Cove and Elgin
At Bats Sunday

Contest to Be Played at Imbler; Clifford Is to Replace Chandler.

The longed-for championship battle is at hand and Elgin will meet Cove next Sunday at Imbler for what Manager Joe Gray terms the championship of western Oregon. Cove, although virtually in a tie with both La Grande and Baker, claims the right to meet Elgin to decide the championship of this neck of the woods, states the Elgin Recorder.

Cove's chance at Elgin comes largely through the work of Dave Hummelstein who held Baker to 4 runs while Cove was putting over 7. The victory is Dave's tenth out of ten since, by the way, he won nine straight for Elgin and lost none. Through error the Recorder credited him with nine out of ten last week but the last game was pitched by Luke Shelton.

Elgin will go into the game minus the services of Riley Chandler, dependable shortstop who has been going good this season. Jack Clifford of La Grande, an old Elgin player, will replace him. The remainder of the lineup will be Woods, catcher; Hummelstein, pitcher; Patten, first; Steele, second; Fortier third; and Gent, Mason, and DeHole in the outfield.

Imbler has been selected for the contest because it can be reached easily from all sections of the valley. There is a good field there too from reports. A big crowd is expected and both teams should realize some money on the game as well as satisfy some questions as to the relative merits of the two teams.

Elgin is the favorite, but three weeks without a game is not in the home boys' favor.

CRUISE SAILS FOR FRANCE;
DUNDEE BIDS FAREWELL

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Eugene Cruik, who won the world's featherweight title from Johnny Kilbane two months ago, and lost it a week ago in a battle with Johnny Dundee, sailed for home Thursday on the Suffren with the goodbyes and praises of his conqueror ringing in his ears.

Dundee went aboard the Suffren and spent a quarter hour chatting with the Frenchman, his wife and his manager, Robert Rudeline. Cruik said he planned to return to Australia after fighting several local opponents in Europe. Several matches have been arranged for him in New York in December.

"A good soldier, a valiant fighter, and a gentleman is bound to do well in American boxing rings," the champion informed the Frenchman. Cruik expressed a desire for another chance at the title, and Dundee said:

"I shall be only too glad to give you a return match next spring, some time in May."

When the last "all ashore" gong sounded, Cruik and Dundee embraced, shook hands and parted.

Saboteur at Athens Alleged

PENNINGTON, N. J., Aug. 2.—George Burns, Charles (Howey) P. C. Barton, all said to be members of the Industrial Workers of the World, who were arrested in Athens last week, were held to await the action of the grand jury under bonds of $1000 each by Justice Richards of Athens. They are charged with throwing sand into journals of freight cars.

LONDON, July 16. (By Mail).—Gathering his figures from all over the world, E. R. Cathborp declares there were 20 crashes of airplanes during the six months ended June 30. One hundred and six persons were killed in these accidents and 64 were injured.

Mr. Cathborp says it is only by the introduction of parachutes, and the capable use of them, that fatalities can be materially reduced.
