Austrians Moving to Berlin

BERLIN, August 1. (By Mail)—Living is so much cheaper here today than in Vienna, due to the fact that the German mark is worth so much less than the Austrian crown that many Austrians are said to be moving to the German capital.

Reports from Vienna describe long lines of people waiting day and night in front of the German consulate, seeking the proper endorsement on their passports to cross the frontier.

He's back to his Uncle Sammy, back where the stars and stripes float, and he is a mighty happy Chinaman is Li Jim who left La Grande eight months ago went to his old home in China, married a Chinese lady who is in the tailoring business in one of China's trade centers. Li Jim for many years was cook at the Sommer hotel, but is now in business for himself on Depot street. ## COMMUNITY WAS MUCH EXCITED PROMISE, August 1.—(Special)—The Promise Grange had their regular meeting Saturday.

G. S. Trump's 14 year old son, Spencer, strolled away Thursday morning at six o'clock while going to get the cows which were in the pasture near the house. The cows came home and the parents who thought he was playing did not hunt for him till about noon when he was nowhere to be found. A party of men gathered and searched the woods until 9:30 Thursday night then gathered at the residence and started out again when they heard the boy groaning in the barn. They found him very ill and unconscious. He was unable to tell where he had been, but improved fast and is alright now.

Mrs. T. J. Williams took sick Saturday while in the garden hoeing, and started to the house. Mr. Williams stopped to talk to a neighbor a few minutes then went to the house, but could not find her. He searched for some time before reporting her loss. The neighbors searched until about dark and found her unconscious. They carried her home before she gained consciousness but she is improving now.

Mrs. Curtis Lindsay returned to La Grande Monday after visiting several days with relatives and friends.

Miss Jessie Garrett went to Walla Walla Sunday with her daughter, who drove home Saturday night.

Howard Bennett is working for C. E. Kenworthy.

One of "Weaker Sex" Points Out the Way

(By E. N. S.)

HORNELL, N. Y., August 1.—Hornell contractors have solved a labor problem, provided they can find a few more women like Mrs. Mina Guild, who has been unloading cinders from freight cars here, working beside two stalwart men and forcing them to extend themselves to keep up with her.

"It's nothing," she said modestly. "I am good and strong, and hard work won't hurt me any. Winter before last I cut 75 cords of wood and did about the same last winter. I saw a chance for a little easy money, so I took this job."

The sun has been burning hot, yet Mrs. Guild has worked in the car bareheaded and apparently not mindful of the heat. She is a woman about 30 years of age, and the possessor of a figure that would make Venus envious. She cuts whatever she wants and has no worries about getting fat, she smilingly admitted.

Her husband has worked beside her, and every night showed unmistakable signs of fatigue. She on the contrary, seemed fresh as ever.

Baldock, division engineer, and members of the Umatilla county court, accompanied by a delegation of Pendleton and Ukiah men, made an inspection of the north and south road that connects Grant and Umatilla counties last week.

A request that the route be inspected by the highway commission was recently made by men who are seeking to promote state, federal and county co-operation to get a through road connecting Pendleton on the north to Burns on the south in Harney county.

Next Capable Fire Chief

BEND, Ore., Aug. 1.—"The unqualified fire chief is a potential murderer." With these words Jay W.
