Sherry's To-Day Last Showing "A Gentleman of Leisure"

Jack Holt Wins Again. Jack Holt's latest picture, "A Gentleman of Leisure," who, given a highly successful premier presentation at the Sherry Theatre yesterday.

The story is a delightful melodramatic comedy with the star usually well cast as Robert Pitt, a young American wanderer. Sir Spencer Deever is practically forced by his Aunt and Uncle, who are in dire financial straits, to court the girl of his choice, Molly Creelion, of New York City. Spennie does not wish to disobey Sir John and Lady Blount, but he is determined to marry a certain chorus girl.

Pitt meets Miss Creelion while dining in a restaurant. She is with the Blounts. At their next meeting at a house party given by the Blounts, Pitt obtains an introduction to Molly through Sir Spencer. It is at this party that, through a curious twist of events, the far-famed Blount necklace is stolen, and Pitt, because Molly's father, Deputy Police Commissioner "Big Phil" Creelion had seen him in company of a crook the day previous, is accused of the theft. Hints are cleared up in the end however, and all turns out well, especially for Robert and Molly.

The supporting cast is of the finest and includes Sigrid Holmquist as Mr. Holt's leading woman. Also Showing a Comedy.

"California Romance" At Star Theatre

"There is something in the thrumming of a guitar, in the warm human notes of a fitting love song that awakens in most of us a quick response to the strong appeal of adventure and romance. That is the kind of story which awaits you at the Star Theatre "A California Romance" will be shown today and Tuesday.

The Fox production starring John Gilbert tells of the stirring days when California was ceded to the United States. Advance word from the producer states that the entertainment quality of this photoplay is close to one hundred per cent. There is promise of an unusually engrossing story, masterful direction, keen thrills and a love tale of surpassing interest. Mention is included of particularly artistic photography, and judging from past Fox productions, the claim is well warranted.

To give the story in detail would spoil the enjoyment of those who will see it on the screen.

"The Bull," a two reel Christie comedy will also be shown.
