtium blossoms made the dining room more beautiful.

Graciously assisting the hostesses about the living rooms were Messrs. A. R. Hunter, Bruce Dennis, George Cochran, J. K. Wright, Fred Schilke and H. K. Wallis.

Mrs. Wayne Wade and Mrs. Lyle Kiddle assisted in the dining room, with Mrs. O. E. Silverthorn and Mrs. A. T. Hill presiding at the coffee urn.

A number of young ladies assisted in serving delicious ices and cakes. The afternoon was a most enjoyable one and many friends were delighted with the gracious hospitality of their hostesses, and appreciated the charming honor guests.

Of interest to her friends in La Grande is the announcement of the marriage Thursday in Baker, of Miss Runa Bacon to Mr. Carl C. Temhaeff. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. L. G. H. Williams of the Episcopal church, was witnessed by a few near relatives.

The bride is the daughter of the late Dr. C. T. Bacon, who was a prominent member of the State Medical board and for years one of La Grande's leading physicians. She is a talented musician and is well known here in musical and social circles. Her mother accompanied her to Baker.

The young couple will leave next week on an extended trip to Wallowa Lake, Portland, Seattle, and other coast points, thence going by way of the Canadian Pacific to Golden, Illinois, where they will make their home.

After a two-week interval of quiet, things socially seem to be on the upward trend again, and will undoubtedly continue to be as long as the number of summer visitors in La Grande increases.

Each week sees an added number of these welcome guests and former La Grander back again, and so each week will have its share of social courtesies planned in their honor.

So exceedingly cool and mild has the summer been thus far, it is difficult to realize that it is already half gone and that before we know it August will be upon us with its quiet and languor. La Grande might easily be the most delightful of summer resorts, so comfortably cool is it during most of the summer days, and so plentifully do the summer visitors return for a month or two months.

Listed among the pleasures one might enjoy while in the city are swimming, horse-back riding, tennis, motoring and the like. The city park has its pleasures, and is a popular rendezvous for tired people to spend a cool evening amidst nature's beauty of vines and trees. The Grande Ronde river furnishes swimming, as does the swimming pool at the Country club. The excellent highways in and around La Grande provide an opportunity for visitors as well as home folks, to enjoy the wonderful scenery with which Grande Ronde valley is blessed. Horse-back riding has become a popular pastime, and many people are seen on the mountain roads and highways as well, mounted on some horses that Kentucky could well be proud.

Mrs. Carrie B. Sheldon, of Washington, D. C., arrived in La Grande last evening for a few weeks' visit in the Grande Ronde Valley with Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Skiff, of La Grande, and Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Skiff, of Union.

Mrs. Sheldon, who was one time acting governor of Oregon during Chamberlain's administration, has been associated with Senator Chamberlain during his term in the U. S. Senate, and also when he was a member of the government shipping board.

While in La Grande, Mrs. Sheldon will be at home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Skiff at 2106 First St.

Of interest to their friends in La Grande and Cove is the announcement of the marriage of Miss Vie Eyles to Mr. George Coons, both of Cove. The wedding took place July 26th at the Baptist parsonage of La Grande, the Rev. A. R. Siltou officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the presence of Mr. Harry Heryford and Miss Mildred Fulp, friends of the young couple.

Miss Gladys Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller, will open a studio some time in September and will enroll a number of piano pupils. Miss Miller has been teaching music elsewhere but was induced by her friends to come to La Grande to locate permanently.

She is a graduate of the American Conservatory of Music at Chicago and is recognized as one of the most able instructors on the piano in the northwest. Her studio location will be announced later.

It is a co-incident productive of great pleasure that Mrs. T. N. Murphy of Boise and Jacob Gulling of La Grande should have the same birthday, a number of years apart to be sure, but nevertheless the same day of the month. When Mrs. Murphy was a resident of La Grande the two families often celebrated the occasion and to repeat this pleasantly, Mr. and Mrs. Gulling, accompanied by their daughters, Mrs. Ethel Gulling-Sears and Mrs. Harvey Ray and Master Lawrence Ray are visiting at the Murphy home in Boise.

Miss Anna Kramer and Miss Grace Chapman delightfully entertained a host of friends at a linen shower given in honor of Miss Lois Royce and Miss Nellie Jackson, bride-elects.

They were recipients of many beautiful and useful gifts. The time was pleasantly spent playing "500." Miss Doris Jackson receiving the first prize and Miss Leona Waldroff second, while the consolation was awarded to Miss Mildred Lovett.

He is going to drive a six cylinder car instead of a string of six horses on his trip to San Diego, for when Joe Woods pulled the lines over the six bays on his last trip with President and Mrs. Harding in the stage coach at Meacham, he said to his friends that it was the last time he ever would touch the reins. There is heartfelt sentiment in Joe Woods' statement for no man of the wide open country ever loved the sixes hitched to a good stage better than did Joe. But civilization has pocketed that part of his life and he is willing to accept the gasoline buggy and go merrily on to the mecca of the grafter in Southern California, there hoping to have a little fun and enjoy the climate. Joe leaves tonight, accompanied by Mrs. Woods.

Mrs. Jay Shaw, of Fruitdale, was a delightful hostess to the ladies of the Parkdale Club Wednesday afternoon.

The rooms were tastefully decorated with art flowers. After the business meeting two beautiful selections on the piano were given by Miss Ruby Day. Mrs. Luper, Mrs. Cass and Mrs. Riddle also took part in the afternoon's program.

Refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

The Bootery, one of La Grande's prominent business establishments, located on Depot street, has up to the present time been carrying on a small stock of ladies hosiery but now, according to announcements today by the manager of the establishment, a complete stock of Spuntex and Gordon hosiery is listed.

"All sizes and colors in the new fall styles, ranging in price from one dollar up," the manager stated when questioned as to what assortment they now have.

The Bootery has lately installed some new shelving to accommodate their new lines.

STATE PRISON SHAKE-UP SEEN

Preceding Tuesday's escapes by only three days, the report went out that Warden Smith had turned a number of convicts under death sentence into the prison yards. This rolled more care in handling convicts, to the end that the number of escapes might be reduced. Apparently this letter had little weight with the warden, as there has been no letup in the number of escapes.

It is known here that Mr. Irvine, the governor's secretary, favors the selection of Captain Lewis. In this he has the support of Dillard Elkins, member of the state industrial accident commission, and other members of the executive's cabinet.

Moore for Mr. Downing.

Will Moore, state insurance commissioner, was said to favor the appointment of Mr. Downing for political reasons. Neither W. E. Crews, state corporation commissioner, nor Fred Curry, secretary of the state fair board, were close to the governor, have expressed any opinion regarding the prison situation.

Mr. Irvine, who left Monday for southern Oregon on a ten days' vacation, returned here tonight following the receipt of news from the penitentiary.

Some weeks ago Governor Pierce, at the instigation of Mr. Irvine, prepared a sharp letter to Warden Smith in which he was instructed to use
