OFFICE CAT

BY JUNIUS

The other day a reformer says: "I'd just as soon see a girl dress in public as powder her face." So would I.

A La Grande man has discovered a young woman of 24 who didn't know that a hen does not lay four eggs in one day, and another of 35 who has never eaten a piece of pie a la mode.

When the people refuse to be uplifted the uplifters start another drive for funds to continue the work.

Man spends half of his life cursing the old fogies and the other half worrying about the rising generation.

German people are gambling in marks, but many people here match pennies.

When asking a man how he feels, always remember that there is a chance that he will go into the bathroom details in telling you.

Scientists say we are what we eat. What a lot of people there are that eat out.

A woman who has lived on party sandwiches all her life is beginning to look like a lettuce sandwich.

You Tell 'Em. The robin is clearer than all the rest; the peacock can boast of the finest frill; the yellow canary can sing the best, but the stork is the bird with the lonest bill!

The Lone Wolfe girl who never has been tardy or absent from school in twelve years, probably will draw a husband who never gets home on time for his meals.

Automobile owners are getting so lazy they will not even walk in their sleep any more. They call a taxi.

Cheer Up. This world is full of sunshine. This world is full of cheer. If we but tried to find it. Throughout each day and year.

There seems to be too many people interpreting the liquor laws, and not enough observing them.

After reading about all the beautiful brides, nurses A. Tash, we can't help but wonder where all the homely married women come from.

Say, cull, don't git gay wid my—I'm so hard I scratches the bathtub. Dat's nuthin'. I'm so hard I shaves wid a blow torch.

"YOU DON'T KNOW YOUR EGGS!" SAID THE ROOSTER TO THE OLD HEN AS SHE SAT DOWN ON A GLASS ONE.

Still, the knights of old who stood up for women didn't go so far as to do it in street cars.

Sunshine

The Boy Scouts, Camp Fire Girls and other La Grande exponents of the out-of-doors are enjoying benefits of life in the open. They see the things of the world in a new light and understand nature better. They meet friends in the same cause, swap stories and form congenial companionships. Every student of the big outdoors gets new object lessons, makes new resolves and forms new links of character with the day of sunshine.

Sunshine is the test of summer time in Grande Ronde valley. It ripens the grain and fruit and gives strength to the camper. All nature has a smiling face when the sun causes the plants to grow, the flowers to open and the fruits to mature. Sunshine induces youth to get out, amid the fields and forests, drink in the pure air and enjoy the healthfulness of exercise in the open.

There are profits in sunshine that one does not always reckon on when planning an outing in the open. It creates beauty and attractiveness and thereby adds to efficiency and usefulness. It helps in fitting one for future work and inculcates a desire for keeping young in order to continue enjoying the playfields of youth. Yes, there are countless benefits to be derived from mingling with the all-outdoors. The sun paints smiles on the cheeks of humanity in unerasable lines.

August

What is the matter with August? It is the only long midsummer period of hot days, few showers and no holidays. There is not even a suggestion of a national celebration between Independence and Labor day.

August was not always the forgotten month of the year. In early times the name was unknown. When the year was divided into ten months by the Romans the period of heat and humidity marked by dry rivers, lakes and creeks was called Sextilis. History says it was Caesar who changed the seasons and gave us the month of Augustus, now shortened to August.

Why not consult the goddesses, Ceres, Pomona and Flora, and get a proclamation naming some day in August for a national festival in commemoration of the cereals, fruits and flowers? Or why not get some fabled mermaid-nymph to set apart a day for national aquatic sports and liven up the month of August? There are enough days to spare, the time between light and darkness is long and the danger in outdoor revelries is not so great as in some other seasons. August days and vacation-time are too bright to be passed in the hum-drum of everyday existence.

Owning Your Home

Folks who some years ago bought houses and settled down to live in them, made an exceedingly lucky stroke. A lot of these folks are now getting their living quarters at a rent far below what the average renter is paying. They might not be able to build a new house for less than double what their home cost them.

The favorable result of a good investment in real estate should be considered by every family that is ambitious to acquire an independent position. There may not be so much chance in future years to make money by the advance in value of a home that one owns. Still, in a general way, the people who own their own dwellings come out rather better than those who pay rent.

When you live another man's house, a part of the rent is in the nature of compensation paid to the owner to look after the property. The occupant might just as well care for it himself and avoid having to pay this charge.

Song writer has been given a year in jail, but it is too much to expect that it is the chap who write, "Yes, We Have Nothing-Or-Other."

Hair dressers have decreed that ear muffs must go. They seem to be a need, however, for a muffler while eating corn on the cob.

Getting the battery charged is not nearly so much of a problem to the average motorist as finding a place to get the gasoline charged.

The Russian soviet has accumulated a comfortable gold reserve, it is reported. Its creditors should try and get it.

Wall street admits it can't explain this stock market. If everybody knew, there would be no speculation.

An ad offers rooms at a seashore cottage, "with semi-private bath." Many would prefer the ocean.

Looks as if Mr. Johnson is the real "dick farmer," while Magnus manipulates the windmill.

The course of true love will usually run smoother if the young man has plenty of money.

Some persons are so unstable in their ways that they are willing to try anything once.
