

Society

The officers of the Presbyterian society were entertained yesterday by the local officers in La Grande, and Presbyterian officers living in La Grande, in the form of a picnic luncheon at the Park. This is an annual event, and once each year they have an all day meeting, to discuss different matters of the organization, and to have a general social time.

Quite a large delegation from Baker and Union were present at the picnic yesterday, bringing also their local officers.

The outstanding feature of the day was the splendid program that was given, ably presided over by Mrs. C. M. Humphreys, president of the Presbyterian. Mrs. L. B. Moe was chairman of the luncheon committee, and was enjoyed to the fullest extent by all who attended. In fact, the meeting that was held yesterday was pronounced as one of the most successful ever held.

The regular conjoint meeting of the M. I. A. will be held Sunday night, August 26, at the Tabernacle at 7:30 o'clock.

Numbers on the program will include an address by Campbell Carlick, who has recently returned from a mission in the Northern States; a vocal duet by Mrs. G. A. Bean and Mrs. Jack Hiatt; reading by Mrs. Clyde Metcalf; violin solo by Earl Manwaring; piano solo by Beesie Andrew; reading by Elmer Peterson. The L. D. S. Choir will furnish music during the evening.

Mr. Manwaring and Mr. Peterson are B. Y. U. students at Provo, Utah, who are spending a short time in La Grande.

The program promises to be excellent, and the public is cordially invited to attend.

Harold Maxwell motored to Pendleton last evening and spent the night with his parents, returning to La Grande this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Warner, who have been visiting at the home of their son, W. D. Warner, of this city, left this morning for Wallawa Lake, where they will spend some time.

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Allison, Miss Edith Swalberg and Donald McLean left this morning for Wallawa Lake, where they will spend some time.

Mrs. Thomas Standley and Mrs. Homer Wilson will entertain the Parkdale club, Wednesday, August 29th at the home of Mrs. Wilson in Fruitdale.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hampton were visitors in Pendleton last week.

Fashion Notes

Lace and Muslin Frills.
Paris.—Late summer gowns of organdy, crepe de chine and linen now are bursting into a veritable foam of little lace and muslin frills. In many cases the very short sleeves as well as the side panels are made of frills altogether.

Still Flower Bedecked.
Paris.—Hats continue flower bedecked today in spite of autumn approach. A chic favorite is the wide hat of crimoline, the crown of which is covered with tiny muslin roses.

Parasols Grow Prim.
London.—Parasols, which started out to be extremely ornate, are now of rather demurely prim cast. One type is of accordion plaited taffeta decorated merely with an edging of point lace.

Prefer Simpler Shoe.
London.—Many women today are discarding the buckles and other gaudy ornaments of their shoes. At present a number of smart women favor a simple shoe with one narrow strap about the ankle.

Distinguishing Color.
New York.—The big thing that distinguishes this autumn's gown front last is the collar. Collars today are here in every conceivable form and shape, sometimes being elongated into skirt panels.

Red Gains Vogue.
New York.—A touch of red is creeping distinctly into the vogue.

MOUNTAIN CHIEF QUI FIGHTING many years ago. But he still wears his old war bonnet. A Cree hunter slightly damaged his plumage in the last battle of his career. Mountain Chief is the last of the warrior Blackfoot chiefs.

today, forecasting a touch of similar brilliance an autumn costume. Cream organdy gowns have cherry bushes, and frocks of white georgette have bits of lacquer red beading.

Mother of Pearl Back.
New York.—Mother of pearl is a lovely, old-fashioned thing, coming back again into style. It is not most frequently today in the form of spangles, with which various cutouts are decorated. It makes beautiful bracelets also.

Mellow Shades for Party Frocks.
New York.—Among the colors to be fashionable in the next few weeks for party frocks are mellow shades of yellow, clear blues and a green, brighter than leaf but not so crude as grass. Cream and ivory tints are also in favor.

Library Chats

Through the courtesy of the Evening Observer this column containing bits of interesting information about your Public Library will be published Saturday. Since it is your institution we feel sure that you are interested in its plans for the future, its growth and development.

The library exists for this community, and you are all invited to develop one habit which we hope will prove to be to your advantage—the library habit. It is like the movie habit or the soda water habit. We wish to create in you the library habit.

The Public Library is open until nine o'clock every night so don't get into the habit of thinking the library isn't for you because you are a working man. We are very glad to look up references of any kind every evening. Don't miss getting acquainted with your Public Library.

The Library appreciates the kindness of Mr. Shorthorn who so willingly loaned a section of his store window for the interesting exhibits which we have put on this week. A very queer exhibit, perhaps some of you are saying, and we will admit there is nothing very artistic in a pile of old, dirty, wormout books. Yet it answers such questions as, "In the library used by the public?" "Why does the library need to buy new books?" The library must grow to keep pace with this growing community. Therefore, boost for your Public Library.

A bill for new books has recently arrived which means new books are on the way. The list looks interesting and we know you are going to want to read them all. We hope next week to be able to tell you more about them. So watch this space.

