Wilson Eager To Meet Greb

(By L. N. S.)

NEW YORK, Aug. 17.—Johnny Wilson, sometimes maligned for not having demonstrated to the entire satisfaction of some factions that he is a real champion, welcomes the chance to meet Harry Greb, he declares, so that those who criticize may be justified or forever hold their peace.

"For two years I have patiently waited to prove to the public that I am a real champion, and my opportunity will come when I step into the ring to meet Harry Greb," announced Champion Johnny Wilson, "I am willing to stand for fall on my showing. I know I will win. It is written so and I feel it. If confidence counts I will be invincible. I know all about Greb and his style. He can't go too fast to suit me. And he'll have to go fast, for that is the way I will fight. I know I can hit harder than Greb, and I don't think he can hurt me. At any rate it will be a fight, a real fight, and when it is over the public will agree that I am entitled to the crown."

The bout is to take place at the Polo grounds on the night of August 21. Wilson is training with Jack Taylor and "Wild Bill" Houston, both lightweights. Wilson's camp is at Johnny Collins' health farm at Summit, N. J. The veteran Jim Buckley has charge of the champion's training. Wilson started light work some time ago, weighing 163 pounds. He is down to 145 pounds now and will make the 140 pounds without effort. He runs on the road in the morning, rides horseback for an hour, and boxes in an open-air ring every day. Although a southerner, Wilson has developed his right until it has become almost an effective as his famous left. He can hit hard with it from any angle.

Three Drowned.
CASTLETON, Vt., Aug. 17.—Three persons lost their lives when a gasoline tank of a motor launch carrying 11 passengers exploded late Thursday on Lake Bomoseen, near here, causing the vessel to sink. Eight members of the party were rescued by cottagers who put out in boats.

Four Injured in Auto Wreck.
BOISE, August 17.—Four women, all residents of Glenns Ferry were seriously injured when the car in which they were coming to Boise, skidded in a stretch of sand and turned turtle on the Boise-Mountain Home road near O'Leary at 7 o'clock Thursday morning. Raymond Knutson, 11, the fifth occupant of the car, escaped without injury.

The injured are: Mrs. George Mosgrove, possible fracture of the skull, badly bruised about the head and body; right hand mangled and torn.
Mrs. E. B. Mosgrove, sister-in-law of Mrs. George Mosgrove, five ribs and a shoulder broken and several bruises about the head and body.
Mrs. Guy Blazler, Oregon Short Line telegraph operator at Glenns Ferry, broken collar bone and thought to be suffering with internal injuries. An X-ray will be taken this morning.

Mrs. J. L. Anderson, driver of the automobile, slight scratches about the body and a laceration of the right leg.

Here's Comfort for Hikers
Even an ardent hiker's enthusiasm will be the greater if boots so comfortable, so trim lined as these, are worn. While made to stand the trials of the rockiest trail, they're supple and dry, soft—they give needed protection and support, without any discomfort.

LADIES READY-TO-WEAR PUTMAN'S AND MILLINERY

The Way of the Fall Mode

EACH new season is a new pleasure to greet and to investigate. First arrivals intimate that the Fall of 1923 will be more interesting than others. Its modes bear evidence of many, many flounces, unexpected godets, circular apron effects, plaits and embroidery. A cordial invitation is given to see them

WRAPS of Newest Lines
August, and new Wraps for Fall are already here! It is not too early to be thinking of them when models are as chic as these. Lines, fabrics, and the furs that trim so many of these are those women will admire. This is a fine opportunity to get a lovely Wrap and have it ready for when it will be needed.
$25.00 to $140.00

SUITS Cleverly Designed
There is spice to owning one of these very first Fall Suits, they are so emphatically different. A flared silhouette is seen now, then a long straight-lined one; and when fur does not trim the jacket it is usually embroidered all over. Smart new colors are another reason for selecting one's Fall Suit now.
$25.00 to $75.00

FROCKS Fresh from Paris
First crisp Frocks taken from their boxes give promise of a Fall with most interesting apparel. What more striking for the street than this twill Frock with tiers in spiral effect? Or what more flattering than Dresses with smart touches of plaid? A glimpse will suggest immediate choosing for immediate use.
$12.50 to $75.00

History repeats itself they say and now Frock fashions take one back to 1850, sleeves that are tight, low waistlines and many flounces make an intriguing style—here, proof positive.

Suits and Wraps of Fall are often colored plum-sant brown or bottle green. They are pleasant shades and, more than that, will prove complimentary to scores of women.