RECEPTION FOR BISHOP PLANNED

BAKER, Ore.—A public reception honoring Bishop and Mrs. W. P. Remington, of the Episcopal diocese of eastern Oregon, will be held at the Elks hall on Wednesday evening September 12, according to an announcement made at the chamber of commerce luncheon at the Geiser Grill at noon yesterday by James H. Nichols, who urged that attendance by every resident of the city be emphasized. Tentative plans for the reception were made on Tuesday evening. Secretary Meacham is in charge of program arrangements.

Mr. Nichols pointed out that despite the fact that Bishop Remington has made his home in Baker for nearly a year he has not yet definitely decided upon his official residence but is expected to do so within a short time. Headquarters for the diocese will be established wherever Bishop Remington decides.

to make his home and there will be built the Episcopal cathedral and other buildings. La Grande and Pendleton are both anxious to be honored by the Bishop and Mr. Nichols urged that this city do all within its power to maintain diocesan headquarters here.

Old Mines Give New Gold.
CORBAUGH, Germany. (AP)—Gold diggers are working in pits which have lain idle since 1885, and there is great excitement in this principality of Waldeck over reports which assayers have made on the red clay taken from the old diggings.

Why husbands don't like Wash Day!

There are many reasons why you shouldn't do your own washing:

- 1 It wastes too much time.
- 2 It is a drag on your strength and appearance.
- 3 It interferes with more important household duties.
- 4 It is more expensive than having your wash laundered.
- 5 It is dangerous in the hot weather.

You should send your washing to us because:

- 1 We do it cheaper, better, and quicker than you could.
- 2 We take good care of the clothes.
- 3 We use no buttons if necessary.
- 4 We take the physical burden and the mental worry from you.

RAILROAD NOW IMPROVING LINE

O.-W. Company Re-laying Branch Line Railroad Tracks, According to Joseph Dispatch.

JOSEPH, Ore.—The O.-W. R. & N. Co. is making some substantial improvements on the roadbed of the branch line, particularly through the canyon. Ninety-pound steel is taking the place of the 60-pound rails, the work having reached a point about a mile this side of Minam. Enough more 90-pounders have been provided to re-lay the track to the mouth of the canyon this year and there is a prospect that the lighter rails will be replaced as far as the Wallawa station within the next year. The intention is to lay heavy steel to Joseph eventually, but this will not happen in the immediate future. The heavy steel is brought from the main line where it is being replaced by 100-pound rails. The 90's are sawed down a little, making them average about 24 feet instead of thirty feet, the standard length. The extensive logging operations in the canyon have placed quite a strain upon the trackage of the branch, making it necessary to replace the lighter steel with the main line standard. This traffic will probably be aided to greatly by the movement of the grain crop, to say nothing of the prospect of several hundred carloads of head lettuce.

SWIMMING COACH GOES TO SYRACUSE

International News Service Staff Correspondent.
SYRACUSE, N. Y.—When Harold L. Ulen, coach of the famous Carbis Walker, who swam across Lake Erie, and of other nationally known aquatic figures, comes to Syracuse University as a swimming mentor this fall he will bring with him at least a scholastic swimming stars who have won all kinds of championship laurels. He brings also an excellent record of coaching success.

Some of the men who are planning to follow their popular coach from Cleveland Central Y. M. C. A. to Syracuse University are the following:

Carl Meers, former senior A. A. U. diving champion.
Art Matson, national scholastic diving champion.
Melvin Morse, national 220-yard free style and back stroke champion, the national scholastic championships

Cleveland East High School senior. Little Wilson, distance plunge, Cleveland West High School senior. Jimmy House, very fast free style swimmer, from University School, a Cleveland preparatory institution. Harold Mooney, speedy Lakewood High School senior.

Melvin Morse, the youthful scullion, who expects to come to Syracuse when he finishes at preparatory school in February, has proved second only to the great Johann Weismuller, last winter, in the senior A. A. U. 130-yard championships at Chicago. Morse finished close behind Weismuller, who shattered the world's record for the event. Incidentally, Morse, too, passed well under the old world's mark career of Ulen is marked with the records of such swimmers as Morse.

Besides coaching at the Y. M. C. A. Ulen has found time to direct swimming at several high schools. East High, under his tutelage, won against Spain, and won the English covered courts championship.

at Chicago in 1922. University School, a Cleveland "prep" institution, finished runner-up last season through his coaching.

Britain Pensions Notables.
LONDON. (AP).—The Civil List Pensions granted during the financial year ended March, contains the name of Miss Kayser Kitchener who is allowed $50 "in recognition of the distinguished service of her step-brother, the late Carl Kitchener." Judith Mary Lady Ward is also granted $50 "in recognition of the service rendered by her husband the late Sir John Leslie Ward," as an artist.

Tennis Stars To Wed.
LONDON. (AP).—Two young tennis stars have started a tennis "love match" by becoming engaged. These are Miss Evelyn Colyer, who aroused much interest at Wimbledon this year and M. J. L. P. ("Pat") Wheatley who played in the Davis Cup team against Spain, and won the English covered courts championship.
